

HERE AND THERE AND EVERYWHERE THE CAMERA TURNS IN ILLUMINATING THE NEWS

NEWSPAPER ARTIST ENTERS NEW FIELD
Louis Hanlon, of the Ledger art staff, is painting the interior decorations of the new Dutch roof garden at the Hotel Bingham.

BASEBALL TEAM OF THE SMITH & STOKES COMPANY AT SUMMERDALE
Front row, left to right, Martin, Gilbert, Miller, Rever, Swendt, McColligan, Herr, Wetzel, Merian, Price. Back row, Nitsch, Findaly, Wood. The youngster is Mascot Price.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH SHOWING GREAT GERMAN SHELLS BURSTING ON RHEIMS CATHEDRAL DURING THE VIOLENT BOMBARDMENT OF APRIL 23.

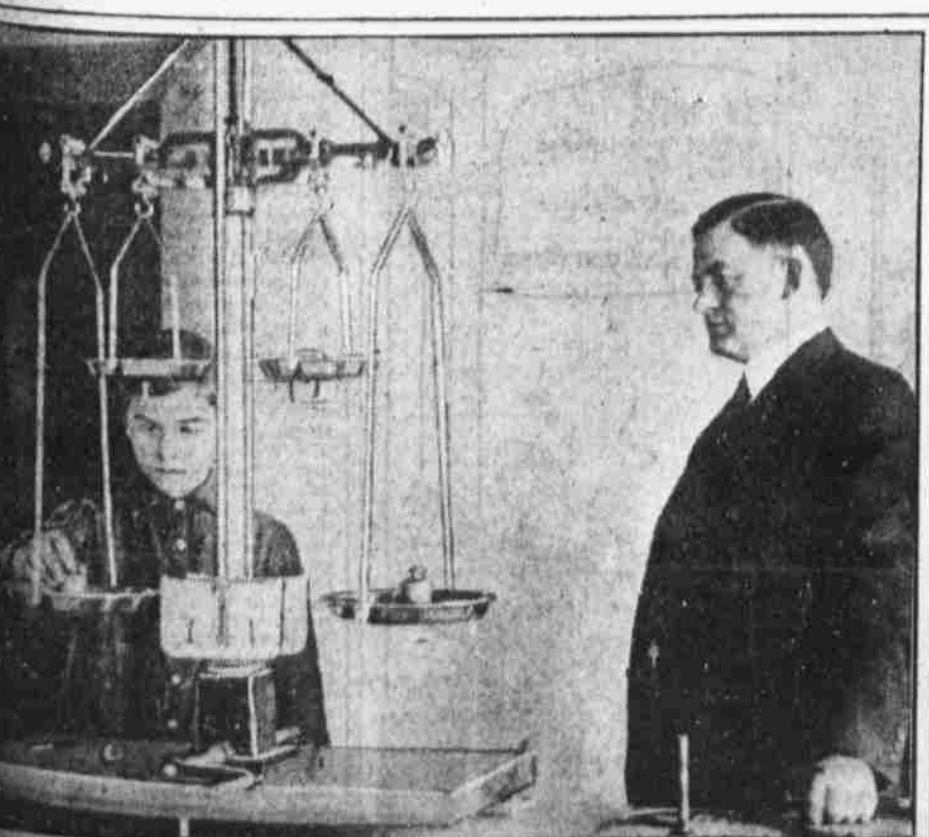

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
AMERICAN INDIAN URGES WHITE BROTHERS TO ENLIST
Chief Eagle Horse, of Southeast Alaska, making a stirring appeal for recruits in the heart of New York city.

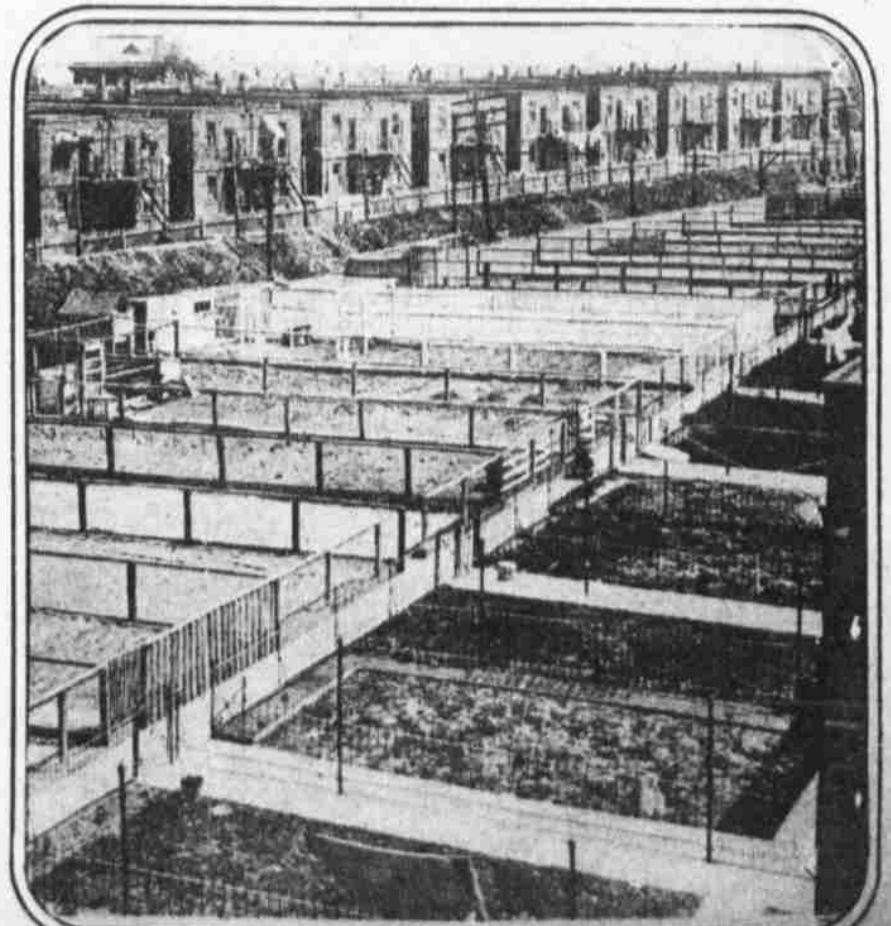

FIRST-AID CLASS AT THE WORK-PLAY-STUDY SCHOOL AT GARY, IND.
Miss Elsa Ueland, a former teacher at Gary and now directing the establishment of the Carson College for Orphan Girls here, will explain the workings of this revolutionary system of education in a lecture at the William Penn High School tonight.

NEW COSTUME FOR INTENSIVE FARMING
Worn by Miss Marie Bair, who also designed costumes for Masque of American Drama.

AN ABSORBING STUDY AT THE GARY SCHOOL
"The child is a natural scientist," says Gary, Ind., school head

A SPICK AND SPAN ROW OF FAMILY GARDENS
Near of Thomas avenue, between Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth.