

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE FIRST LADY OF THE LAND—OF TEAS AND QUEUES
 A new photograph of Mrs. Li Yuang-Hung, better half of the President of China, and their family.

RECRUITING ON SCENE OF REVOLUTIONARY BATTLE
 Sergeant Stewart is seeking volunteers for the army at Germantown and Chestnut avenues, Germantown's business center.

STAFF OF THE MASQUE OF THE AMERICAN DRAMA
 The "live wires" of this forthcoming pageant are, left to right: R. A. Robinson, publicity manager; C. W. Ritter, production manager; P. M. Gabell, treasurer; W. R. Stevens, chairman, masque committee; G. F. Kearney, director, and D. R. Anderson, theatre manager.

A DETAIL FROM CORNELL'S STUDENT PAGEANT
 "The Hebrew Maiden at the Well," the crowning scene of the spectacle to be presented at Ithaca May 18 and 19, in which 700 young women will participate.

THE ELF MAIDEN CALLS THE PAGEANT INTO BEING
 Miss Margaret Luckings, of New York, will enact this role in the Cornell University pageant.

RIPPING UP FLOWER BED FOR ONION CULTURE

Copyright, American Press Association.

HERE TO AID PHILADELPHIA EXPORTERS
 E. W. Thompson, commercial attaché at the U. S. Legation in London.