FOR THE COMING WEEK

Nazimova in "'Ception Shoals" at the Adelphi-"20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" at the Forrest-Many New Photoplays at Cinema Theatres

NEW, ATTRACTIONS

ADELPHI-" 'Ception Shoals," with Alla Nazimova. Austin Adams's drama of "the soul of a woman fresh from the hands of God, before society had twisted her all out of shape." In the cast: Charles Bryant, Henry Harmon and Dodsor Mitchell. Opening, Monday night.

FORREST-"20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," with Jane Gail and Allan Holubar. Universal's picturization, in collaboration with the Williamson Brothers, of Jules Verne's exciting romance of suboceanic adventure, taken on the floor of the sea. Opening, Monday afternoon.

GARRICK-"War as It Really It," with Marshal Joffre and other notable figures of the great European conflict. Donald Thompson's authentic film snapped on the French battle front and depicting real fighting. Opening, Monday afternoon.

CONTINUING PLAYS LYRIC-"So Long Letty," with Charlotte Greenwood. Oliver Morosco's production of the musical version of "Thy Neighbor's Wife." Entertainment for those who like broad fun.

AT POPULAR PRICES WALNUT-"Her Unborn Child," with Ethel Martell. Second week of the return engagement of Howard McKent Barnes's melodrama of birth control. ENICKERBOCKER-"St. Elmo," dramatization of the novel by Augusta J. Evans Wilson. Revival of this popular old work week's engagement.

STOCK ORPHEUM-"The Woman," with the Myrkle-Harder stock organization. Revival of political drama originally produced by David Belasco.
