KILBANE SAYS HE WILL WIN TITLE FROM WELSH, BUT FREDDY'S DEFENSE MAY BE TOO MUCH FOR K. O. WALLOP

Featherweight Champ, Resting in Quiet Douglaston, L. I., Feels Confident of Flattening Englishman—Baron Again Flivs as Motorist

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

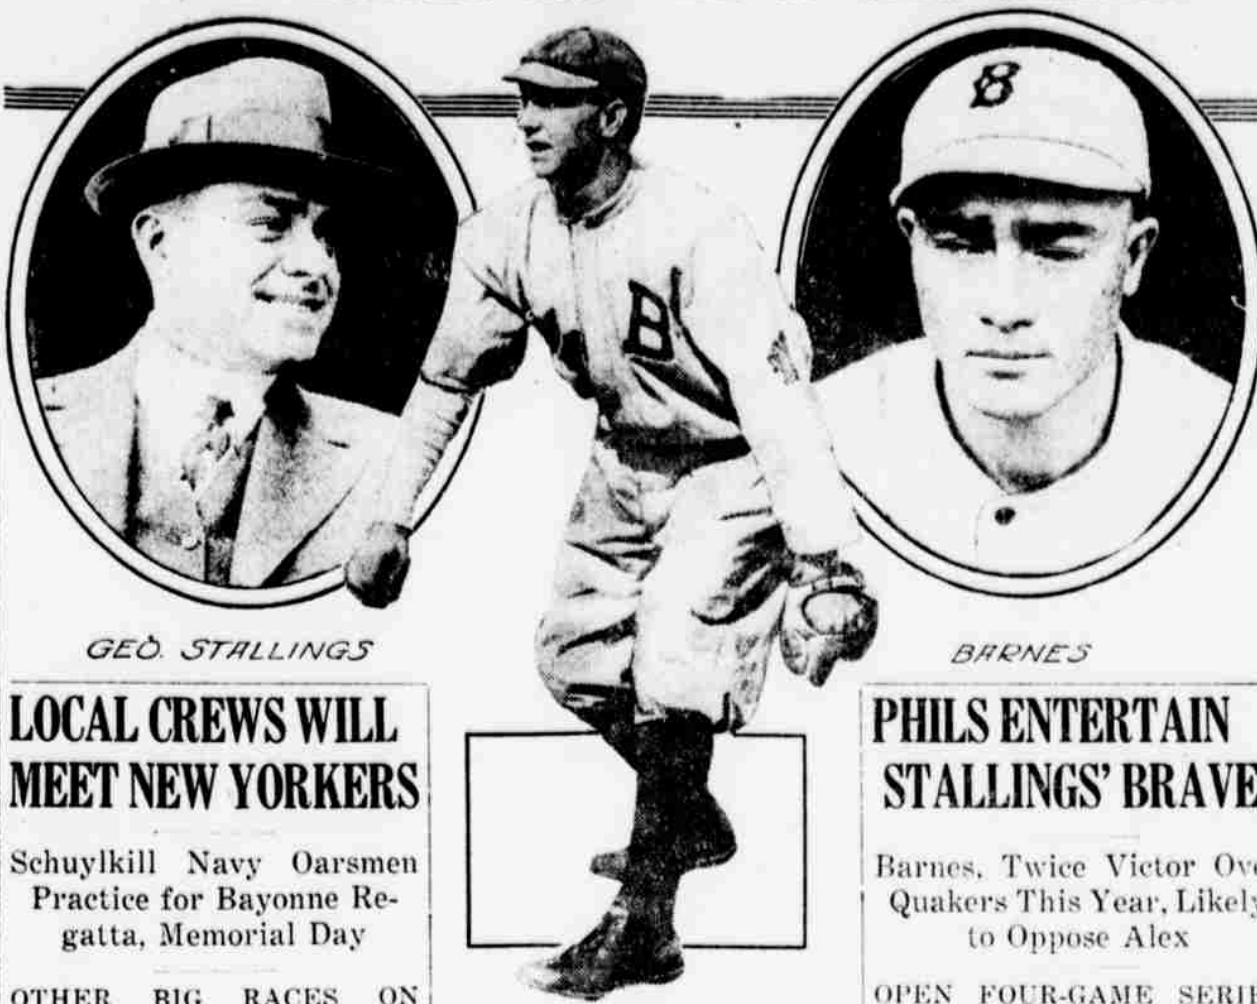

DOUGLSTON, L. I., April 29. JOHN PATRICK KILBANE, world's featherweight champion, has a hunch that he will take up Wednesday morning with the lightweight champion, perched upon his horse. John is booked to meet Freddy Welsh in a ten-round bout tomorrow night at the Manhattan A. C., 154th street and Eighth avenue, New York. The little Clevelander is in wonderful shape, his hitting has improved and he is ready to live through the entire ten stanzas. He plans to keep Kilbane's name in his mind and move in the hope of finding him near the end and slip over the knock-out.

Kilbane handed us this secret stuff late last night when we wandered into Douglaston. He says he is a great sport feller, and an allday search for the place. It was our intention to give Johnny the up and down as he worked out in the afternoon, but the landlord who was a taxi driver, was deficient in geography and put us personally conducted tour which was enjoyed by every one but his passenger. After visiting towns and hamlets that were strange and new places on Long Island, we discovered the inn hiding behind a cump of bushes in the darkness. This is a famous training camp for boxers, but you can't prove it by us. It was so dark to see the spacious grounds and beautiful scenery, but conversationally, it has every other place looked to the west. Freddy has been in the game a month after a hard day's work and gladly informed us that the only thing that would keep him from winning the lightweight championship was Freddy's reluctance to hit the canvas for a count of ten or more. "I never felt better in my life," said John, "and I have a hunch that I will come through my bout with Welsh with flying colors. Freddy has been in the game a month and he is sure to take it on the chin some time. I believe I will connect with my right before the fight is over, and if I do there will be a new lightweight champion."

"In all my previous battles I have been confident of winning, but never before have I felt so certain. Welsh cannot hit, so I need not worry about getting away myself. I can start right in to wear Freddy down, and if he comes after me and quits walking I will have at least one shot at his life. That's all I want, the opening and I believe I can upset him for the count."

First Time-Pair Has Met. It is the opportunity of a lifetime, and I shall take advantage of it. For years I have tried to box Welsh, but this is the

Twenty-five Cents From One Person in a 1000 Would Raise Fund for Baseball Equipments, Planned by Manager of Senators

CLARK GRIFFITH, manager of the Washington American League ball team, has started to forge a long chain, which when completed is expected to drag a continuous supply of bats, bats and other equipment associated with our national pastime. In letters to players, managers, umpires and others, Manager Griffith asks that the recipient send twenty-five cents to his office in Washington and in addition send out four other letters to his friends asking them to do the same thing.

CITY SCHOOLS WIN MANY RELAY CUPS

Girard, Northeast, P. I. D., La Salle College and Episcopal Victors

ROGERS PROVES THE STAR

Philadelphia's scholastic victors in the relay races include Girard College, Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf, La Salle College, Germantown High School and Episcopal Academy, the latter winning the Interscholastic championship, Northeast High School, after winning the city championship on Friday, came within a yard of winning the High School championship of America the following day. Germantown's remarkably good showing was due in part to the running of Captain Charles Youkel, the great quarter and half miler. Germantown won from schools from Hartford, Conn., Camden, West Chester, Wilmington and two teams from Newark, N. J. Youkel ran such splendid races indoors and in the meets held outdoors he never came up to the record expected of him at the relays. Girard College accomplished a feat coveted for many years, winning the class relay. Girard's band and some 500 students cheered on the victors. Girard beat Swarthmore Preparatory and Wenhatch Military Academy. Captain Straus, Klotz, J. Stromman and Wetherill ran for Girard and mightily fine races they ran, especially Wetherill, who beat out his rival from Swarthmore on the final relay. One of the local victors was that of the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf over such teams as Harrisburg Academy and Wardlaw High. This was in event No. 1 in the preparatory school relay class. W. Pearsall, A. Dubs, E. Casley and B. Ginley represented the P. I. D. and they made a great showing. Dewey Rogers, of the Northeast High School, ran a wonderful quarter. After overcoming a handicap of some twenty yards, he pulled down the lead of Kunkel, of Newark Central, and Fortesque, of East Orange High School, but after taking the lead and the lead he weakened in the final stretch and was defeated by scater margin by Kunkel, Newark High winning the championship. Philadelphia's suburbs were well represented on carnival day. Habro High, with Detwiler, Barnes, Ott and Magill running, was third in its relay class. Swarthmore High finished third to Lansdale and Kennett Square. Perhaps one of the best relays was that won by Lansdowne High School, with Ridley Park High in second place.

Scraps About Scappers

WHEATONER an eleventh hour boxer comes through the breach with a victory. It results in a surprise. Usually he answers the bell under the handicap of having little or no training for the mix, and the underdog generally finishes on the short end. This did not occur with Johnny Rosner, who came over from New York to take the place of Orlin Hogan against Tubur. When Rosner entered the ring it was believed that Tubur would romp through the contest against the game Gothamite a mile in the lead, and with little trouble. So the bout progressed for two rounds and a few seconds, but the unexpected occurred shortly after the beginning of the third round. Tubur had been missing with his wallop that started from his knees. Tubur easily evaded these wild swings, but Joe was caught with one that appeared to come from the floor and Tubur was knocked down. Some one said it was the first time Joe had been felled. He was dead out on the ropes and the shock of falling to the floor evidently revived the champion. He gamely staggered to his feet at nine, but Tubur was "through." He was felled again and the third time Joe was counted out, his first knockout in about four years of boxing. Surprised seldom come in bunches, but they did come in a pair Saturday night at the National. The knockout over Pal Moore by Paul Edwards, while not so surprising as the one of Tubur, was also was of the unexpected, and it was the first time Moore heard the tenth second toll over him.

BINGLES AND BUNGLES

Inconsistency

Yesterday's hero—Larry Doyle. His bludge in the eleventh enabled the Cubs to whip the Cards.

And it took eight pitchers to hurl the Cub-Cards game at St. Louis.

George Sailer had a bad day. He only registered three hits and scored one run.

Cobb, Young and Heilmann accounted for three Detroit hits, and they were their first game this season from the White Sox.

Bobby Beacher set an example for the Cards, but they couldn't follow him. He reaped out two hits and scored two runs. One of his swats was a homer.

Once again we must mention this fellow Cruz. Seeing two and three hits after his name is getting common.

Jim Thorpe will have to hit the ball harder if he hopes to keep Eddie Russell out of the game.

BRAVES Win in Paterson, N. J.

PATERSON, N. J., April 30. The Boston Braves defeated the Paterson club by a score of 4 to 2. Doherty, O'Connell, and Pinkie of Paterson tossed out the first ball. Eddie Jones, second of the Braves, George Davis struck out as many as the Sox.
