JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Mrs. Howard Longstreth Entertained at Luncheon in Honor of Her Niece-Bachelor Dinner for Mr. Walter Fotterall

AFTER a lapse of little or no entertainday, though on a small scale. Foremost te the luncheon which Mrs. Howard Longstreth gave to her niece Ellanor. whose engagement to Lieutenant Fred erick Dent Sharp was recently announced Ellanor came out this past season, you know, and had quite a wonderful time from all I saw and heard. She is very pretty and has very good taste in the matter of dress, so she is a continual delight to the eye, you may be sure.

She was the originator, you remember of the vaudeville performance which was given last month in the Little Theatre for charity and which was really awfully good. Most of the pretty debs "to be" and "that were" took part, and Elizabeth Dallas danced and Uytendale Baird Caner, assisted by one or two other girls, gave a short one act play. It was a great success and netted the home for which it was given quite a considerable little sum Well, since war has been declared, the announcement was made of Ellanor's en gagement to young Sharp, who is a West Pointer. So in the years to come Phila delphia will not see much of her, for an army officer's wife lives all over the world, so to speak.

The guests at the luncheon included Florence Sheppard, Mildred and Caroline Sheppard, Uytendale Caner, Lois Jackson Corinne Freeman, Nathalie Davis, Eliza beth Adams, Christine Stockton, Margaretta Myers, Helen Marshall, Pauline Arey, Katherine Hunter, Martha McAllister, Mary Dercum, Peggy Perot, Margaret Davis, Marion Button, Dorothea Oberteuffer, Nancy Wynne Cooke and Mrs. Jacob Disston, Jr., in other words Sarah Myers

SECOND entertainment today will be A second entertain will be given to Walter Fotterall, who will beat Nooks to the altar by two days, you know. Walter and Eleanor Dulany are to be married in Baltimore on Thursday and Nooks and Helen Parmele on Saturday at Staten Island.

The dinner for Walter is to be given at the Markham Club by eleven of hisbosom friends, including Sydney Young. Sam Chase, Tom Roberts, Bill Norris Frank Cramp, Joseph Mitcheson, Keating Willcox, Persifor Frazer, Jr., Billy Pep per, Julian DuPuy and Ben Rowland. Something tells me it will not be a sleepy affair. What think you?

I hear that Eugene Simonin is expected home either today or tomorrow from France. He sailed more than a week ago. He has been there since Christmas time driving the ambulance which his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Simonin, gave him for a Christmas present, which strikes me as a decidedly fine thing for them to have done. Certainly a high type of gift, don't you think? He will be home for a short time only on a furlough, I understand, and undoubtedly it will be mighty thrilling to hear his experiences so near the trenches. Mrs. Simonin has gone to New York to meet him, and perhaps before he returns we will have an opportunity to hear of some of his wonderful accounts of life while in France. The thing is, most of our young men are so modest one scarcely knows they have even been across, and we just happen upon the news of it through some near friends of the family or some other un-

ONE hears constantly of branches of the American Red Cross meeting here and there, and one in particular is called the Calvary Church Auxiliary No. 34. under the able direction of Miss Selena Hey, of Germantown. The members meet and sew like busy bees all day Wednesday at the church, Manheim street and Pulaski avenue, Germantown, Among the members are Mrs. French Reeves. Mrs. A. E. Brecht, Mrs. George Brock, Mrs. George Beck, Mrs. Fred Story, Miss Mary Jenkins, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Ellison. Miss Anna Shipley, Mrs. E. E. Denniston Mrs. Edward Denniston, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Tiley and a whole bunch of others.

Personals

NANCY WYNNE.

Miss Elorence Sheppard and Mr. Courtlandt McC, Richardson, whose marriage will take place on Saturday, entertained the members of their bridal party at dinner on Saturday night at the Merion Gon Club

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Peacock, of West Chelten avenue, Germantown, will leave on Saturday of this week for Beach Haven, where they have taken a cottage for the

At the informal tea which Mrs. Henry Starr Richardson gave on Saturday at her home, 2210 Pine street, in honor of the Countess Eleanor de Cisneros, Mrs. Charles 8. Ziegler presided at the tea table

Mr. Charles Pitman Baker, Jr., whose marriage to Miss Jans Florence Curran, of Oak Lane, will take place on Saturday, was given a dinner last Friday night by his best man and ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Curran, of Lawnton avenue, Oak Lane, will entertain the entire bridal party at dinner next Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coffin, of West Hansberry street, Germantown, will leave by motor tomorrow for New Rochelle, to spend several days. Miss Hazel Coffin vill attend the commencement exercises at Rogers Hall, Lowell, Mass., and will visit friends in Manchester for two weeks.

The Flower, Fruit and Ice Mission of Germantown and Chestnut Hill has begun Ite work at 39 West Chelten avenue, wher each Wednesday morning those who are interested may contribute flowers or money to carry on this laudable work. An earnest request is made for more helpers. The

The speaker at the May meeting of the Men's Association of the First Presbyte-Men's Association of the First Presbyte-rian Church, in Germantown, will be the Rev. D. E. Weigle, secretary of the church advertising and publicity departments of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. His subject will be "Church Ad-vertising That Succeeds." The members of the association have been asked to bring their witter as a social hour will follow their wives, as a social hour will follow

The marriage of Mrs. Flora T. Twining and Mr. George David, of Germantown, took place on Saturday at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. The ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. Edward Linde, pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. David left immediately for Hot Springs, Va., and will be at home September 1 at 328 Duval street,

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wickes Barakat, of 6137 Washington avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter. Eurbara Irene, on May 18. Mrs. Barakat will be remembered as Miss Irene Amelia Hayward, of Wost Somerville, Mass.

Miss Clare Claws spent the week-end in Atlantic City as the guest of Miss Carolin allagber.

South Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Tole, of 1923 lanning street, are spending several weeks a Saa Isle City.

Mr. William Robertson, of 1213 South Twenty-first street, who has been ill with a severe attack of pneumonia, is recuperat-ing in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Margaret Dobbs. of 1218 South Twentieth street, will visit relatives in Clementon this week.

Mine Katherine Elimner of 22:7 South Lambert street, has gone to Atlantae City-for the summer.

North Philadelphia

The weiding of All- live Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pariel Frankel, of 25% North Twenty-first street, and Mr. Harry A. Mildesherg, of 2436 North Twenty Heith street, will take place on Sunday eventum, June 10, at the home of the brides are the first than one. Miss Anna Frankel will be berer's maid of honer, and Mr Abraham L. leulers will be his brother's best man.

Annual An

the Fairhill First-Day School will take place on Saturday at Burholme Park.

Mrs. M. Klein, of 1908 West Venange street, will spend part of June with her son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klein, in Atlantic City.

Roxborough

MRS. ARCHIE GILCHRIST SPARKS

Mrs. Sparks was Miss Eleanor Dexter Morse. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison E. Morse, of 4439 Spruce street. Her wedding to Mr. Sparks took place on Saturday.

Bala-Cynwyd

in. Mr. Wright will have as his best an Mr. J. Gerritt Perkins and the fol-wing gentlemen will act as ushers: Mr.

Hollis Wolstenholme, Mr. Frederick Stanger Mr. Herbert Reading, Jr., Mr. Joseph Col-lins, Mr. J. Addison Abrans, Mr. Sewall H Corkran and Mr. Richard M. Shoemaker

Immediately following the ceremony ther will be a small reception at Penn Lodge the home of the bride's mether.

Along the Reading

A class in fruit and vegetable canning will be started by the Jenkintown branch of the Red Cross, Mrs. Andrew Graham will take charge of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Beach and their faughter, Miss Dorothy Beach, of Elkins Park, will leave on Thursday, June 7, for

The Home Defense League of Auington

Germantown

The annual strawberry festival given by embers of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church in Germantown will be held on Saturday, June 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry

Mr Bayard Henry, of West Walnut lane, retiring president of the Germantown Y. M. C. A., will give a dinner to his successor. Mr. Livingston E. Jones, at his home on

West Philadelphia

Mrs. Walter Walker, of 6225 Carpenter treet, will entertain today at cards and uncheon. Her guests will be Mrs. Edmond er parents for several weeks.

Powers, of Harvey street.

or, where they have taken a cottage place June 12.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Reinert, of 232 Lemonte street, have bested invitations for the wedding of their daughter. Miss Estelle May Reinert, to Mr. Roband R. Shillady, on Weddinsday evening, June 6. In St. David's Protestant Episcopat Church, Krams avenue, Manayunk, The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Bena Reinert, and the bridegreom by Mr. Louis Rosenselter. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The athome cards are for after June 20, at 224 Lemonte street, Roxborough. thian avenue, will entertain at luncheon Thursday in honor of Miss Grace A. Wil-liams, of Noble, whose marriage will take emonte street, Roxborough.

The wedding of Miss Marie Wrigley The wedding of Miss Marie Wrigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wrigley, of 4308 Fleming street, and Mr. William Mac-High, also of Hoxbprough, will take place on Wednesday marning, June 29, at 3 sciock, in the Church of St. John the Baptist, Manayunk, and will be followed by a breakfast at the home of the brifle's parents. The bride has selected Miss Iva Hare as maid of honor, and Mr. MacHugh will have his brother, Mr. Roy MacHugh, for best mun. The at-home cards are for after July 1, at 523 Lyceum avenue, Hoxborough. The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Lodge Magee, daughter of Mrs. George Magee, of Cynwyd, and Mr. Spencer D. Wright, will take place on June 3 at 6 o'clock at St. John's Church, Cynwyd. Miss Magee will be attended by her sister, Miss Jane I. Magee, as maid of honor, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. G. B. Ferkins, as matron of honor. There will be three little flower. honor. There will be three little flower girls, all of whom are coughts of the bride. They are Miss Harriet Lodge Croft. Miss Marjorie Evans Croft and Miss Peggy Dun-, at 322 Lyceum avenue, Hoxborough

The annual lawn fete of the Bethany atheran Church will be held tomorrow ifternoon and evening on the church fawn n Martin street.

Weddings

UNDERWOOD-DODAMEAD A very pretty wedding took place on Satarday evening in the Memorial Presbyterian Church of Wenonah, when Miss Esther Mac Dodamead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry 3. Dodamead, became the bride of Dr. Amo Parker Underwood, of Woodbury. The narriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. H. Gage, paster of the church, and

The bride were a gown of white satin and alle with court train and veil and carried shower botiquet of Bride roses and lilies f the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Evans, of New York, wore a gown of yellow. The bridesmaids Miss Catharine Brodhead, of Frankford, and Miss Ruth Farr, of Wenonah, chose gowns of yellow over white, and each carried bouheld a very important meeting on Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. Building. The quets of yellow daistes. The little flower girl, Miss Dorothy Underwood, a niece of speaker of the evening was Mr. Francis G. Gallagher, of Philadelphia. the bridegroom, wore a white frock and car-ried a basker of yellow daisies. The chan-cel of the church was filled with paims, interspersed with yellow and white flowers Dr. J. Harris Underwood, brother of the bridgeroom, was best man, and Mr. Charles Mrs. E. R. Littleton, of the Fairfax Apartments, in Germantown, left yesterday for Aberdeen, S. D., where she will visit Stiner, of Camden, and Mr. John D. Hahn Jr., of this city, were usiters. After the ceremony a reception was given at the bone of the bride's parents, on South Clinton avenue. Dr. and Mrs. Underwood will be at home after October 1 at 25 North Broad street, Woodbury.

LOVEKIN-LIPPINCOTT

A wedding of interest today will be that of Miss Katharine Darlington Lippincott laughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lippin of 6041 Drexel road, Overbrook, and Mr Raymond E. Lovekin, which will be sol-emnized at 6 o'clock in St. Paul's Memoria Church, in Overbrook, by the Rev. James H. Darlington, D. D., Bishop of the diocese of Harrishurg, assisted by Bishop Thomas Garland, Miss Lippincott, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of liberty satin, covered with white silk-tulle. The court train will have deep ruffles of silver ribbon, caught here and here with orange blossoms. tulle will be arranged with a band of slive across the forehead, and will be fastened with clusters of orange blossoms. The bridal et will consist of lilles of the valley and Bride roses

Miss Dorothy Goodliffe Lippincott will attend the bride as maid of honor, and will be gowned in pink tulls and silver cloth. A picture hat of pink chiffon will also be worn, and she will carry a basket filled

Miss Evelyn Bird Dimmick, the tiny flower girl, will wear a dainty pink and white lingerie frock and will carry pink Mr. Lovekin will have his brother Mr. Walter Lovekin, as best man, and the ushers will be Mr. Charles Darlington Lip-pincott, Mr. Willard Ewing, Mr. Oscar J. Peterson, Mr. John E. Humphreys. A large reception will follow the ceremony for 200 guests at the bride's he

TIRRILL-NEVILLE

The marriage of Miss Anna M. Neville ad Mr. Edgar B. Tirrill, of Holden, Me., fred D. Thomas. After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. Tirrill will be at home in Holden, Me.

ROSEMAN-YOCUM

A quiet wedding took place on Friday. Miss Marguerite Yocum, daughter of Mr. Isaac D. Yocum, of 1614 Spring Garden street, became the bride of Mr. Albert W. Roseman. Miss Yocum was attended by Mrs. George D. Rose as matron of honor, Mr. Roseman had Mr. George D. Rose an best man. After June 15 Mr. and Mrs. Roseman will be at home at the Margraya.

BLEHL-DE MEYER The marriage of Miss Isabelle de Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel H. de Meyer, of San Francisco, Cal., to Mr. Ernest Biehl, of 1637 Diamond street, was sol-Biehl, of 1627 Diamond street, was solemized at 6.30 o'clock last evening in the Grace Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks streets. The Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell performed the ceremony, which was followed by a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford Mr. Biehl and his bride, upon their return, from their wedding journey, will be at home on Mondays after June 21, at 1627 Diamond street.

CONTRABAND

a steel builthean, watertight, pierced by

"Is there any communication between the

"No. sir; the fo'castie is all above deck.

it wuz opened an' shut from the bridge, Mr. Hollia."

lighted engine room at the bottom of the shaft. All I could see was a great wheel and has hidden himself somewhere on

"Well, I'll be damned! Can't you find

He hasn't visited you?"
"Not to my knowledge. Tony is back such a thrust as had done for his two disappeared.

However, here was proof positive that the cllow was still on board; still hiding be-ween decks. He had not reached the open, or iliung himself into the sea. Surely with-run him down. Yet the situation was baf-ding enough. Masters could tell us noth-our; he had beard no sound, seen no shadow. He had been oiling the machinery, and a min could have slipped down the ladder unobserved, and escaped again in the same way. There was no other en-trance to the engine room; the forward builthead was solid; there were alkhead was solid; there were two yenti-ator shafts, but neither was large enough for the passage of a man's body, and the cal-chute was kept closed and locked at ea. Nevertheless I had these examined.

etermined to take no chances, and our room and coal bunkers. At the end, ut-terly ballled, White gave vent to an oath, "It beats me, sir," be confessed hearsely.

unless it's a spook we're a-huntin' for he's not down here, and he must have gone back by way of the ladder. The fel-low has either found some means of get-ne forecastle-no one messes there now?

"Then let's have a look up above; come

"Yer ain't goin' ter leave me down here all alone, are yer Captain?" questioned Musters anxiously, "with Tony lyin' dead in there, an' a damned murderer prowlin' ppose you must have a fireman-White, su better stay."

"Tain't no job I like, sir; I shoveled

"I'll tackle it, sir," interrupted Olson sterly. "That big book would throw a

After you get those hatches off send him in on top o' the cargo. There'd be no danger o' his gettin' hurt if Bascom was

"Yer a damn liar! I ain't no more afraid

"Then why don't you stay here?"
"I'm plumb tired out shovelin."
"That will do men," I broke in sternly.
"There will be work enough, and maybe fighting enough, for both of you. As long as you have volunteered, Olson, you may take a turn down here, and White will.

take a turn down here, and White will go with me. Keep a sharp eye out, you men

(CONTINUED TOMORROW)

Madame, You Save

It is you, Mrs. Housewife, who takes care of the family thrift fund, laid by for rainy days.

Save This Way

Put the thrift fund into Liberty

Loan securities. They are the safest investments in the whole world.

BUY A BOND

oat here already for eight hours."

hidin' there.

"I wish it was; the trouble is it was, and a mighty dangerous one.

ing into the hold, or eine he's re-slip on deck and perhaps is antern penetrated every inch of the engi

the narrow confines of the ship we con

"Not yet; we've searched every place aft.

Bascom, the owner, has gone crazy

"That you, Captain?"

That is the usual arrangement, but forecastic and the hold. White?" I a staring helplessly at the steel barrier.

A Romance of the North Atlantic By RANDALL PARRISH

CHAPTER XXXV-Continued YE. White, you possess the strength

A and nerve for this sort of job. Miss. Carrington here suspects that the owner of this ship has lost his mind. I just found Dubous tring on the cabin deck nurrdered---

"Dubois, sir?" 'Yes; he had been stabled in the back "

'And you believe the owner did it?" There is no one eise on board who could He is locked in his stateroom, and we've got to get him out. Come on now, both of

I led the way down the stairs in no Seasant frame of mind. I had no relish for the job, but was determined to see it thoroughly done. An insune man running free abourd, animated by a desire to kill, added to my other responsibilities, increased our dangers manifold. The cabin scemed so dark after the brightness of the deck above, that I grasped the stair rail and advanced almost blindly. I had reached the center of the cabin before my eyes discerned that there were two bodies out tretched on the deck instead of one I in-oluntarily shrank back, gripping the sleeve of White's shirt, and pointing.

"Good God; look here! there are two bodles; he—he has got Dade also." The sailor sprang past me, and dropped to is knees.

"Aye, it's Dade, and the poor cuss be "Aye, it's Dade, and the poor cuss by "Aye, it's Dade, and the poor cass is ne for, sir-it's another knife thrust in "And no longer any doubt who did it."

echoed Olson, "for there's not another man aboard been aft." "Right you are," I said, gripping myself ready to act. And we must get him at once. Come on, both of you; if there's a fight it may take the three of us. He has a knife, and there was a gun in his drawer.

The door of Bascom's stateroom was closed, and I grasped the knob with no thought that it would yield to my fingers. But it did, and I almost fell forward into the room, catching myself, and staring about. The others crowded through after me their eyes searching every nook and corner. The last gleam of the sun streamed in through the stern ports, and every object within was clearly revealed at a glance. The man was not there I drew back the curtains concealing the bath, but the succe was empty; only one of the round ports was partially open, the aperture far too small to admit the passage of a body. The bed had not been slent in, and was pearly their eyes searching every nook and corne made; one drawer of the desk stood oper and sapers were scattered on the rug be neath; a chair was overturned on the deck a chest in one corner had been rummaged ts contents flung aside. My eyes fell on White, his mouth open, his face grotesqu in its coating of coal dust.
"Damned if he ain't got away, sir," h through that port-a cat couldn't ha' done blurted out, "but he never went overboard

"But where? and for what purpose? There is no knowing what a man in his state of mind may do. Good Heavens! he could wreck the ship."

wreck the ship."
"More likely he's huntin' for McCann, sir," insisted Olson. "The lady said that was what he went crazy over."
"But McCann is on deck, and Bascon never came out of the cabin; he's either hiding in one of these staterooms, or he has gone forward amidehips through the rassage. Get a light White—take the cabin lantern. Olson and I will have a look behind these doors first, and then we'll explore between decks."

We found nothing, not the slightest trace

We found nothing, not the slightest tracof the fugitive. Heyond doubt he had gon forward, either seeking to escape, or the thought that he could attain the through some opening amidships. ol enough by now to realize the peril we faced between decks, searching for the madman, whom we might encounter at any "Run on deck, White," I ordered, "and and on user, white, I ordered, 'and pick up a couple of mariti spikes. I have a revolver. Tell Mr. Leayord the situation, and have him keep his eyes open. Better have him warn McCam, and Miss Carrington had best remain near the wheel until we get our hands on this fellow. Hurry back now." back now.

back now."

Oison and I remained motionless our eyes on the black opening leading forward, the dim rays of the lantern failing on the ghastly faces of the two dead men outstretched on the deck. It was a gruesome spot, and my heart was beating like a trip-hammer. I made sure my revolver was loaded dropping the weapon into a jacket pocket. White rejoined us, grasping the optices, one of which he passed over to Olson, who tested the weight in his hand.

"Quiet as a June mornin' up there, sir he announced, squinting about. Ther-ain't nobody seen nuthin' of a maniac, reckon yer better let Olson carry the lan tern, so you and I can be sorter clock in the Church of Our Lady of Vic-bry by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor P. Coghlan. the only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Al-ed D. Thomas. After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. drill will be at home in Holden. Me. touchy about his size. "However, one will have to carry it."

"It's all right, sir." said Olson quietly. "I'll hold the glim, but if that big duffer doesn't stand up to the job I'll bust glass doesn't stand up to the job I'll bust glass an' all over his head."

We certainly made a thorough search of it. I doubt if a stray rat got by us without being seen, but from the after-cabin to the engine-room ladder we found no trace of Bascom; no indication even that he had ever passed that way. Beginning with the second of the control of the property we employed every nock. steward's pantry, we explored every nook and corner, flashing the light of the lantern into bunks and behind sea chests; clamber-ing over boxes and barrels in the storeroom; even lifting the iron cover of the lazarette.

G. W. ELKINS CONFIRMS NEWS OF BETROTHAL

Announces That He and Mrs Cummer, of Cleveland, Will Be Married June 19

a steel builthead, watertight, pierced by a single door, to be sure, but this was closed and locked securely. To the best of my knowledge, this door had never been opened since the slop left Buttmore, and its mechanism had probably been operated from the demolished bridge. I could conceive of no way in which the crazed man could have proceeded further forward. From this point clear to the formach the craze George W. Elkins, of Elkins Park, today dra Allethaire Ludlow Cummer, of this point clear to the forepeak the cargo had been loaded almost chock with the main deck, and the hatches had not been lifted for a week; indeed, they were hattened down, and it was likely the air was foul enough by this time to strangle any housen hang. leveland, in New York on June 19.

Mrs. Cummer is prominent in Cleveland wiety. She is the daughter of Colonel E Ludlow, vice commander of the Loyal Legion of the State of Indiana. He fought in the Civil War in the Tenth Indiana Inantry.
Mr. Elkins in confirming the news of his suggement and combring marriage said that suggement and coming marriage said that he regretted that the facts had become snown at this time. He intimated that only manufalte members of both families and attimate friends would be present at the "How was this door manipulated? Do Mrs. Cummer was married to William "Well, I had charge o' loadin' the after-hold, sir," and Olson scratched his head trying to remember. "That door never was opened but once, when Captair Hadley tested it before we left Baltimore, or maybe after we got out in the Chesapeake. I think it was usened an shut from the heider. Mr.

Arg. Cummer was married to William Cummer, a wealthy clubman of Cleveland, several years ago. They were divorced, however, on the grounds of incompatability. Mr. Elkins said. Two years ago Mr. Elkins was introduced to Mrs. Cummer at Bellaire. Fla., where each was spending the winter. Mrs. Stella M. Elkins, Mr. Elkins's first wife, died in April, 1913. The Abington Memorial Hospital, on Old York road, oppo-site Woodlawn avenue, was erected by Mr. there is a slot here for a key; still, the door is steel, and it looks too heavy for any one man to operate." lkins as a memorial to her at a cost I leaned over and looked down into the $135,000. Mr. Elkins has been prominently known r several years as an expert golfer, horse uan, motorist and yachtsman, as well as a nancier and clubman. He recently pre-ented his yacht. Juniata, to the United The engineer stepped into view and eered up into the darkness; he appeared urly and shapeless. States Government.

He returned last night to his home, Chelm House, Elkins Park, from Ningara Falls, here he arranged for a cottage for his aughters, Mrs. George F. Tyler and Mrs. Wharton Sinkler, whose husbands are at the military training camp at Fort Ningara, Mr. Elkins is a son of the late William . Elkins, traction magnate and founder o he large Elkins fortune.

"Not to my knowledge. Tony is back in the fireroom; I'll ask him." The three of us clung to the ladder gazing down, the light from the lantern revealing our faces. Masters was not gone a moment, but his voice had changed. "Tony's killed, sir," he called un excitedly. "He's lying on the coal in No. 1 bunker, cut in the back with a knife." The words were not out of his mouth be-GRIZZLY BEAR ADOPTS A MOTHERLESS CUB AS OWN

Ther, Known to Rocky Mountain Rangers as "The Grizzly King," Shows Paternal Love

The words were not out of his mouth be-ore we were scrambling down. But our aste gained us nothing. The only trail James Oliver Curwood returns in his stretched out in the half-emptled coal banker, his lips closed forever. It was a knife thrust which had killed him — just story of Thor, the biggest grizzly bear in the Rocky Mountains, to the manner and spirit of his earlier great success, "Kazan," REGER more than a year ago, ; the cabin above; but the madman had nounting climax and excitement, and they will not be disappointed here.

But those who are unacquainted with Kazan" will find in "The Grizzly King." "Kazan" will find in "The Grizzly King," the title of his new work, qualities which they do not associate with the ordinary author-playful humor and fine tenderner n amused and affectionate sympathy the noble and exceedingly engaging hero. Ther, crusty old bachelor, who adopts a motherless black cub.

This is at once a fascinating nature study and a stirring tale of the outdoors. It vertain to make a multitude of new frier for the author who read "The Griz King," which begins in Saturday's EVENING

Remember that your news dealer carrie mly a limited supply of Evenino Lenow for all issues in which "The Grizzly appears. The story will be pubisked in daily installments, commi Saturday

Betrothal Announced

That the Jews in this city will support he nation in the war with Germany was nade evident in patriotic speeches at the suffet luncheon given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman White, 1110 Snyder ave-me, last night, when they announced the betrethal of their daughter. Miss Lillian E. White, to Mr. Samuel Stutman.

A patriotic effect was given to the occa-lon, as all the girls were dressed in nurses informs, while the walls were decorated ith flags and buoting, representing the dilitary marches throughout the ev Those present at the affair were Miss Sara C. White, Miss Lillian G. Gutlof, of

Sara C. White, Miss Lillan G. Guttof, or New York; Miss Estelle C. White, Miss Heatrice White, Miss Dorothea White, Miss Roslyn Stutman, Miss Sara Stutman, Miss Sara Pishback, Miss Elizabeth Sabreen, Miss Annette Feldman, Miss Rosalie Horo-witz, Miss Sadie Heck, Miss Rheba Selfer, Miss Ethel Selfer, Miss Rosalie Baker, Miss Cannel, Miss Land, Des Konnel, Miss Lennel, Miss Lennel Rheba Baker, Miss Rac Kennel, Miss Jean ette Salvatore, Miss Gladys Libunoff, Mis Ruth Libunoff, Miss Evelyn Libunoff, Mis Helen Palin, Miss Dora Moss, Mr. Louis 1 White, Mr. Harry Witteky, Mr. Jack Stu-man, Mr. Merris Marks, of Pittsburgh Mr. Sam Brown, Mr. William Abraham Benjamia Baker, Mr. Herbert Jaspan, Myer Green, Mr. Samuel Moyerman, Nathaniel Feldman, Mr. Jack Silver, Nathaniel Feldman, Mr. Jack Sliver, Mr. Maxwell, Mr. Waltsman, Mr. Samuel Barnett, Mr. Edward Goldman, Mr. George Owens, Mr. Samuel Gold, Mr. Benjamin Gold, Mr. William Raybin, Mr. M. Chadnoy, Mr. Harry Pressman, Mr. George Stutman, Mr. Harry Stutman, Mr. Ben Palin, Mr. Jack Moss, Mr. Louis Russo, Mr. and Mrs. M. Stutman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stutman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Stutman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Libunoff, Mr. and Mrs. And M and Mrs. Palin, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Libunoff, Mr and Mrs. L. Lowenthal, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baker and Mr and Mrs. A. Wlener,

$30,000 to St. Agnes's Hospital HARRISBURG, May 29 .- Among Sena propriation bills reported to the Senat

Philadelphia Navigation Commissioners, $62,000; monument to mark Washington's Crossing of the Delaware, $25,000; St. Agnes's Hospital, Philadelphia, $20,000; St. Agnes's Hospital, Philadelphia, $20,000; Tabor Home, Bucks County, $10,000; Chilidren's Home, York, $1000; State Hospital, Nanticoke, $110,000; State Hospital for Insane, Allentown, $122,000; State Hospital for Insane, Wernersvills, $104,500; Ragleville Banatorlum, Montgomery County, $40,000; State Hospital, Treverton, $97,600.

TRUCK HITS TROLLEY CAR; THREE INJURED

Steering Gear on Auto Broke, Is Report, Causing Crash-Motorman Seriously Hurt

Two passengers and the motorman of a street car were injured early today when the car crashed into a heavy Baldwin Locomotive Works motortruck at Thirdsth and Spring Garden streets. The motorman, William Smoker, 216 North May street, suffered concussion of the brain and a possible fractured skull. Caspar Cambler, 423 North Robinson street, and William Greer, 1529 North Fifty-eighth street.

her, 423 North Robinson street, and William Greer, 1520 North Flifty-eighth arcet, were bruised and cut by glass.

Russell Disbrow, 2121 Spring Garden street, who drove the truck, escaped injury, and was arrested by Foliceman Armant, of the Thirty-ninth street and Lancaster avenue station.

Disbrow was driving the truck west on Spring Garden street. The street car was coming in the opposite direction. Neither Disbrow nor the passengers could explain the accident. It was said the steering sear on the automobile broke and whiring sear on the automobile broke and whiring the truck into the path of the car. The passengers went home after treatment at the Prashyterian Hospital. Smoker, the motorman, is in a serious condition at the terman, is in a serious condition at the Flag Dedications in Many Towns NORTH WALES, Pa., May 39 Special lemerial Day exercises will be held at forth Wales, Ambier, Lansdale, Perkusie, Sellersville and Quakertown tomorrow, Flag dedication exercises will be a part of the program at most of these places.

Belmont Improvement Association, special secting at 4053 Girard avenue. Free, Thirty-third annual convention of the W. Mass-meeting of Italian citizens to aringe for entertainment of Italian envoys, eneficienze Hall, 920 South Eighth street.

Municipal Band plays at Forty-sighth Dinner, Philadelphia Tile, Mantel and rate Association, Adelphia Hotel, 7 o'clock-

Dinner-dance, Nurses' Alumnae Associaon of Jewish Hospital, Rittenhouse Hotel, o'clock Members.

Semiannual meeting of the Germaniowa and Chestnut Hill Improvement Association, termantown High School, 8 o'clock. Pres. Debate, "Resolved, That when the United States and the State governments abolish the legalized liquor traffic, compensation or reimbursement for the loss of actual investment he provided." D. Clarence Gibboney affirmative; Rev. Dr. Clarence T. Wilson, of Washington, negative. Baptist emple. Admission charge, Annual May hop, Young Men's Progress-

Association, Royal Dance Land, Seventh nd Morris streets, $130 o'clock. Admiss athic Hospital, Union Methodist Episcopal hurch, Diamond street above Twentieth Graduation exercises, Germantown Hos-ital, Church of the Redeemer, Penn and Thew streets, $ o'clock. Free.

Pageant, "American Expenditures," Bethe by Temple. Admission charge.

POSITIVE ANNOUNCEMENT ALL THIS WEEK-

Clara Kimball Young In the Much-Discussed Photoplay "The Easiest Way" ADDED ATTRACTION IMAGINARY ZEPPELIN

ATTACK ON NEW YORK PALACE 10 A. M. to 11:115 P. M. Prices, 10c, 20c

Douglas Fairbanks Revue TODAY—THE GOOD BAD MAN'
TOMORROW—THE AMERICANO
Thursday, "HABIT OF HAPPINESS"
Priday, "AMERICAN ARISTOCHACT;
Saturday, "MANHATTAN MADNESS"

ARCADIA CHESTNUT Below 16TH
10:15 A. M., 12, 2, 8:45, 5:45, 7:45 & 9:45 P. M.
ALICE JOYCE and HARRY MOREY in Picturization of Hayard Veiller's "WITHIN THE LAW"

REGENT MARKET Below 17TH 11 A. M. to 11:15 P. M. Daily, 10c; Evgs., 15c. ETHEL BARRYMORE THE CALL OF HER PEOPLE

VICTORIA MARKET Above PTH ROBERT WARWICK "THE SILENT MASTER"

Adapted from E. Phillips Opponheim's
'THE COURT OF ST. SIMON'
Thurs. Frt. Set. Mirlam Cooper in "The Lia." B. F. Keith's Theatre The Biggest Show of the Season EVERY ACT A KNOCKOUT! "THE BRIDE SHOP"

With ANDREW TOMBES & CO. The California Boys' Band MAUD LAMBERT & ERNEST R. HALL Wilfred Clarke & Co.; Raymond & Caverley; Hertiert's Dogr. and Others. JULES VERNE'S THRILLING ROMANCE

FORREST Daily, 2:15-25c and 50s. Evgs., 8:15-25c to $1.00. LAST 5 DAYS RESERVED SEATS

Theatre Juniper atta VAUDEVILLE-Continuous 10c, 15c, 25c, 35c, 11 A. M. to 11 F. M. "SHOW GIRLS" REVUE "THE NIGHT CLERKS" AND OTHERS GLOBE MUSICAL COMEDY

WEEK CROSS KEYS MARKET BAILS OF THE ORIENT

BROADWAY Broad & Strytler Ave. "The Naughty Princess'

KNICKERBOCKER 40TH & MARKET Fills Wesk of "Stock" Company Mais. Tursday, Wednesday, Thursday, Sai

MISS CORRINE BISHOP Miss Bishop's engagement to Mr. James D. Sproul was announced yesterday.