

TO FRANCE BY JULY 4!
SLOGAN ATTRACTS MEN

City's Engineer Regiment Ranks
Fill Fast—Organize Pioneer
Unit Also

RECRUITING BOOM TODAY

"To France by the Fourth of July!" This slogan of the Philadelphia engineer regiment is swelling the ranks of this organization, which approached the 200-mark today in enlistments. More than twenty-five men were accepted in the Hays Building, where the recruiting office will be open at night. Two new examining surgeons, First Lieutenants Charles J. Cavanaugh and Samuel Brister, arrived from Washington today to help speed up mobilization of the unit. It was announced that probably the Commercial Museum building and grounds would be used as barracks and drill ground.

Another Philadelphia unit—a regiment of pioneer engineers—is recruiting today under Major J. C. Oakes, U. S. A., in the Witherspoon Building. This unit will be used in construction work, whereas the engineer regiment's duties will consist of furnishing motive power for crippled lines of communication in northern France.

The pioneer regiment, according to plans, will follow the engineer regiment, which is to be recruited to a strength of 1908 men by June 1.

Today was a brisk day for every branch of the service, the week opening with a recruiting boom. Eighty-six husky recruits for the army were sent to Fort Mifflin this afternoon. Applicants swarmed into the recruiting stations of the navy, marine corps and naval coast defense reserve, the arms of the service promised the first brush with the Kaiser's U-boats and sea raiders.

Late this afternoon the recruiting "score" stood: Army, 118 new men; navy, 15; marine corps, 15; naval coast defense reserve, 65. Among the army recruits was Raymond C. Harris, twenty-two years old, of Cardington, Pa., a descendant of John Willbank, who recast the Liberty Bell in 1828 in his foundry on Arch street, and of the Rev. J. B. White, chaplain of the first Continental Congress. Harris, who is a clerk, was assigned to the field artillery.

In an effort to bring the First Pennsylvania Infantry, National Guard, to maximum peace strength, a new recruiting station was opened today in front of the Union League. Until this morning 124 recruits were needed to fill out the ranks of the First by May 20. The campaign was started last week, when almost 200 men were needed.

Sergeant William Madison, in charge of the new station, was formerly in the United States artillery coast defense. He is assisted by Private Herman Farber, who was a violinist in the Bellevue-Stratford orchestra until his enlistment last week.

THE way you like it, exactly—thick, savory—butter melting on top; tender and juicy. It's "toasted," isn't it (of course you call it broiled).

You wouldn't want it raw, would you? Cer-tain-ly NOT! And for exactly the same reason you'll like Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The Burley tobacco—it's toasted. Puts in a new flavor, and seals it in—that's what toasting does to Burley tobacco.

A new creation in cigarettes
New, different—there is no other cigarette with this new toasted flavor. You can compare it to your morning toast when it's buttered hot.

LUCKY STRIKE is the real Burley cigarette, too—another entirely new idea. You know Burley tobacco—you've been pouring it out of green, blue and red tin boxes for years. Now get the Burley flavor—toasted—in a cigarette, and join the LUCKY STRIKE smoke circle today.

It's toasted
