REAL ESTATE—SALE OR RENT
PENNSYLVANIA SUBURBAN

AN IDEAL HOME at DEVON

An acre of ground with big old trees, abundance of cherries, apples and pears, lots of fine roses, and corn and vegetable plots, a barn that will hold two cars and a big loft overhead for storage or man's quarters.

On the south side of the railroad where smoke or dust is not. Seven minutes is ample walking time to the station. Ground slopes away from the road so the drainage is fine, and the basement floor is above the ground level.

The house is frame, of charmingly irregular shape, with wide-covered porches around three sides.

First floor has large living hall, music room, large living room, dining room, pantry and kitchen.

Five main bedrooms and bath on second floor and three servants' rooms and bath on third.

Basement has large living or dining room and kitchen or laundry.

Nothing elaborate and not a show place, but a roomy, comfortable home always cool in summer, one that will bring roses into the cheeks of the children and comfort to their elders.

Neighborhood the choicest in or out of Philadelphia; good schools, stores, etc., close by, and Springfield water, electricity, gas and sewer, of course.

BELL TELEPHONE OPERATING

The President of the United States has pointed to the great industrial army of the nation and to the necessity for a generous, unselfish observance of duty on the part of those who may best serve in that army.

The telephone system of the country is to play a conspicuous part in the conduct of the war.

Bell Telephone operating presents itself as a vocation for young women wherein a no less patriotic than valuable service to the Government may be performed.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 24, apply at 406 Market st., Philadelphia, any day except Sunday, between 8:30 a. m. and 5 p. m.

New employes are paid while learning and are assigned to offices near their homes. The work is interesting, the environment most agreeable and efficiency is rewarded by ready advancement.

Comfortable recreation rooms and dining rooms where meals are served at cost in every Central Office.
