THE PADDED CELL

BUT THERE'S NO CAUSE FOR PANIC OR EXCITEMENT, MY GOOD MAN: BE CALM! BE CALM!

SURE! LET'S LAWF! HA-HA HEE-HEE-HA HA!

EXPERT

HAYWARD

Prolonging It

Two English workmen were discussing the war.
“It'll be an awful long job, Sam,” said one.
“It will,” replied the other.
“You see, these Germans is takin' thousands and thousands of Russian prisoners, and the Russians is takin' thousands and thousands of German prisoners. If it keeps on, all the Russians will be in Germany and all the Germans in Russia. And then they'll start all over again, fightin' to get back to their 'omes.”—Tit-Bits.

Just the Word

—London Bystander.
“The best friend I've got—this old revolver of mine. Just as I was getting the worst of a scrap I knocked the beastly Boche on the head with it!”
“Oh, how perfectly stunning!”

When They Shove the Clock Ahead

—Melbourne Punch.
Milkster (to belated bovine)—Blimey! don't you know it's milkin' time accordin' to the new clock. Why don't you read your paper?

A SUBTLE BUT SIGNIFICANT DISTINCTION

—The Tailor.
“Well, dad, don't you think my new frock becoming?”
“Yes, dear, becoming, certainly becoming indeed—but—er—hardly become!”

SCHOOL DAYS

—I guess if your tooth hurts as bad as all that you'd best stay at home from school today.

The law of compensation

Idle Tears

“No, my 'usband ain't killed, Mrs. Marks. No sooner did I put all the kids in mournin', even to Bibo in the pram, when I gets a telegram a sayin' 'e's alive and well. Yes, an' all this expense for nothin'!”
“Wot a crool shame!”—Passing Show.

Call the Red Cross

—Squib.
“Say, Esther, do you know how they summon the deaf mutes to dinner at the asylum?”
“No, how?”
“Ring dumb-bells.”

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOLBOYS ENTER FARMING GAME
