

Copyright American Press Association. Passed by U. S. Navy Censor.
HOW OUR SAILOR BOYS LEARN TO FIND THEIR WAY THROUGH UNCHARTED SEAS
 Recruits at naval training station at Newport receiving instruction by means of gigantic mariner's compass.

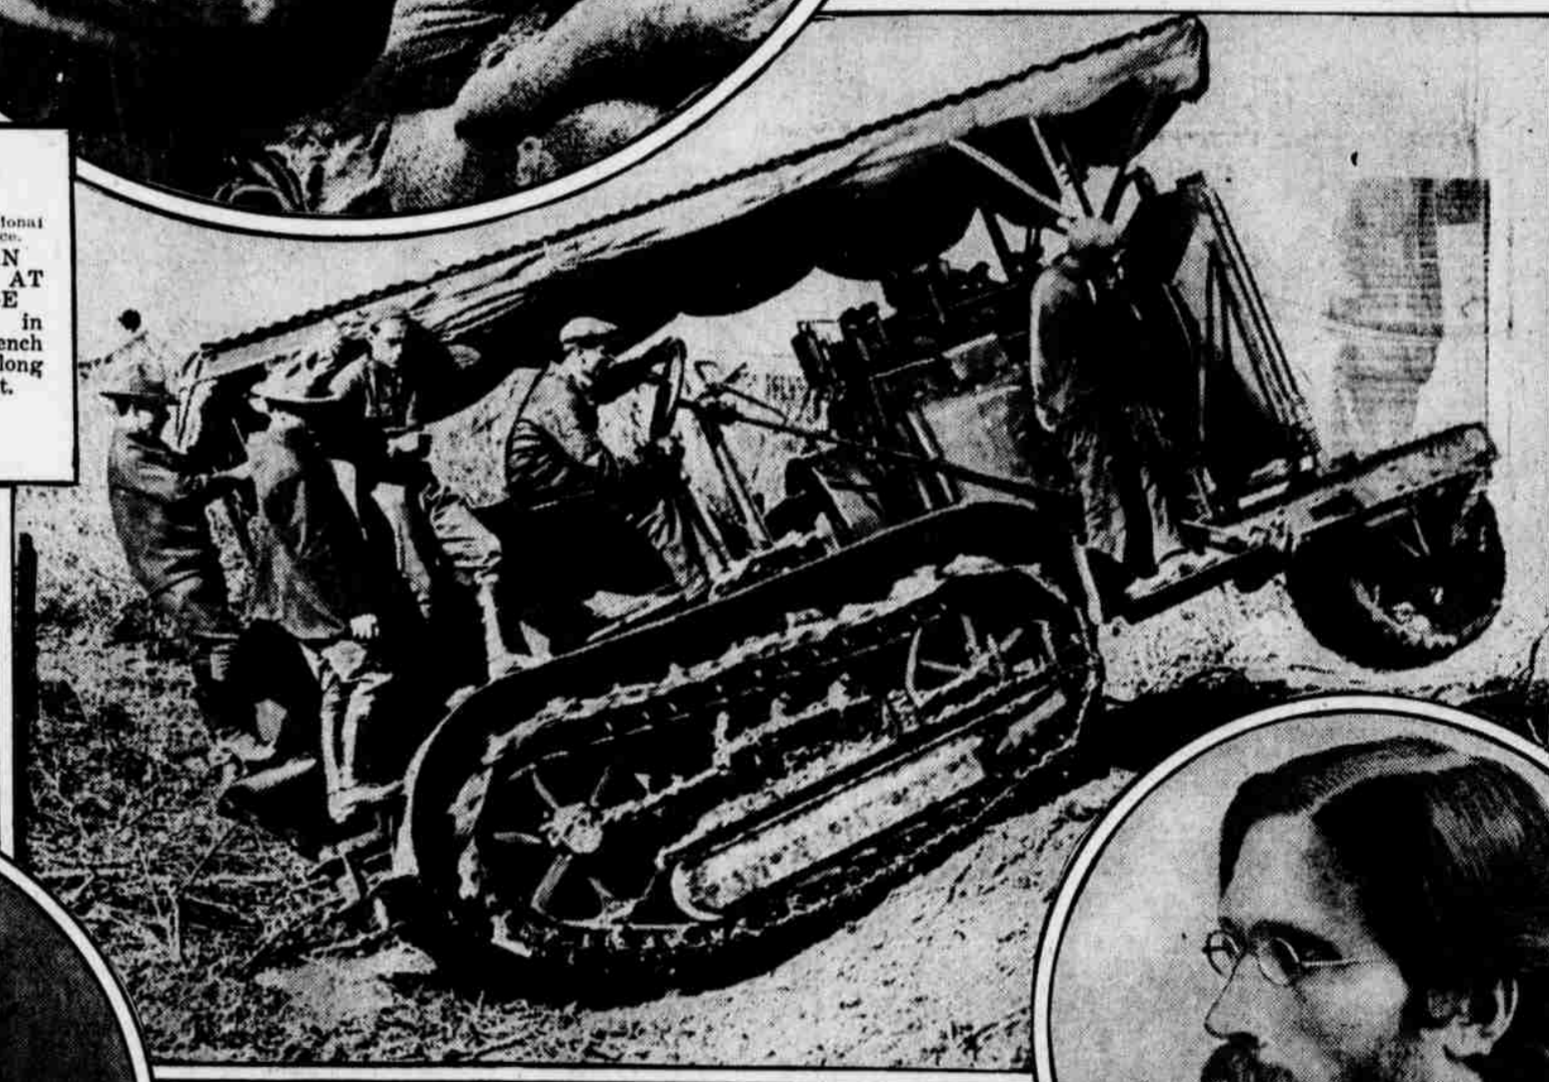

REGRETS SHE HAS ONLY SIX SONS TO GIVE TO ARMY
 Mrs. Mary Krause, 108 Jackson street, has two sons in army and four others are about to enlist. They work in ammunition factories. Mrs. Krause is of German descent.

Photo by International Film Service.
SIGHTING AN UNSEEN FOE AT LONG RANGE
 Periscope rifle in use by the French in the trenches along the west front.

Copyright International Film Service.
AFTER THE SPILL
 Righting an airplane which turned turtle at the military aviation field, Mineola, L. I.

AN "ARMY WORM" THAT IS A MARVELOUS HILL CLIMBER
 Latest type of "caterpillar" tractor, which can pull fifteen trailers, carrying forty-five tons of forage, fuel and rations, ascending an embankment at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

THE "BILLY SUNDAY" OF RUSSIA
 The Rev. William Fetter, Russian exile, now in the United States. When the war started he was pastor of the biggest Protestant church in Petrograd. He is now field secretary of the Gospel Committee for Work Among War Prisoners.

"TAR-POT" HAT OF THE STATE FENCIBLES
 DESIGNED AND WORN BY A PHILADELPHIA ARTIST OF PATRIOTIC MOLD

COLLEGE CAVALRY PREPARES FOR SERVICE
 Lieutenant Combert instructing mounted detail of Pennsylvania Military Academy students in a trench at the camp house in which they are quartered.