

Photo by Kadel & Herbert
MAIMED FRENCH SOLDIER EARNS A LIVELIHOOD SELLING FLOWERS ON THE STREETS OF WHAT WAS ONCE "GAY PARIS"

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood
RESPONDS TO HIS COUNTRY'S NEED
Captain Charles Sweeney, of the French Foreign Legion, who has returned to instruct United States army officers in the most modern methods of warfare.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood
WOMEN WORK IN COMMUNITY GARDENS OF NEW YORK STATE TOWN
Citizens of Scarsdale have all invested in the project, shares being sold for $10. Later these will be accepted in payment for produce at cost.

FIRST SQUAD OF PENN FARMING RECRUITS DEPARTS
The recruits are being sent to the front lines to help in the war effort.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says her father is awfully sympathetic, and she often overhears him express the gravest concern about the poor war brides.

Zim's Last Hope

Speaking of "lost provinces" there are of course New Hampshire, Ohio and California. Perhaps Her Zimman will make a proposition to the Republican National Committee. —Puck.

THAT CRACK CAVALRY TROOP W HICH JIMMY ORGANIZED WAS NOT MUCH OF A SUCCESS

—By FONTAINE FOX.

THE PADDED CELL

"Poor Polly"

THE CURRENT ECONOMY IN ENGLAND

"Sh-sh, dear! Please don't say 'sweet'! I'm trying to get him to stop brooding over the reduction of his sugar ration!"

"For heaven's sake, Ethel, play some popular song so that they can all sing. They're doing nothing but eat and drink!"

SCHOOL DAYS

—well, gimme time, cantcha? I'm a'undressin' as fast as I can, aint I? Think I'm a magician?

—Done o' your sass now—

The Source of Profit
"Did you make the money you expected raising chickens?"
"No. After a little experimenting I decided that the way to make the money is to raise chicken feed."—Washington Star.

Not That Kind
—Stanford Chapparat.
Brouder—I see Blinks has a new siren for his car.
Brouder—You don't say! What happened to the blonde?

Turn About
He was going to propose, but before doing so he wished to make sure she was a competent girl. So he asked her:
"Can you wash dishes?"
"Yes," she answered sweetly. "Can you wipe them?"
He didn't propose.—Yale Record.

Unnecessary
An Atlanta lawyer tells of a newly qualified Judge in one of the towns of the South who was trying one of his first criminal cases. The prisoner was an old negro charged with robbing a hen coop. He had been in court before on a similar charge and was then acquitted.
"Well, Henry," observed the Judge, "I see you're in trouble again."
"Yessuh," replied the negro, "the last time, Judge, you will recollect, you was my lawyer."
"Where is your lawyer this time?"
"I ain't got no lawyer this time," said Henry. "It's going to tell the truth."

Uplift on the Farm
—Cassell's Saturday Journal
Farmer—Now, then, what about those cows?

The end of a perfect day