UNDEE, PREPAREDNESS BELIÉVER. PROVES HE IS READY FOR WAR ON FRED WELSH BY DEFEATING MEALY

Patriotic Color Injected in Olympia Show by Lieutenant Bryant's Appeal for Recruits-New York Wop Wins in Sensational Form

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

KE Recruiting Officer Lieutenant Bryant Jof the United States havy, Signor eph Cororra, atlas Johnny Dundee, of York, is a stanch believer of prepared ess. Following Uncle Sam's declaration I war on Germany and the renewed procamation of hostilities by Dundee for a rack at Fred Welsh's lightweight crown, Jeutenant Bryant and Signor Cororra are reparing for different and distinct fighting

Both Lieutenant Bryant and Dundee ap peared before the same audience at the Olympia last night. While the former speke fight the other showed fight, and, furthermore, a whole gang of it was jammed ato six rounds. Both caused near-riors, on The naval officer's appeal for recruits for the purpose of defending Old Glory se's brilliant boxing against Johnny Meals ad the spectators cheering riotously.

Wins by Block and a Half

Dundee's victory over Mealy was by a rgin of a block and a half, and it can't proved that it wasn't more. The New k lightweight had the better of every round, although Mealy forced Dundee to extend himself at several stages of the contest, especially the third and fifth priods. Mealy's knockout wallop, the right-lander that crushed Art Strawball. hander that crushed Art Strawhacker and Jimmy McCabe, was never in evidence, and the third round the Philadelphian wung his supposed deadly punch in a haif-earted way. He connected with Dundee's aw several times, but the blows lacked seam; they didn't even tobalance the Gotham gloveman.

That Dundee is the same leaving-in-punping, jabbing, aggressive and ever-fighting demon again was demonstrated. He is far from being on the decline. However, Dundee is not a knockout puncher, despite the fact that he kaseed a Jimmy Powers in New York in nine rounds last week. Left books and right crosses, that appeared to be onder's hardest blows. Mexly, although the local lad was twice up in a jiffy, and, while he was tired at finish, the bricklayer never was on verge of going out.

Gets Started Early

Dundee got off at top speed with the ening gong. He went after Mealy, ham-Ment that the Scotch Wop would be a calle across with his punch. Mealy didn't, hence he didn't win. Dundes was moving all the firm, in and out, shifting, jumping and flying with his famous acrial tab. His left hook served him to great stead, and dee rocked Mealy several times with semi-circle clout.

Mealy and Dundee responded to the bell t catch weights. They were in the best 130 pounds. The pace set by Dundee It looked as though he would down his more inexperienced opponent. However, Mealy's showing against so great a star as Dundee was nothing to dishearten him nor mar his reputation. Nervous early in the contest, Mealy gradtally gained confidence, but at no time did the Philadelphian appear to have a chance f connecting with a havmaker.

Hirst Punches Often, But-

Joe Hirst, back in great shape, came very searly spoiling his reputation when he ALMOST scored a knockout over Jack Anof Baltimore. Andrews probably ught he was in a battle-royal, for he was hit with a million and one blows from every angle. Hirst's punches, as usual, were light, yet he came Qurough with so pany in rapid succession that Andrews was lucky to be on his feet at the finish. Some one behind us accused Hirst of her knocking any one out, but another bor came to Joe's rescue with the best him easily, and the promoter of the beence of a K. O. scored by the Fat contest should be "pinched" for staging Boy nine years ago over Lew Ryall.

ANXAPOLIS, Md., April 17. All spring athletics were canceled today at the United States Naval Academy of orders from the Navy Department at Washington. The orders follow directly on the news that a torpedo was fired across the bow of the U.S. destroyer Smith off the New England coast, which marked the first action of the war.

The shot is thought to have been fired by a U-boat and the orders are believed to mean that the Naval Academy will give up everything to concentrate on extensive drilling in preparation to rally every available man to the navy for quick retaliation against Germany's hostile act.

PENN CREWS' RACES OFF

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 17.

The action of the Government is thought bere to mean that there will be a general abandonment of sports in colleges which have withheld former action to follow in the steps of the Naval Academy and Wes Lieutenant Commander Smith.

Leutenant Commander Smith, of the United States Naval Academy, phoned to the University of Pennsylvania Athletic Association late this afternoon that the crew, race and track meet scheduled with the Naval Academy for this Saturday would have to be canceled, due to the orders of the Government. The orders made void the announced policy at the Naval Academy. Secretary of the Navy Paniels believes that the acad-emy should not act in a manner contrary the practice of other institutions. to the practice of other institutions. The schedule of sports for the academy teams would, in any event, have been seriously would, in any event, have been seriously ettippied, as so many of their opponents had called off their season. This would have left the midshipmen in a position where they would not have been able to fill their schedule properly. The local teams had also suffered severely through the early graduation of the first class, taking away many of the leading athletes, but the teams were beginning to round to in good shape. were beginning to round to in good shape.

A few days ago Captain Eberle, superintendent of the academy, stated that athletic contests would not be discontinued unless it was found impracticable to secure opponents. He pointed out that the other institutions were calling off athletics because they wished to devote the time to military drill. This reason did not obtain at the academy, where so much time was spent in this way, and athletics offered at once a part of the training and important Baseball, rowing, lacrosse and tennis have already started at the academy, and field and track and rifle shooting were to begin within a week. It is now probable that a series of interclass and intercompany con-tests in most of these branches will be in-augurated, so that the midshipmen will have the benefit of athletic training and will also have some diversion.
