

THESE ARE BUSY DAYS IN DOCK STREET AS THE EARLY SPRING VEGETABLES APPEAR. The produce district still clings to the horse for delivery purposes, even on the heaviest market days.

A FRANKLIN RELIC FACES DESTRUCTION
University authorities are striving to save this building on Wistar place, near Third and Market streets, in which "Poor Richard" is said to have operated a printing shop.

(c) Underwood & Underwood
WON HEARTS OF HER CAPTORS
Daughter of Captain Jacobsen, of the Norwegian bark Thor II, became mascot of U-boat which sank her father's craft.

Copyright Underwood & Underwood.
WOMEN DISCUSSING DISPOSAL OF $1,000,000
First meeting of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, with famous suffragists, to consider use of Mrs. Frank Leslie fund. Seated are Miss Alice Stone Blackwell, Mrs. Catt, Mrs. Raymond Robins. Behind them stand Mrs. Jean Norris, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Miss Mary Garrett Hay (proxy for Mrs. Winston Churchill), and Miss Gratia Goller, secretary and treasurer.

HEADED FIGHT FOR FIREMEN
Isadore Stern, who introduced the two-platoon bill, which Governor Brumbaugh's signature makes effective January 1.

CONVENT PUPILS HAVE FIRST-AID CLASS
Sisters of the Sacred Heart, at Merion, instruct girls in bandaging wounds.

YOUNG STUDENTS LEARN TO STOP BLOOD'S FLOW
The Merion Convent class in first aid is manifesting its proficiency in emergency treatment.

NEW YORK IS RECRUITING ELEVATOR "GIRLS"
Miss Lillian Delehanty, of the Donal Court Apartments, about to close the door and start her car on its upward trip.