

A WILLING RECRUIT FOR UNCLE SAM'S ARMY
Branding a newly purchased cavalry mount in a stable
"somewhere in Philadelphia."

A HUMBLE SERVITOR
WHO LIVES IN SONG
Being the "Army Mule" who comes from Missouri to Philadelphia to begin the military life that has made him the
"hero" of the famous West
Point chant

REMEMBERED, THOUGH HE LIES IN ALIEN SOIL.
Elaborate monument constructed by retreating Germans to fallen officer in French cemetery at Nesle.

MISS REBA RAINAS, WHO WITH HER SIX SISTERS
ASSISTS HENRY RAINAS, THEIR FATHER, TO CUL-TIVATE HIS FARM ON EWAN
ROAD NEAR MUL-
LICA HILL, N. J.

CARRYING THE TRAVEL-ING BAG OF HIS MIS-TRESS IS ONLY ONE OF
THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS
THAT MAKE MARCO
A BIG FAVORITE IN
THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF MOYAMENSING AVENUE
AND SHUNK STREET

NURSES SHOW PROFICIENCY IN PULMOTOR WORK
The Roosevelt Hospital volunteer Red Cross unit is rapidly developing in its mastery of first-aid details.

Photo by Cine-Inst.
ADMIRAL DAVID
W. TAYLOR, WHO
AS CHIEF CON-STRUCTOR IS IN CHARGE OF ALL
NAVAL SHIP-BUILDING

FAIR BANDAGE MAKERS AT THEIR DAILY TASK

A JOKE'S A JOKE, EVEN IN THE TRENCHES
German infantrymen on the western front have a lot of fun.

