

PICTURE PAGE ASSEMBLED FROM THE DAY'S EVENTS IN PHILADELPHIA AND VICINITY

WATCHING CADETS MANEUVER AT CHESTER
Left to right, Colonel Charles E. Hyatt, commandant of the Pennsylvania Military College; Captain Lewis S. Morey, Tenth U. S. Cavalry, hero of the battle of Carrizal, and Captain Edward D. Powers.

ARMY OFFICERS REVIEW MANEUVERS OF PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY COLLEGE CADETS
Captain Brautigam, tactical officer (right), Captain Powers, War Department inspector, and cadet officers inspecting the dog tents pitched by the Chester lads in the record time of two minutes flat.

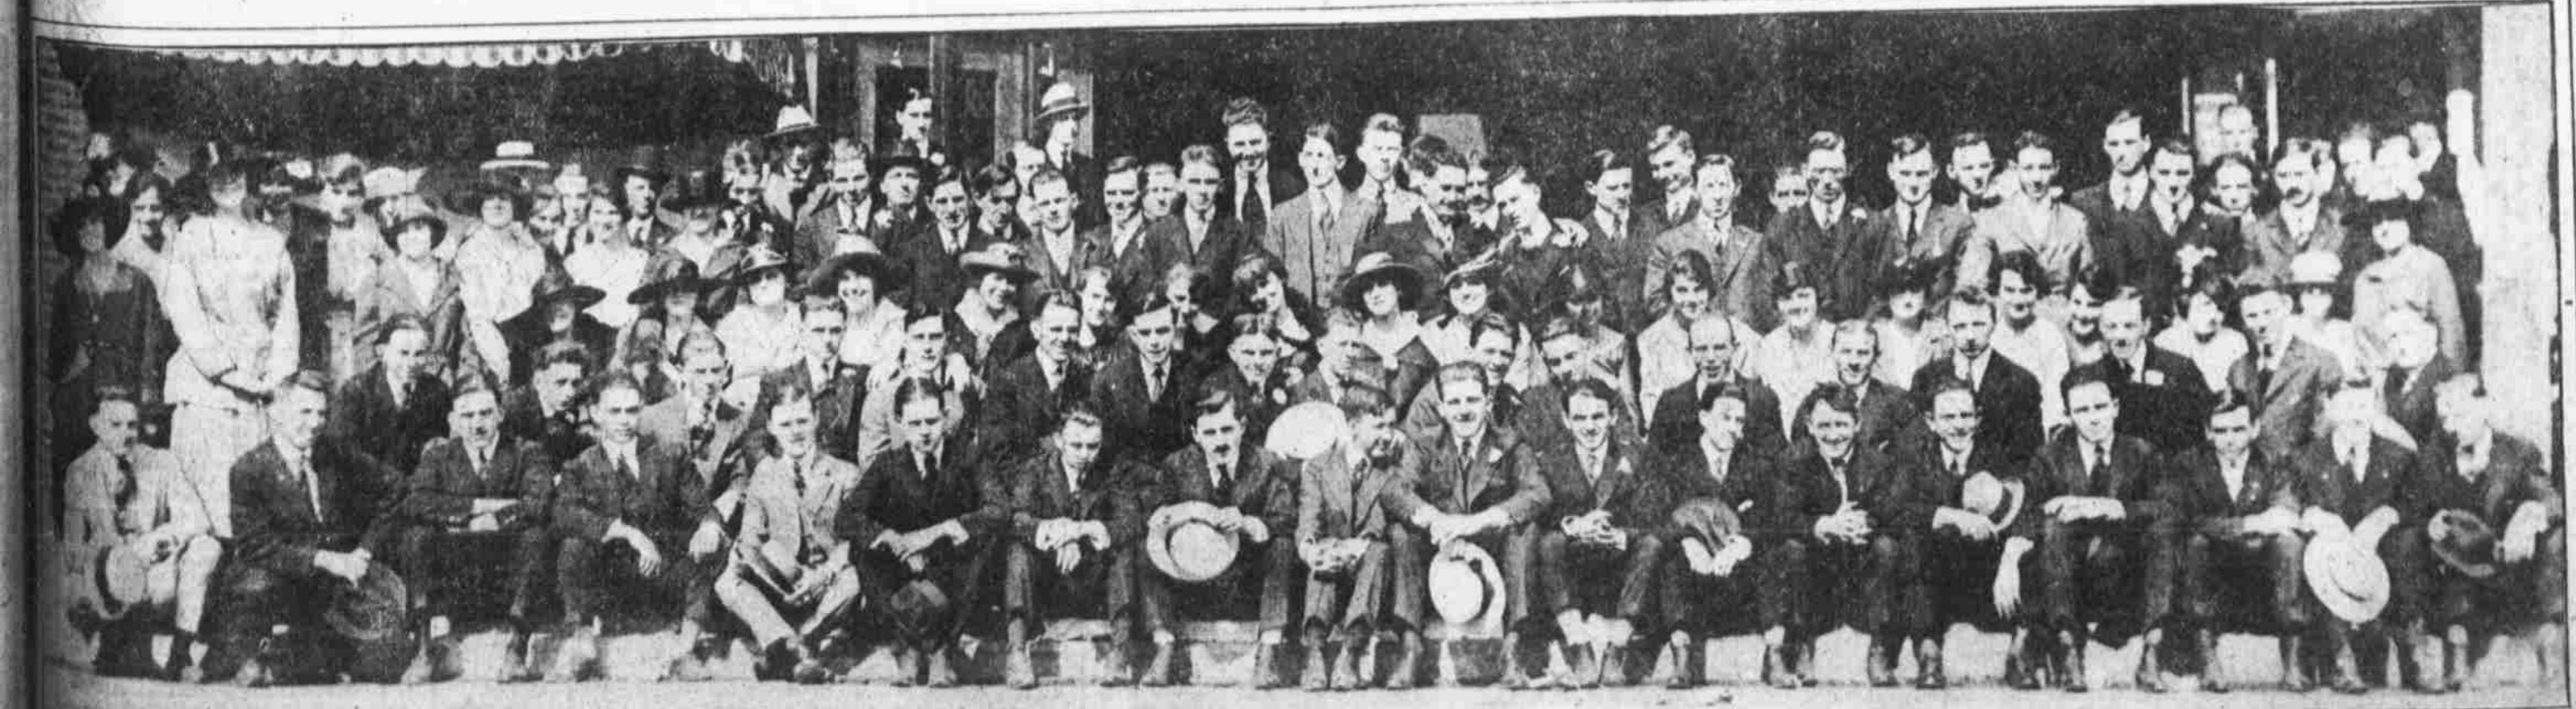

OUTPOST OF THE PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY COLLEGE OPENS FIRE ON A HOSTILE RAIDING PARTY ATTACKING THE CITY OF CHESTER

PRETTY MUNITION WORKERS WHO WILL SING IN THE "CHINA DOLL CHORUS," ONE OF THE PROMINENT NUMBERS IN THE BIG PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT THE METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE THIS MONTH

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TILL THE SOIL
They are Mrs. E. Switzer and Miss Hazel, who are busily engaged in their garden at Thirty-third and Diamond streets.

EDDYSTONE MUNITION WORKERS WHO WILL APPEAR IN A PLAY TO BE PUT ON AT THE METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE THE LAST OF THIS MONTH FOR THE BENEFIT OF SUFFERERS FROM THE RECENT EXPLOSION DISASTER AT EDDYSTONE