DARDANELLES BELGIAN REWARD, ALLIES' PLAN

Russia's Renunciation of Claim to Straits Creates New Problem

BOSPHORUS CONTROL FOR LITTLE NATION

By W. S. FORREST PARIS, May 11.

Belgium's flag to fly over Constantinople and Belgium to control the Dardanelles is the Allies' revised plan for its war aims respecting Turkey,

On high authority today it can that this change in program has been thoroughly discussed in high official circles of the Allied governments.

Since new Russia renounced old Russia's dream of dominating the Straits, a change in the Turkish problem has been forced on the Allies. No one of the Entente powers will think of the war's conclusion with the Turk still in Europe. To grant arbitrary control of the most important waterway in control of the most important waterway in Europe to any one of the world's great nations might engender jealousy and endanger the future world peace for which the Allies are fighting.

To hand Constantinople and the Bosphorus over to any one of the small Balkan nations would keep the future world's police force busy restoring order.

to dominate the Black Sea entry—to extend west and dominate the Balkans.

When the New Russia, therefore, announced its disapproval of such a plan, the chancelleries of Europe all asked them-selves the same question—Who will hold the key to the Bosphorus?

That key, it was learned today, is most likely destined to the keeping of King Al-bert's little nation—a reward for the terrible sacrifice of the kingdom and an acknowledg-ment by the Allies that Belgium can be trusted to keep the faith.

TEUTON DEFEAT ALONE CAN MAKE WORLD SAFE. SAYS DUMA PRESIDENT

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

PETROGRAD, May 11.
"Only complete defeat of Germany will assure the world's happiness. Peace now would only be an armistice. Russian can-not betray the Allies with whom she has been fighting for three years."

In these words today President Rod-llanko, of the Duma, forcefully pleaded with the Russian governing body for unswerving continuance of Russia's part in the war and warned against insidious peace moves inspired by Germany.

"The war must be successfully terminated in a manner preserving the country's in-tegrity and national honor," he asserted.

"Our innumerable sacrifices demand a peace commensurate with the immensity of our efforts, and a peace assuming the triumph of ideals of justice and liberty.

The German program is hegemony—in word the enslavement of nations. "Such contradictory principles cannot adof an inconclusive victory for one or mit of an inconclusive victory for the other. It must be decisive.

"Do not forget the German workers, however socialistic they may be, ardently desire a German victory, and naturally,

Crown Prince Rupprecht Battles Recklessly to Retain Initiative

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE

Battling in the weird reddish flames eritable lake of fire, British troops night rolled back a German attacking wave south of the Souchez River. The Germans' liquid fire lighted up the whole battle with an arc light that gave British gunners the exact range of the attacking troops.

Shells tore great gaps of blackness in wall of flame that flickered onward as the liquid fire bearers, with tanks of the devilish stuff on their backs, worked powerful pumps and squirted the flames a hundred feet in front of them.

It was a night full of vigorous fighting at a score of new places on the line.
