

THREE THOUSAND THROATS CHEER AS FLAG AND BREEZE MEET
Unusual outburst of patriotism marks ceremonies at E. G. Budd Manufacturing Company plant, Twenty-fifth street and Hunting Park avenue.

ENLISTING IN "SPRING DRIVE" UPON VIRGIN SOIL
Candidates enrolling at the Bourse in campaign to cultivate 25,000,000 acres of arable but undeveloped land in the great Northwest.

GREATEST CANNON EVER MADE IN AMERICA
Sixteen-inch gun manufactured at United States Arsenal at Watervliet, N. Y., weighing over 500,000 pounds. It was necessary to make a car especially for the transportation of this artillery leviathan.

WHEN THE GUNS ARRIVE THEY'LL KNOW HOW TO HANDLE THEM
Military drill by members of Penn's lacrosse team is not interrupted, the players utilizing their sticks as rifles.

ORGANIZER OF JUNIOR NATIONAL GUARD
A. F. Hayes, an Atlantic City telegraph operator, has organized a Junior National Guard company to enroll boys between sixteen and twenty years of age.

OFFERS LAND FOR SCHOOL FARMING
Earl Carroll, young American composer and playwright, has turned over an estate of 200 acres near New York for vegetable plots for cultivation by schoolboys of the neighborhood.

RAILROAD MEN SALUTE OLD GLORY
Force of the Forty-seventh street yard of the Pennsylvania Railroad demonstrated their patriotism and loyalty.