HAYMAKER NEWS State Chief Haymaker James R. Pinkerton, assisted by the State officers, will institute Zuni Haymakers Association at 2688 Coral street on Wednesday evening, May 6. A number of other new associations are under way and will no doubt be instituted before the end of the term.

The officers of the State body of Haymakers re kept busy these days instituting new lofts and reinstating oid ones. The reports this year rill show a wonderful increase in membership, hich speaks well for the official auministra-ion.

Loyal Orange Institution

Loyal Orange Institution

The William A. Duniap. Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 512. was organized last Saturday night at 218 Market street, by Brother Hugh Creeiman Major R. M. J. Reid was elected master, and the Rev. William J. Shipway was elected chaplain. The lodge was instituted with a membership of twenty-eight, and among those were some of Philadelphia's most prominent citizens. The ceremonies of institution were conducted in a very efficient manner by the State grand master. Brother Dr. T. S. Carlisle.

The first and second degrees were exemplified by Prince of Orange District. No. 4. degree team, under the leadership of Brother William McConashy. Stereopticon views were used in the illustration of the work, which made a deep impression on all.

Brother Alex. Monaghan, past district master of No. 4 district, was called upon to conduct the public installation of officers, and he acquitted himself with honor.

Encouraging remarks were made by many of the visiting members, chief among whom was Brother William A. Duniap, past supreme grand master, whose carnest words greatly inspired the new members. The new lodge was made the recipient of a handsome new holy Hible, from the Quaker City Ladies, No. 174, which was presented by Worthy Mistress Stater Miller.

Every official of the Loyal Orange Institution present was of the one mind in declaring that this lodge is a valuable acquisition to the Institution.

VARE URGES T. R. ARMY

Declares Joffre's Approval Should Be Enough for Congress to Act

WASHINGTON, May 3 .- A strong movewashington, May 3.—A strong movement to influence Congress, with the conferees considering the army bill, in favor of agreeing upon the formation of four divisions of volunteers for Europe is in progress. This movement is directed by friends of Colonel Roosevelt, and is so strong that the Administration, knowing the need of American troops in the trenches, a sheat ready to agree.

se need of American troops in the trenches, about ready to agree.

Representative Vare is one of those actively pushing the proposal. Discussing the proposal of the morals of the soldiers of our allies in the trenches would be the result of the presence of an in-President of the United States leading American troops to the battlefield. Now hat he is the freedy and House have applicable to the Landing American troops to the battlefield.

IN MEMORIAM

RUMPF.—In loving memory of my beloved husband, our adored, devoted father. FRED-ERICK RUMPF, Jr., who entered into his eternal home, May 2, 1915.

When God took you away I thought that life would be. All drinness, no dawn. How faithless was such dread. Doath made you more my own. Your shining spirit taught My tear-dimmed eyes to see Our changeless unity. Through every star on high. Through every star on high. Through every flower that grows. I know, beloved husband, father, you are near.
