SAMARITAN HOSPITAL OPENS ROOF GARDEN

Notable Ceremonies Attend Acceptance of New Department Today

The roof garden of the Samaritan Hos-pital, long needed for the care of patients in the fresh air, was opened this afternoon with special exercises.

Chartes P Heery, chairman of the hos pital committee, presented the garden on behalf of the children's Ward Auxiliary to President Russell H. Conwell, who ac-cepted it on behalf of the board of trustees. Addresses were made by City Statistician Edward J. Cattell and Robert sittel and usic was furnished by Theodore Rich chestra and death of the Coulege of Music of Temple University.

The hostesses were Miss Mary E. Stone, presider, of the Children's Ward Auxiliary; Mrs. Walter C. Hancock, president of the Temple University Woman's Club, and Mrs. Temple University Woman's Club, and Mrs. Robert H. Weeder, president of the board of lady managers. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Nice was the guest of honor.

This ideal spot for the place was long life selected by the women with the plan in mind, but lack of money was an obstate.

Two years ago the Children's Ward Auxliary, under the leadership of its president.

Miss Mary E. Stone, decided to start a fund for this purpose. It was a very hard task, only $1000 having been raised at the beginning of the second year. At this point
Mrs. Elizabeth H. Nice came into the hospital and very generously offered to help with a substantial gift as a memorial to her husband. This gift made it possible to

The Children's Ward Auxiliary went on tith its work of raising funds with re-lewed courage. The Woman's Club of newed courage. The Woman's Club of Temple University devoted its share of the proceeds of the Philadelphia Indoor Horse Show for this year and last year to the fund, the board of lasty managers of the Samaritan Hospital giving their earnings for the year to this cause. The roof gar-den was made possible entirely through the faithful work of these women.

By M'LISS

Thousands of school children, at the suggestion of Dr. John P. Garber, Superintendent of Public Schools, have been asked to join forces with the Red Cross in its sty-wide paper saving campaign.

Almost before the organization has had time to get its full plan under way-a plan that offers to every man, woman and child the opportunity of doing real war work with elight expenditure of effort and no expenditure of moses—the children have been asked to help convert into much needed funds the tons of paper that are daily wasted in Philadelphia.

The care of the wounded and dying of a country, and of its alliest are entrusted to the Red Cross. The Red Cross doctors, nurses stid ambulance drivers are the first to go to the front. Already American base hospitals, one of them from Philadelphia, have been summoned to France.

Indorsed by Doctor Garber and drafted by Richard E. Wilson, executive secretary of the Red Cross, the following anneal has been sent to the principal of each public school. IN SAVING PAPER

An opportunity for instant patriotic An opportunity for instant patriotic service to the nation on the part of the school childgen of Philadelphia has been opened up, it is believed, by a plan to collect all waste paper in Philadelphia and to sell it for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The Red Cross is as fully an arm of the national service as is either the army or mayy. Red Cross surgeons, physicians and nurses are already being ent abroad to assist our allies, ever before any American troops are sent. The Red Cross needs money to carry on its work. Each citizen can "do his bit" by helping it raise the needed

The chapter acknowledges with gratitude the assistance which has already been given it by the schools and believes that you will recognize the im-portance of the aid which they can give in this new movement.

If you have already organized, or should organize, a paper-saving cambaign in your school. Superintendent Carber has assured us of his willingness to indorse requests sent to him for turning over to us a whole or a part of the runds se collected, provided, of course, that it does not violate any clearly stated purposes for which you have been making such collections. THE NATION PIRST

In commenting on the campaign Doctor arber said:

"Many of the schools have already cor picted the equipment of their playgrounds through the funds raised by the paper col-lection campaigns which they began some time ago, and such schools should be ready to aid immediately in the collection work for the Red* Cross. Their collection or-ganization is perfected and can be put into office operation at once,

"Collection of waste paper for the benefit of private individuals should not for one in stant be allowed to interfere with a cam saign which means assistance to the nation in this crists. The nation comes first

"The recruiting of Red Cross units in the high schools of the city is to be begun at once, permission having been accorded yesterday by the educational commutee of the Board of Education. It was suggested to the board by Mr. Wilson recently that the Red Cross auxiliaries so formed could be n making supplies of surgical bandages, base hospital equipment, and so on.

"Doctor Frazee, head of the vocationa training schools, made the supplemental suggestion that vocational training pupils might volunteer their services in making metal and wooden supplies needed by the Red Cross. However, since the conception of the paper-saving campaign the Red Cross points out that the services of school children could result in even greater ef-fectiveness if they could be led into the paper-saving collection. This would re-quire no preliminary instruction, such as would be necessary before the surgical dressings and other Red Cross supplier could be made.

"The school children have aircady con-ducted successful paper-saving campaigns and they are equipped to enter instantly into patriotic service in this way."

BOARD MAY LOSE HOLD ON TRANSIT

Law Asked by Boroughs Would Curtail Commission's Authority

CONCERNS CERTIFICATES

Proposes Leaving Cities Free to Engage in Business of Public Utilities

Another measure directly affecting the ity's transit program but which its sponors say was not drawn with Philadelphia in view, has been introduced in the Legisla-ture at Harrisburg. The bill, if passed would take from the Public Service Commission jurisdiction over the construction, acquisition and operation of any municipal plant or facilities, including high-speed transit lines, by any city, borough or town in the State.

Representative Black, of Dauphin Couny, who introduced the measure, said today he bill was handed to him in the form in which he presented it and he did not know what interests were supporting it. The measure was drafted by the law firm of E. W. & J. K. Jackson of Harrisburg. The junior member of the firm said it was prepared at the request of the law committee of the state Association of Buroughs. On account of its direct bearing upon the tran-sit situation, however, the bill is viewed with considerable interest in transit circles

The bill repeals Article III, Section 3. Clause D. of the public service act of July 25, 1912, creating the Public Service Commission. This clause provides that when the Public Service Commission grants a certificate of public convenience it shall be lawful "for any municipal corporation to acquire, construct or begin to operate any plant, equipment or other facilities fo the rendering or farmening to the public of any service of the kind or character already being rendered or furnished by any service company within the mu

MEANING OF REPEAU

The repeal of this clause, applying it specifically to the rapid transit program. would mean that the city would not be required to seek authority from the commission to proceed with the program of construction. Should the bill be retroactive it would mean further that the deadlock is the commission over the issuance of the requested certificates for various lines of the city's system would be broken auromatically and the city could proceed to award the contracts which have been held up for three months.

This interpretation of the bill is along arcles questioning the right of the cor sion to withhold authority for so approved by the voters of the city. Henry S. Borneman, law partner of Instrict Attorney Rotan, in an address recently before the Frankford Board of Trade, presented is legal brief to prove that the commission had exceeded its authority.

JACKSON STATES PURPOSE John K. Jackson, junior member of th firm which drafted the measure, said to-day that it was drawn up with the cole purpose of enabling the 500 boroughs in the State to purchase water supply plants and other public utilities without having to wait for the Public Service Commission to act.

'As I interpret the bill," he added, frees every nunicipality in the State, in-cluding Philadelphia, from the necessity of applying to the commission when it wants to take over any public utility."

The entire transit situation will be threshed out before the Judiciary General Committee of the Senate and the Judiciary special Committee of the House at the public hearing on the transit bills now before the Legislature that was to have been held in the Senate caucus room at Harris-burg next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock

However, Mayor Smith today, after con-ferring with Transit Director Twining, wired the chairman of the Judiciary Gen eral Committee of the Senate at Harrisburg asking that the transit bearings scheduled there for next Tuesday be postponed until next Thursday because of the visit to be made here Tuesday by the French mission. . He also asked that the place of hearing be
