

UNUSUAL NEWS HAPPENINGS THAT MAKE THIS A MEMORIAL DAY LONG TO BE REMEMBERED

SOCIETY GIRLS DEVOTE MORNINGS TO PRACTICAL FIRST-HAND NURSING
In the picture are the Misses Mary Coates, Anne Griffith, Esther Mulford, Elsie Hepburn, Helen Leonhardt and Holcomb, who are doing splendid work at the Barton dispensary of the Woman's Medical College under the direction of Dr. Leo Bernd, also shown.

Copyright International Film Service.
J. C. KENNEDY, A PHILADELPHIA RAILROAD MAN, ASSEMBLING HIS KIT AT THE FORT NIAGARA TRAINING CAMP

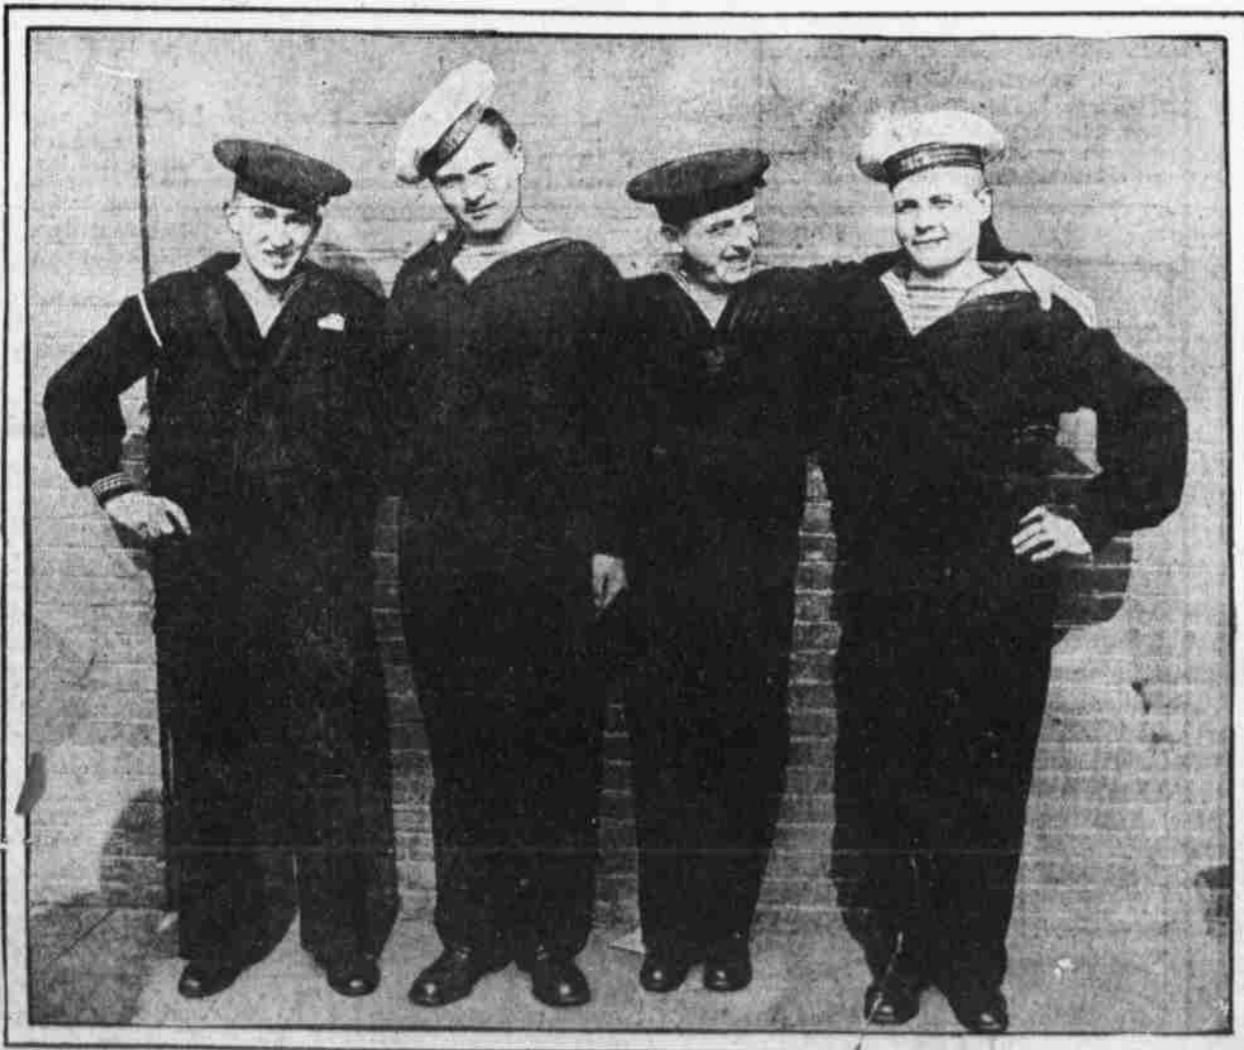

BROWN PREP'S MOST POPULAR ATHLETE
Harry K. Simpson, hurdler and member of the school's relay team, was thus voted by his fellow students.

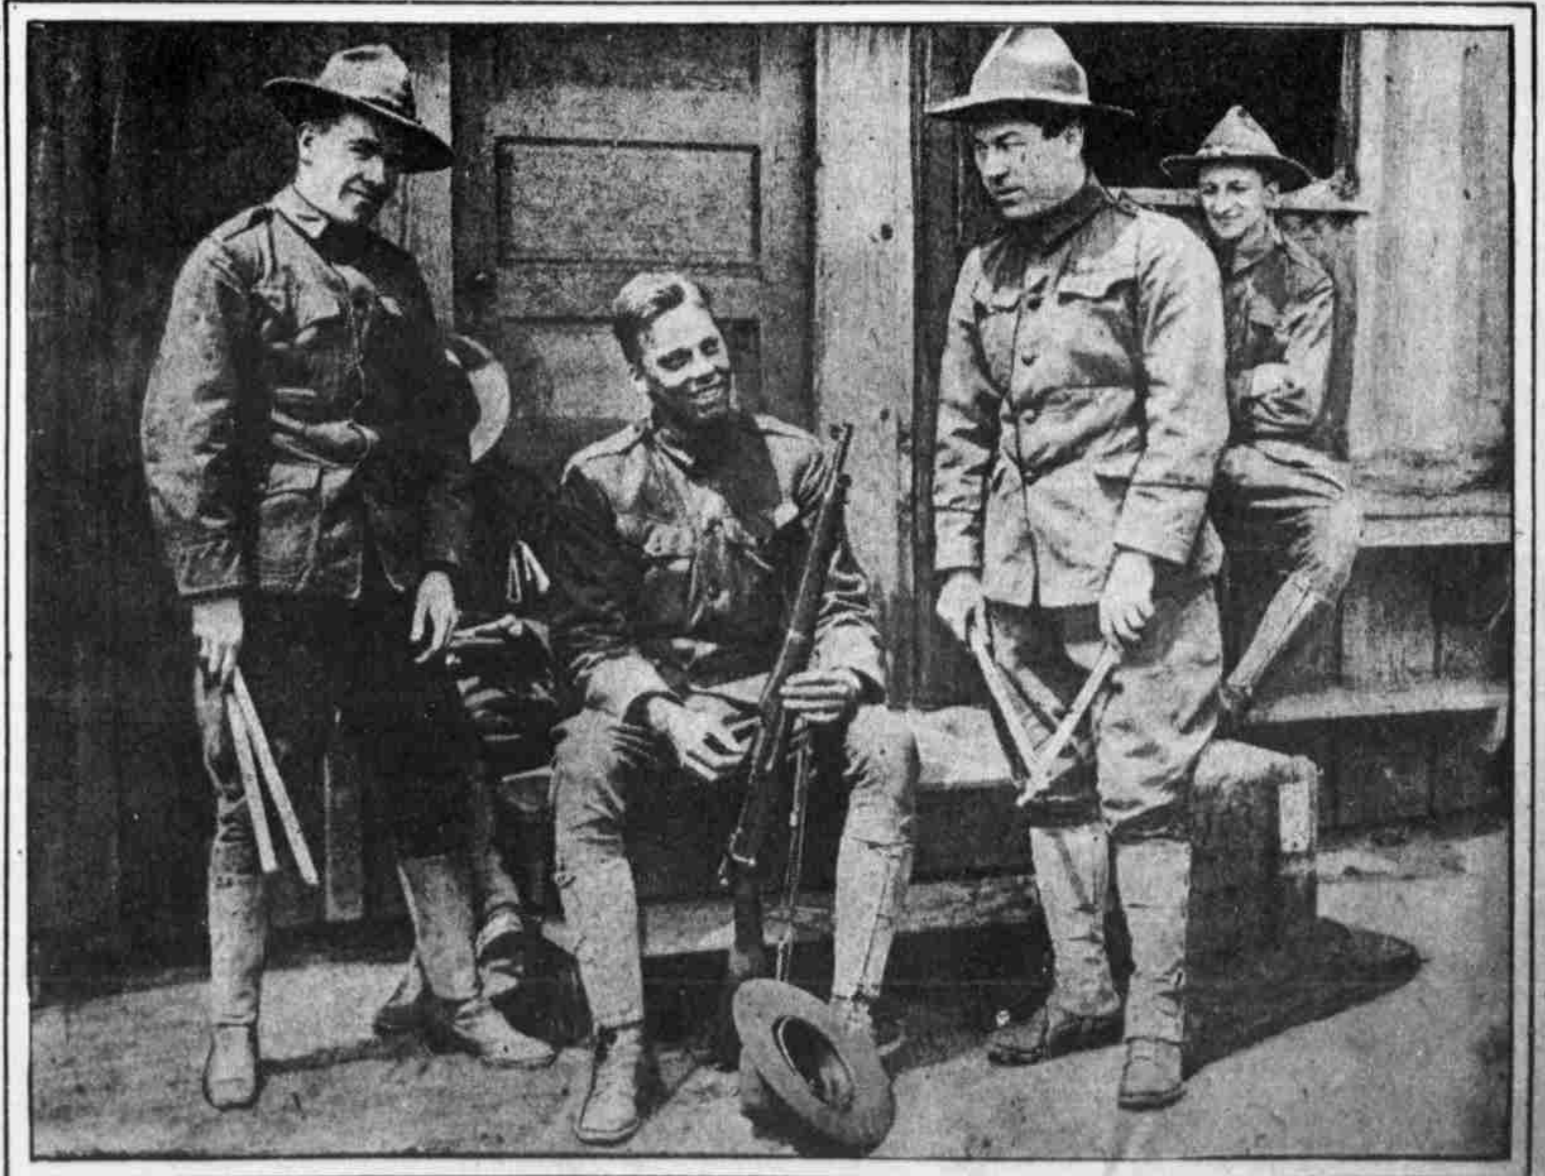

Copyright American Press Association.
ENTHUSIASTIC LADS PLANT POTOMAC PARK
This wagonload of Boy Scouts are cultivating the soil in the very shadow of the Capitol, and are proud of it.

ANNOUNCER BRAND APPEARS WITH A RED, WHITE AND BLUE MEGAPHONE AT SHIBE PARK

Copyright American Press Association.
RUSSIAN SAILORS GET WARM WELCOME IN NEW YORK
These sturdy Slavs arrived recently aboard a Russian battleship and immediately were taken in tow by American jacksies.

Copyright International Film Service.
DICK HARTE WITH SEVERAL HARVARD CHUMS AT PLATTSBURG
The sturdy Philadelphia athlete, son of Dr. Richard H. Harte, is shown to the left of James Reilly and to the right of H. W. Clark, also prominent Crimson athletes.