

We want a Bridge, just such a bridge
To reach the Camden side
Built on a plan with a mighty span
With Road and Footway wide

Copyright, International Film Service.
NEW YORK RUSHES TO SEE AND HEAR "BILLY" SUNDAY
Crowds striving to get into the Tabernacle rival those of a world's series at the adjacent Polo Grounds

WORLD'S OLDEST BOAT AND DOLL
These relics of Pharaoh's day are in the University Museum. They are 5000 years old, and were found in ancient Egyptian tombs.

YOUNGEST AVIATING PASSENGER
Philadelphia claims in Harry Joline, a child of many titles and records. His achievements include a mile in twenty-seven seconds in an automobile, 14,000 miles in forty-five days by rail and 200 times as model.

"WE WANT A BRIDGE," HIS SLOGAN
David H. Wright, of Riverton, in uniform he wore in '98, seeks recruits for trans-Delaware span among Easter crowds at Atlantic City.

MENNONITE WOMEN MARKETING
This Quaker-like garb once was as familiar in Philadelphia as it is today in Lancaster County.

