The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she overheard her father say one of his acquaintances was an anchorite, and what's he doing around here when trained men for the navy are needed so badly?

Oh, Why!

"I'm afraid Gus will have to stop; his engine's missing."
"Oh, the poor man! Why would he ever start without an important thing like that?"—Lampoon.

RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION

The Rejected One (to sympathetic policeman)—"Ere's me—just in the prime—offers me services—and the War Office says they think they can manage without me!"

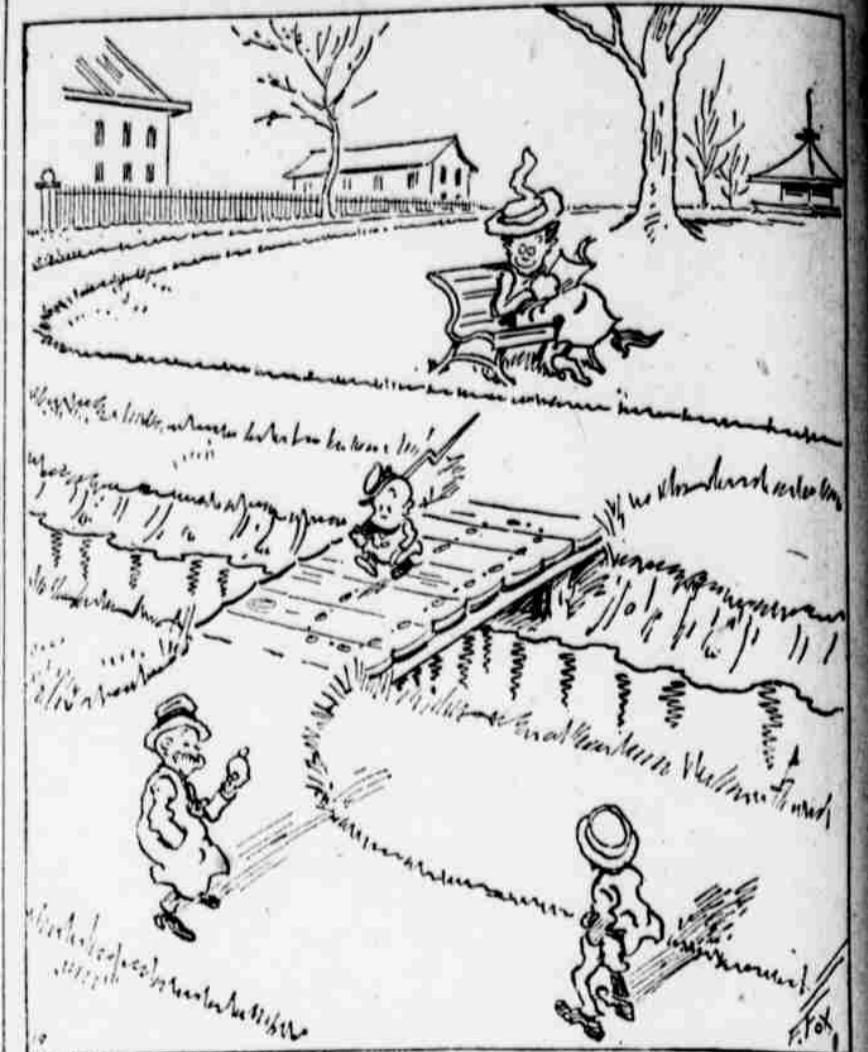

The Usual Proportion

Small Boy—Father, what is a cafe de luxe?
Father—About ten per cent cafe and ninety per cent looks.

New Species

Mrs. Knicker—Did you enjoy the star?
Mrs. Newrich—Yes; I think she is a fine commotional actress.

IT WAS A VERY EASY AFTERNOON FOR MA THE DAY WILLIE DISCOVERED THAT BRIDGE TO GUARD IN THE PARK

A POINT IN THEIR FAVOR

Tommy—Say! These oysters are very small!
Oysterman—Yes, sir.
Tommy—And they don't appear to be very fresh!
Oysterman—Lucky they're so small then, ain't it, sir?

Efficiency

Captain—Have you changed the guard yet?
The Newchum Junior—No, sir; the old guard was doing the job so well, sir, I thought I'd let 'em stay on, sir.

Friendship

Friend—I heard that a bandit relieved you of your pocketbook last night.
Newly Wed—No relief for me, but he saved my wife the trouble.—Squib.

Be Generous

"I see my image in the water."
"You shouldn't cast any reflections on such water as this."—Harvard Lampoon.

A HARD ONE

Amateur Applicant for coal-hawker's job—I ain't no scholared, mum. 'Ow shall I show that word?
