The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she's been studying German history lately and is convinced that Bismarck was the greatest of all the Hohenzollerns.

THE PADDED CELL

Getting It Down

Bill—I see an electrician says he has invented apparatus by which he can measure the ten-millionth part of a second.
Jill—If time is money, such an apparatus might enable some men to compute how much they are worth.
—Youkers Statesman.

War-Time Prudence

Tommy—Look what I've caught, Jack. We'll have some feast tonight.
Jack—No the night—the morn's night. Why, now, it'll mebbe lay an egg before the morn!

Southern "Kunnels"

A group of Northerners at a hotel in Louisville was poking fun at the partiality of Southerners for the title of "Colonel," "Major" and "Judge."
"What is a colonel hereabouts?" asked one of the group, and there immediately followed a discussion. Finally a colored attendant was drawn in.
"Well, gents," said the negro, "dere's lots of ways to answer dat question. I see knowed folks what was born kunnels—it jest run in de blood for generations. An' I see knowed folks what was jest appinted to be kunnels. An' yit others what was made kunnels by bein' kind to niggers. For instance, any man dat gives me a dollah is a kunnel to me henceforth forever."
—Baltimore's suggestion.
