

MUSICAL NOTES OF THE COMING WEEKS, WITH SOME REFLECTIONS ON OTHER AMUSEMENTS

THEATRICAL BAEDEKER FOR THE COMING WEEK

TRAVELERS GARRICK—Series of travel lectures under the auspices of Dwight Elmendorf. "Norway"; "Java"; "Matinee. Colored views and motion pictures included in the entertainment, with weekly change of bill.

CONTINUING PLAYS BROAD—"The Country Cousin," with Alexandra Carlisle. Mechanical comedy and contrasting small-town American life with that of the city rotters, by Booth Tarkington and Julian Street. Finely enacted by the cast.

DELPHI—"Mother Carey's Chickens," with Marion Barney. Fresh, fragrant play filled with children and wholesome entertainment. Kate Douglas Wiggin's new contribution to the theater this year.

LYRIC—"So Long Letty," with Charlotte Greenwood. Musical version of the farce, "The Neighbor's Wife," which puts the emphasis on the crash and the bang. Amusing in a broad manner.

FORREST—"Miss Springtime," with Miss Springtime. Moderately funny and nicely scored opera, beautifully staged and sung and played effectively by an admirable company.

AT POPULAR PRICES WALNUT—"Her Unborn Child," with Ethel Martell. Howard McKent Barnes's drama of birth control returns to the playhouse at which it was first seen locally.

ORPHEUM—"Kick In," with the Myrtle-Harder Company. Willard Mack's "punchy" melodrama concerned with grooves and the underworld, and aptly plotted and written.

STOCK KNICKERBOCKER—"In Walked Jimmy," with the stock organization. First local presentation of a comedy-drama by Mrs. R. H. Jaffa. Ruth Robinson and Howard Hall in chief roles.

FEATURE FILMS STANLEY—"Heart's Desire," with Marie Doro, and "The Marquises," O. Henry photoplay, first half of week. "Saturday," with Margaret Hillington; "Tour of Greece," and "Satin and Calico," latter half of week. Others.

ARCADIA—"In Again—Out Again," with Douglas Fairbanks, all again. "Pitman's Living Book of Nature," Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday. Others.

VICTORIA—"American Methods," with William Farnum, first half of week. "God's Law and Man's," with Viola Dana, latter half of week. Linger comedy. Others.

PALACE—"The Cost of Hatred," with Kathryn Williams and Theodore Roberts, first half of week. "The Tides of Time," with Blanche Sweet, latter half of week. Others.

REGENT—"A Royal Romance," with Virginia Pearson, Monday, Tuesday; "A Magdalene of the Hills," with Mabel Taliaferro, Wednesday, Thursday; "She," with Valeska Suratt, Friday, Saturday.

CHESTNUT STREET OPERA HOUSE—"Joan the Woman," with Geraldine Farrar and Wallace Reid. Cecil B. DeMille's exquisite picturization of the Maid of Orleans's life. Not as dramatic as Griffith, but a wonderful photoplay.

VAUDEVILLE KITH'S—Sophie Tucker and her "Five Kings of Syncopation"; "Honor Thy Children," satire on American youth; Bert Savoy and Jay Brennan in "After the Matinee"; "Satin and Calico," Saturday; Wilder, Dainty Marie, Charles Irwin in "Combs Through the Bye"; Young and Waldron; Roy and Arthur; others.

ELMENDORF TAKES RAP AT GERMANY That Germany has never been a happy hunting ground for the American photographer is the opinion, backed by sufficient experience, of Dwight Elmendorf, the traveler and lecturer, who will begin the first of a series of travel talks at the Garrick next Monday night with his illustrated lecture on "Norway." In a letter to his manager a few years before the war started Mr. Elmendorf wrote: "Do you know, I have had the very deuce of a time getting permits to photograph in Berlin. For everything here is ' verboten.' For instance, I could not get a permit to take photographs in the royal gardens at Sans Souci, which was the favorite residence of Frederick the Great, so I went out there on Sunday and took all I wanted. And here's how I did it. I had with me the envelope I had received from the 'obermarshall' but in that envelope was nothing for this high and mighty gentleman absolutely refused me permission to photograph there. So when any officer or guard approached me I simply put my hand in my pocket and slowly drew out the envelope with the royal seal upon it. That was enough. The sight of that royal seal so scared the guards that they bowed, saluted, and walked away—while I calmly went on making my pictures.

"Really, though I shall be glad to get out of Germany with its overwhelming amount of red tape and militarism. In some of the high buildings of Berlin they have elevators. They call them 'Fahrstuhls,' but one is expected to pay ten pfennings every time one uses them."
