

WEATHERMAN SCORES ANOTHER VICTORY OVER BIG LEAGUE BALL ATHLETES

BLEAKING CLOUDS AND DAMP RAIN PREVENT COMBAT AT SHIBE PARK

In the first two games. Although the weather was not what it should have been, there was nothing which showed that Connie Mack hadn't a strong team this year. Other teams are losing, especially the Yankees, and Bill Donovan is expected to have one of the strongest organizations in the league. It is true that the weather is not so good, but we doubt if it is more powerful than Washington, who are playing two games in a row in not such favorable conditions, especially when one remembers that the champion Athletics once managed the season by losing seven out of eight first contests. The team will put in a good article of baseball in a week or two and surprise the fans by winning some games.

house this morning. The Smoke King is held in great esteem by the players and all expressed a desire to be among those absent when the saliva sphere is first tried out.
Stuffy Discusses Spitter
'It will be murder in the first degree when Walter starts to spit that spitter at us,' said Stuffy Melanis. 'It is not the most pleasant guy in the world to meet at present, and we are satisfied if he doesn't improve. It takes lots of nerve to stand up there and face that fast one, and it will take more when the ball begins to curve in all directions. We are happy when we get a few fouls off Johnson, and strut around with our chests out, proud of our work. Walter is better than ever this year, and no spitter is needed to help him out.
'I never will forget the day when Jack Barry was almost hit by one of Johnson's shoots. Jack stood up at the plate, looking them over, and he was confident that he would hit the ball. He allowed two wide ones to go by and got set for the next one. Walter put everything he had on that ball, but it was high and on the inside. Before Barry realized it the ball struck the visor of his cap and knocked it off. From then on Jack battled with one foot near the plate and the other in the water bucket. He was taking no chances.'

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

By LOUIS H. JAFFE
EVENING LEDGER DECISIONS BROADWAY—Bobby Reynolds won from Darryl Casper. Frankie Conway shaded Hubby McAnn. Joe Patrone stopped Kid Collins, second; Gene Rondo quit to Johnny Brown, first; Steve Morris beat Young Wells, second.
NEW YORK—Mike O'Donnell defeated Soldier Bartfield; Sandy Taylor outpointed Lev Corbin.
WATERBURY, Conn.—Marty Farrell knocked out Billy Richards, fifth; Frankie Burns defeated Dutch Grant.
ALLENTOWN—Homer Smith knocked out Jack Taylor, fifth.
Kensington and Richmond boxers virtually have the call of the Germania Club tonight.
Johnny Duffy, of Kensington, and 'Bout' Dorie, of Richmond, are finalists, and as both are hard hitters, their exhibition should be fascinating. Eddie Mullin and Joe Brown, both Richmond favorites, clash in the semi. Jack Dunaway, of Australia, and Young Carey, of Newtown, are paired off, and in the other main work, Joe Geiger meets another Kensingtonian, Young Werner, and Eddie Gibbons, of Manayunk, tackles Joe Gillespie, of Richmond.
Johnny Conlon and Johnny Erie, each of whom has not boxed for some time, are to do don ring attire again against each other April 20 at New Orleans, according to a report from that city. The match is to be for ten rounds.
Tommy Touhey, the red-head from Paterson, N. J., is to put on an encore with Johnny Mahoney, from up the State, in the star scrap at the National tomorrow night. 'The Red' and Ma-honey were a brilliant battle, and there is no reason why they shouldn't repeat. Chief Turner, the half-breed strong Indian, who made a fine impression on his debut here two weeks ago, is to meet Harry Baker, a person of heavy reputation. Other bouts are to bring together Pat Moore and Harry Hoyle, Frankie McManus and Jimmy Kane, a newcomer here, and Sammy Nelson and Tommy Manton.
Johnny Mealy and Johnny Dundee are matched at 133 pounds tonight at the Olympia Monday night, and neither will have trouble making the weight. Each has been boxing under 130 pounds, and with an extra pound or two they ought to be in strong condition. Joe Hirst, who came back in great form the last time out, is paired off with Jack Andrews, of Baltimore. Fatsy Broderick and Eddie Wagoner, a pair of non-boxer but slugging battery, are bracketed, and in the other bouts Jimmy Mc-Cabe gets started again against Battling Mills and Young Joe Borrell meets Joe Brennan.
Charles Wolcott deserves a lot of credit for being a game bird. He was knocked off in a couple of rounds here by Jack Dillon three weeks ago and was handed a severe beating in New York later. Now Charles has proved for another splendid attempt by meeting the Hoosier in a five-round match at Kansas City April 27.
All bantams, or near-bantams, will be on the program at the Olympia Monday a week, with Eddie O'Keefe and Frankie Burns in the star scrap.
Three boxers will be at the head of the grand march tonight of the Jovial Twelve ball at the National tomorrow night. They are Lew Fender, Mike Gallagher and Joe Welsh.
Willis Edwards, also a boxer, will exhibit.
Frank Moran is no slacker. The heavyweight pugilist, who was formerly an expert gun

Red and Blue to Line Up Tomorrow Against Fourth Street, Instead of Yale, Canceled
Penn has canceled a game for tomorrow afternoon with the Fourth street ball team to take the place of the game originally scheduled with Yale. The Elis have called off all their athletic schedules. The Fourth street nine is made up of former college players, and the Red and Blue will find plenty of opposition. Manager Jack Har-grave announced this afternoon that Williams will be played Monday instead of Tuesday of next week. There was a light practice at Franklin Field this afternoon, but no game.

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR PLATE

Thirty-eight Two-Year-Olds to Meet in Aspirant Race
NEW YORK, April 13.—Thirty-eight revally bred two-year-olds will measure up at five-and-one-half furlongs in the Aspirant Plate, a new fixture to be run at the meeting of the Piping Rock Racing Association at the Locust Valley course. The entries for the event closed on April 10.
The first day's racing will be on April 23.
