

THE CAMERA IMPRESSES EVENTS OF THESE STIRRING DAYS, MAKING THEM EASY TO RECALL

WHOLE FAMILIES APPLY FOR SEEDS AND PLANTS TO "PUT OUT" IN WASTE PLACES UNDER SUPERVISION OF THE VACANT LOTS CULTIVATION ASSOCIATION

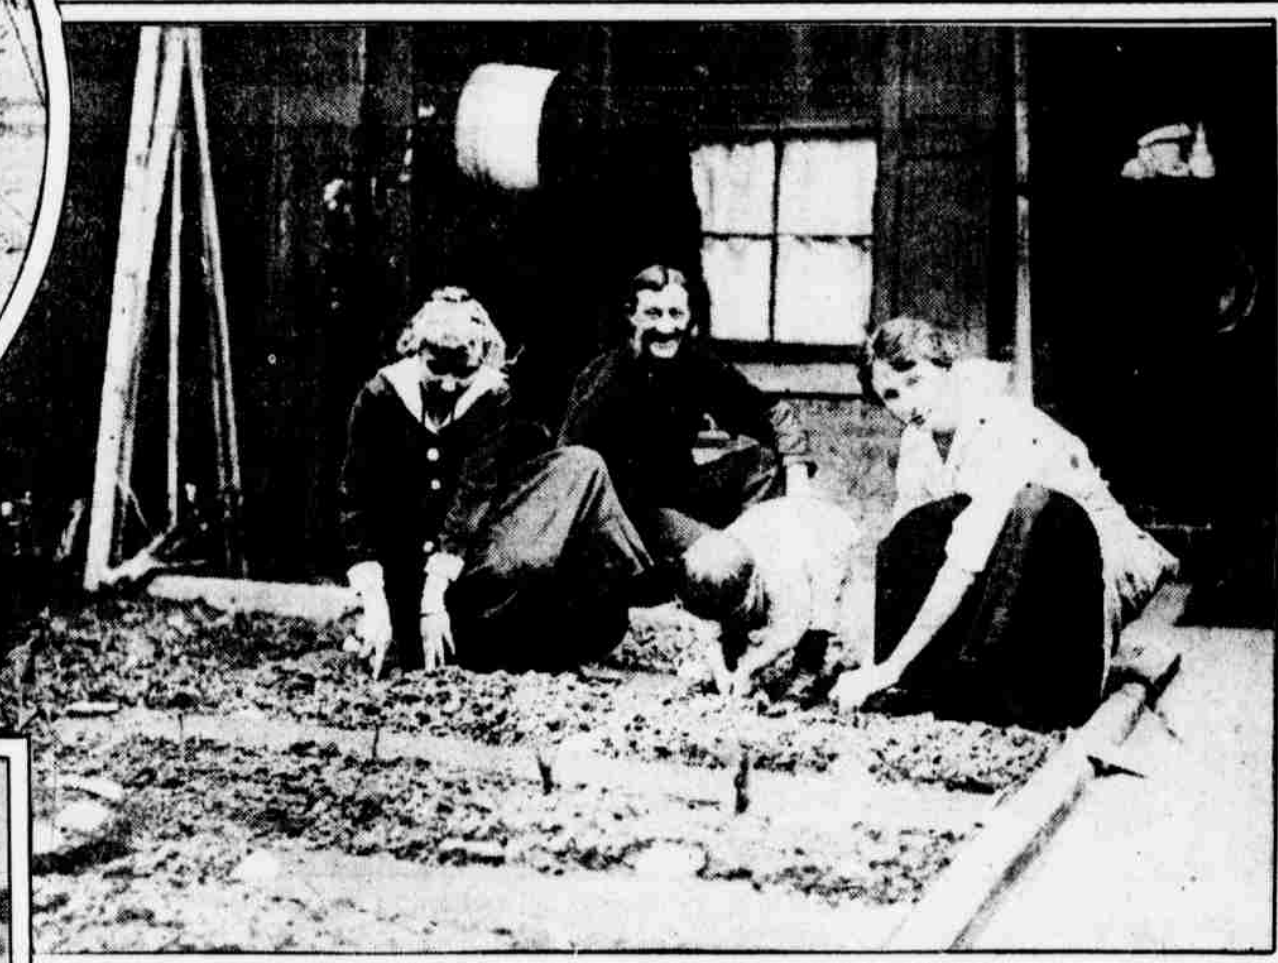

ASKS FUNDS TO FURTHER PLANTING James H. Dix, superintendent of the Vacant Lots Cultivation Association, says he can put 1000 more persons to work if financial backing is forthcoming.

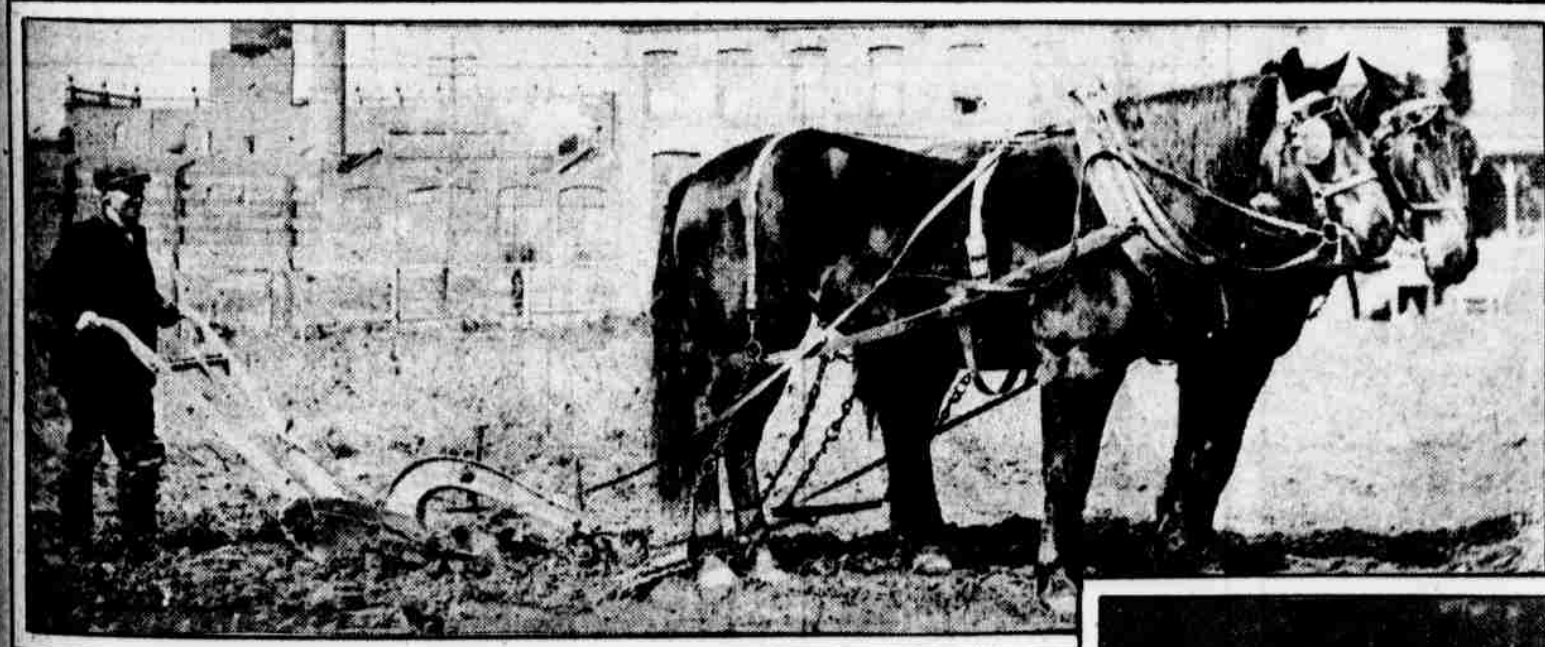

STUDENTS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA SCHOOL OF HOPTICULTURE FOR WOMEN AT WORK IN THE ORCHARDS AT AMBLER

DINNER TIME FOR UNCLE SAM'S RECRUITS AT NEWPORT, R. I. They eat out in the open, thus solving one of the problems at the naval training station, which is greatly overcrowded with its 2600 boarders.

MEMBERS OF THE GOOLEY FAMILY ARE ENGAGED IN TURNING THEIR BACK YARD AT 2345 WILDER STREET INTO A MINIATURE FARM

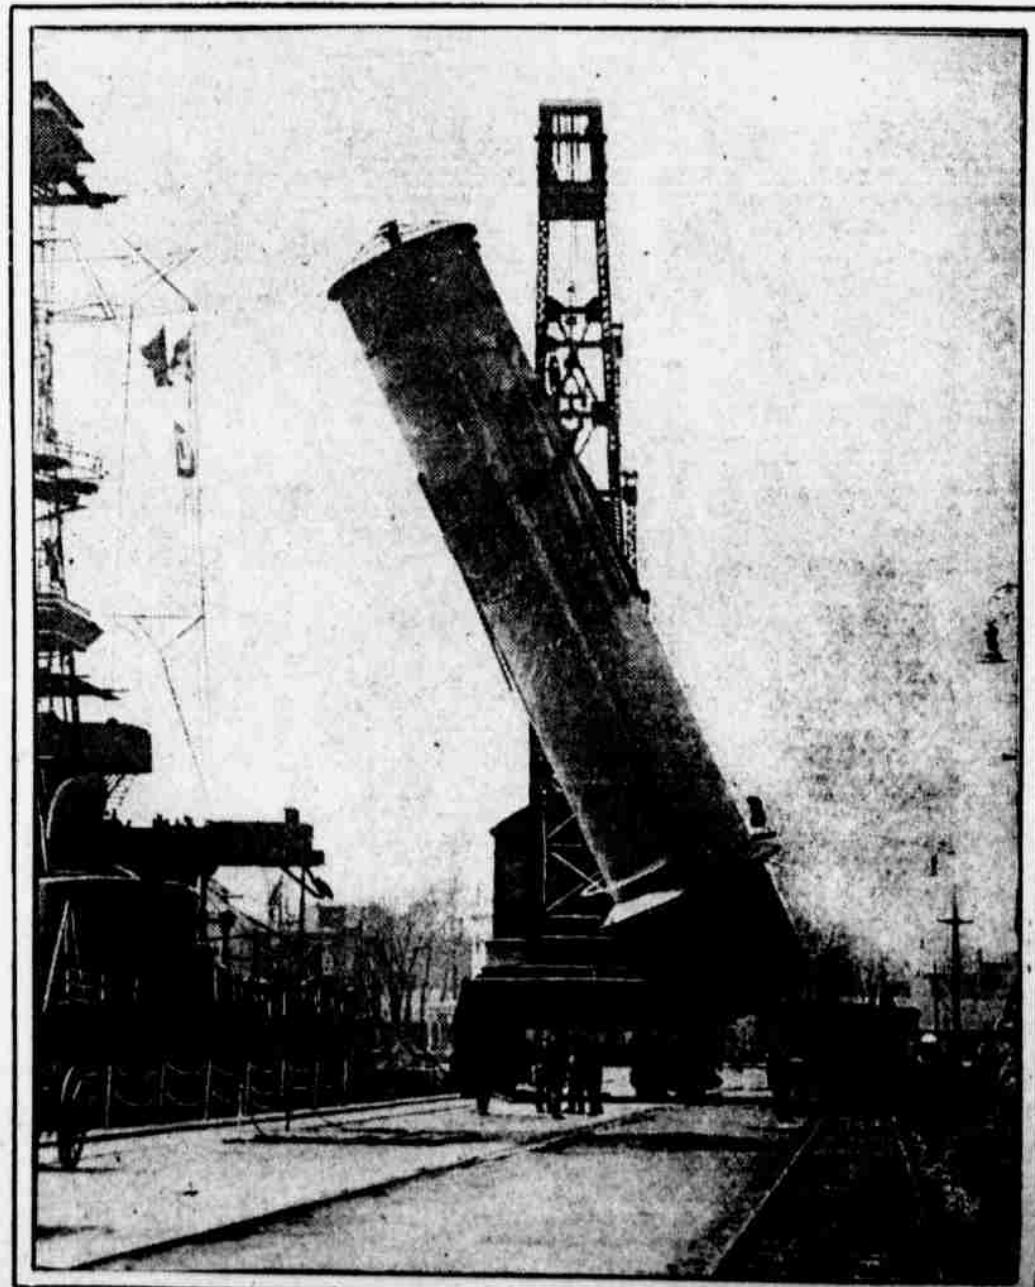

PLOWING A VACANT LOT SAVES MUCH PRECIOUS TIME To further its work of reclaiming the waste places, the Vacant Lots Cultivation Association needs funds to engage plows and purchase fertilizer, seeds and plants.

BOXER BENNY LEONARD GETS A TROPHY FROM ADMIRERS HERE From left to right, Jack Weinstein, Billy Gibson, Leonard's manager; C. Emory Timan, Jimmy Walsh, Leonard, the Wittenberg and Ed Curley, New York scribe.

BOUNCING BABY WEIGHS 100 POUNDS "Billy" McCarthy, of 127 Elmwood street, Narberth, tipped the scale at thirty-six pounds when only three weeks old. He will be three years old in August.

NEW TEN-TON SMOKESTACK FOR THE U. S. S. GEORGIA War preparations are going on apace at the navy yard at Charlestown, Mass. The naval crane in the picture can lift sixty tons.