

HANDICRAFT STUDENTS ALSO PRACTICE MILITARY TACTICS
The manual of arms has been by no means neglected at the School of Industrial Art

AN UNBEATABLE TRIPLE ALLIANCE
First prize in the Starr Garden Recreation Center Baby Show goes to the Shalowitz triplets—Anna, Celia and Dora—fourteen months old.

A BABY SHOW PRIZE WINNER
M. Garson Fall, Jr., the fifteen-months-old "single" champion of the Starr Garden competition.

Photo by International Film Service.
UNCLE SAM'S ONLY JAPANESE WOMAN DENTIST
Dr. Sawiyi Misawa hasn't "hung out her shingle" in Philadelphia yet, finding practice good enough to hold her on the Pacific coast.

"THE CUTEST PAIR IN THE WHOLE SHOW"
Milton and Lillian Solomon, not yet six months old, win second honors in the Starr Garden exhibition.

The Young Lady Across the Way

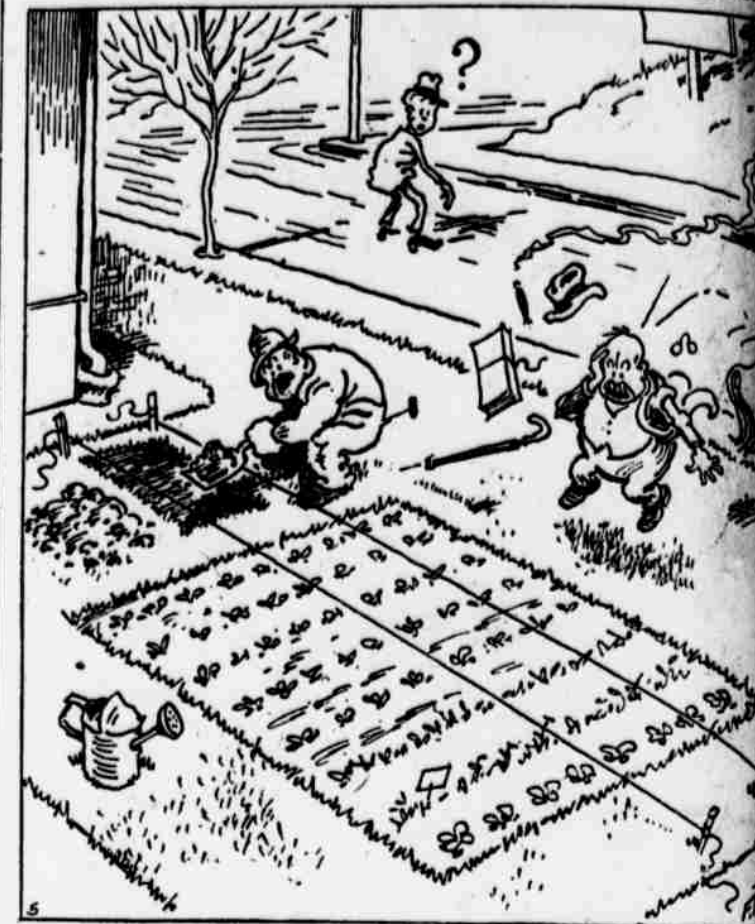

The young lady across the way says it's a mighty good thing we have the best gunners in the world, as she understands New York harbor is defended by twelve-inch guns and it must take a very good shot to aim such short ones.

Another Ghostly Warrior

Robert P. Skinner, Consul General here, already has received 500 names of Americans in England willing to fight if necessary, including many received today. Among them is Philip Klein, a playwright, who was killed aboard the Lusitania.—Herald.

THE EXCAVATION TO REMOVE THAT CONDEMNED DRAIN HAS GOT TO GO RIGHT THROUGH FATHER'S GARDEN

—By FONTAINE

THE PADDED CELL

Uniform Worn Out

The policemen at St. Charles worn out their uniforms and now wearing civilian dress. "After clothes are worn out we intend to put on overalls," said one of them in the hearing of the Banner-News. Pleading that the dignity of the force deserves it, the Banner-News says it about time the city bought the ficers some new uniforms in time to prevent an exhibit of cops in overalls.—Kansas City Times.

An Amiable Chap

"What kind of a fellow is he?" "Oh, he's the kind of a fellow who goes out for a walk with you and tells you how democratic he is afraid to be seen with anybody."

Realization

—The Tailor.
The One—Yes, I've had a lot of late nights lately, too.
The Other—Ah, my boy, we're the sort of men our fathers warned us against in our youth.

ONE OF THE WAR'S HEROES

—London Opinion
"Now then, I'm 'ere to learn yer—you're 'ere to be learnt, and it ain't no use you looking at me like that, No. 4, unless you're looking for trouble!"

SCHOOL DAYS

And there are people who insist that mothers haven't sense enough to vote!

A Collision

The force of the collision threw the two men who were in the front seats against the front seats with a force that both of them were knocked off at the base.—Stratford Courier.

Be More Specific

—Princeton Times
"Let me see—was it you that I hit in the conservatory last night?" "About what time, please?"

Family Cheer

"Well, Maggie, I certainly am tired," said the laborer in the sewer when he got home.
"Tired, is it? You don't know when you're in luck. Here I have been at the washtub all this hot day and you've been working in a sewer."

CRIPPLED THEMSELVES, THEY AID OTHER UNFORTUNATES

Some of girls at the Philadelphia Home for Incurables, make handbags for the Pennsylvania Red Cross.