HONORING MEMORY OF SOLDIERS HAS SPECIAL SIGNIFICANCE TO WOMEN THIS YEAR

MEMORIAL DAY OR DECORATION DAY—WHICH IS IT TO YOU?

Real Significance of the Day Should Not Be Lost in the Nation's Present Crisis

IN TALKING of and planning for today, have you called it Memorial Day or simply Decoration Day? It always ms to me the name one gives it is significant of the meaning one attaches. Decoration Day, as it is commonly called, is looked forward to particularly by many working people for weeks shead, a faunt of some sort is planned. and keen is the disappointment if the day proves rainy and cold instead of bright and sunny-as lins, very fortunately, this one.

No one, unless he or she is tied down to an office day in and day out, can really appreciate a holiday.

KNEW a man who for the first forty years of his life played. His means permitted him to travel North in summer and South in winter or abroad, always following the track beaten out by other pleasure-seckers.

Holidays, bringing with them crowds of excursionists, always bored him. He couldn't understand the enjoyment people got out of herding together in that way.

Then, when he was well into the prime of life, he was obliged to earn his living And no child out of school was more keenly anticipatory of the first holiday which came to him!

the day should be spent out of doors; it accompanying a day off. war which has come upon us. But this name meant to its founders.

This little miss has decorated her hat apropos of the day! She has turned back her hat brim and caught it with a star and tacked two more stars on the ends of two red streamers. Needless to say, year, particularly, let every one-man woman and child-stop for a moment and consider the meaning underlying the

The word "decoration," although it was originally intended to signify the decoration of soldiers' graves, does not foreibly convey that idea. Rather, one But, to return to today's celebration, thinks of picnics, of sames, brans bands, excursions and all the other features is also natural that youth should not be Try this year to think a little of the deprived of all enjoyment because of the day as Memorial Day, with all that the

It Lemon juice applied with an orange wood

3. In keep hair light and fluffy add the juice of a lemon to the last rinse water when

Simple Wedding Breakfast

Start your breakfast with cold consomme,

As there are to be only twenty guests, I would seat them at one large table, or two if you have not the room at one. You will fed when ordering your croquettes and china and lines necessary for twenty sons for very little extra money. You Set the table with pretty sliver and glass and use white flowers. Have small dishes

Any two persons, other than the officiating priest and the contracting parties, may act as witnesses at a Roman Catholic wed

Members of the immediate families sit in the top pews of the church; members of the bride's family on the left side of the ainl

Care of Child's Hair danger of using another's brush o

of candies and salted nuts as organients edness for a man and a stick makes an effective nail bleach.

also add a wishbone for lucks.

shampooing.

Letters and questions submitted to this department must be written on one side of the paper only and signed with the name of the veiter. Special queries like those given below are invited. It is understood that the editor does not necessarily indoese the sentiment expressed. All communications for this department should be addressed as follows: THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE, Evening Ledger, Philadelphia, Pa.

TODAY'S INQUIRIES

1. Which kinds of flour do worms and weevils tack more quickly, white flour or graham and late or should a dinner he given at the time originally planned?

lines extending around the throat? ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S INQUIRIES hanging erooked.

2. Rub grease stains on the kitchen table

Pineapple Candies-Coddling Eggs

Editor of Woman's Page

Is this the recipe you desire? Pare and only faintly tinged.

Chicken Gumbo-Creole Stew

the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madaus—Do you know that every bit of the and and fish can be combined with cereals or sastables for making meet caken, meet or fish les and so on, and to add flavor and food value o made dishes?

Cat Scratches Wall Paper

Cat Scratches , Page:
Batter of Woman's Page:
Madam-We have an Angora cat. one half years old, that continually scratches licaper. I would be much obliged if you tell the how to break him of this half
tell the how to break him of this half

Cats take this way of keeping their nails marpened. If an upright piece of wood, not see hard, is provided in a conspicuous place s cat will form the habit of using it, arwise he will almost invariably deface wallpaper or the woodwork aurrounding ors. To break him of the habit you ght attach a strip of heavy olled paper the place he is in the habit of scratching.

To Clean Leather Chair

To see Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—I have a very handsome leather show which has become infested with small mile have probably owing to the fact that it has been standing in a damp room. Can you tell me how to get rid of these?
(Mrs.) JAMES L.

ensine or gusoline will kill these pests, a small spring bottom oiler and force fluid into every crack and crevice. The is should be closed out of doors during operation, as the liquid is inflammable. It possible to do this use an insect the stripes on the crown are red.

observance of this day.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

2. When sending a wedding invitation to 2. How can rups which curt up at the ends man whose engacement has been announced, should an invitation be extended to his finnee? 8. What can be substituted for an invalid 3. What is the most frequent cause of dark

1. When hanging a picture, suspend it first this face to the wall, then twist it around: of one dram cifring ointment, one dram oil of almonds, six drams spermaceti ointment. three draps after of roses. Best together is a deep crock, using a wooden or bone spoon.

3. After an eng has been hard boiled let cold water run over it for a minute; this will cause the egg to contract slightly and separate itself from the shell; thus the shell can be more easily

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Several days ago one of rour readers asked for recipes for making pineapois into candise. Here are two good wave Made a fondant in the ordinary way, then after cutting the pineapole into small pieces, roll earh piece into the cream. Pineapole can also be candised according to the recipe you have several days ago, then dipped into melical sittle chocolate and dried on waxed paper. This is delictors. Will you please publish in your column directions for coddling eggs?

the phieapple and also be called into the cream. Phieapple can also be called according to the recipe you gave several days are. then dipped into melted bitter checkella and dried on waxed paper. This is delicious. Will purpless publish to your column directions for sodding eggs?

To properly coddle eggs, first bring the water to a boil, then take it from the store, gently lay the eggs in and let them remain for ten or fifteen minutes. Eggs cooked in this way are much more digestible than cooked in any other way.

Start your breakfast with cold consomme, then says deviced crabs or chicken crocked crabs or chicken crocked under the have been and collected peas and nev potatoes. If you decide to have chicken requestes make your said course lobster or if crabs are to be water to a boil, then take it from the store with the vegstables, have chicken said. For desarct have fee cream and bridal cake in which little sourenits have the maxt one in the party to marry; a thimble, which the store are to be said ourse lobster or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be served with the vegstables, have chicken said ourse lobster, or if crabs are to be cole to have chicken the provided and all surface or content or collected crabs or chicken crocked are extremely injurious to the collection of the provided and all surface or chicken crocked are a physician's prescription.

Banana C.

Bake a sponge cake or a layers. Just before served the provided are surfaced bromides and all surfaced or content or collection crocked are surfaced by the collection of the provided are surfaced by the collection of the provided are surfaced by the collec

Recipe for Silver Pie

Dear Madam—Can you give the a recipe for alliver plot it is made. I think with picket shift with picket shift with of eggs, but I do not know the start in gradients.

grate one large raw white potato, add the fuice and grated rind of one large lemon. the stiffly beaten white of one egg, one teacupful of granulated sugar and one cupful of cold water. Stir well together and pour into a pastry-lined pie dish and bake in a self moderate oven until firm in the center. Heat the white of another egg until foamy, then beat in a tablespeonful of granulated sugar and a little lemon juice and rind until the mixture is stiff. Arrange in a wreath around the edge of the pic, then return the pic to the oven until the white is firm. Have the oven cool, so that the egg will be bride's family on the left side or the abuse and the bridegroom's on the right side. The parents and brothers and stators always sit in the front pew and the other relatives, according to their nearness of kin, in the Chicken Gumbo—Creole Stew

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—I am sending you two recipes, which I consider good:

Chicken sumbo—Save what is left over from the consider good in the sending econd, third and lower pews. A READER-Buy a package of fishberry gt the drug store. Directions for its use will be printed on the wrapper. It should be applied to the hair and allowed to remain overnight. Then in the morning brush and comb out, using a fine-tooth comb. After you have totally destroyed the nits shampoo the child's hair thoroughly and disinfect her brushes, combs and every other article which has come in contact with her Put new linings in her hats also. A little vaseline applied to the sore spots should hoal them. Warn your little girl against

Hints on Saving in Food

Invitations to the Firm ands debes?

and every spoonful of left-over gravy can set every spoonful of left-over gravy can be an according to the set of the s To the Editor of Woman's Page;
Dear Madam—I am to be married abortly and want to send invitations to members of the firm where I have been working up to the time of my marriage. Should separate invitations be sent to sach one or just a general invitation to the firm, or should I invite the wives of the men?
JOHN. A general invitation is never considere HOUSEKBEPER.

A general invitation is not a good plan to mix business and social life. As your wedding will be purely social. I would send individual invitations to each man and his wife, addressing them "Mr. and Mrs. John Jones." Ask Her Permission First

Ask Her Permission First.

To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—I met a girl at an evening party recently and I want very much to go call on her I know where she lives. Would it be all right for me to call there some evening without having asked if I may? I have only met her twice and I want to be sure to do the right thing, as she essemed such a very nike girl. I don't want to get in wrotts.

It would not be correct to call before asking the girl if you may. You can easily wait for an opportunity to see her again at some affair, or you may meet her in the street, and then you can ask her if you may call on her. may call on her.

Couple Entering Home

To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—An elder's couple having $500 such what is enter a home. Can and do these homes logally claim any insurance, lodge or other money upon the death of the couple at eak
E. R. F. home?

E.R. F.

Every home has its own rules regarding the disposition of the property of those who enter it. You can acquaint yourself with these facts at whatever home you apply for

THE GOOD HEALTH QUESTION BOX

By DR. JOHN HARVEY KELLOGG

THE best of all exercises is walking. Fa too little walking is done in America As a nation we are losing the use of our legs because of the electric cars, motor vehicles and the rapid transit ways of get ting about. The time and desire for long. daily walks are lacking. And yet walking. more than any other exercise, will give the body ease and grace, get oxygen into the lungs and put the zest of life into the very warp and woof of our beings.

There are certain principles to observe There are certain principles to observe in walking—one should not scramble or loaf along unevenly, but with a comfortable, regular stride, a correct holding of the body and good breathing walking steadily to a goal. Along the way note the landmarks, the people and points of interest, and keep the mind in cheerful channels. One can study better, sew and cook better and be more efficient and companionable when aireal walk like this in part of the daily program. daily program.

In the day's work of a man, whether it is professional, manual or business, drudgery and monotony are lightened if one walks strength into his brain and brawn; if his work calls for walking in the open air, he should be a happy mortal, only let him do his walking in the correct way. When it comes to selling a bill of goods, or putting through some business deal, it makes no difference whether the needs in it. makes no difference whether the profit to $1 or $1,000,000, a man can walk to it better than he can sit or motor to it. An indoor, nedentary life is not healthful nor can one acquire an erect carriage and a free gait without some persistent effort.

High Blood Pressure

Why is and not good for one who has high Sait causes contraction of the arteries. and this contraction of the arteries in-creases the blood pressure. The less sait a person takes the better if he was high bood pressure. All food contains salt enough to meet all the actual needs of the body. The amount of salt taken should be very small ndeed, if any is used.

Treatment to Restore Rigid Hand

What treatment will restore the use of a man almost losed position? The patient is a woman series year old in all lose of her band dur or sickness about a year ago. MRS. II. E. It will probably benefit her to soak the hand in very hot water two or three times a day and apply massage in hot water. It is probable, however, that the injury is per-

Buckwheat

Is there any objection to buckwheat as many H. No. Buckwheat is wholesome. It is not good a food as some of the other cereals but it is wholesome. There are a few people who find some inconvenience from the use of buckwheat. Whenever they use it they of buckwheat. Whenever they use it they are troubled with some burning and itching emptions of the skin, and it is objectionable on that account. Such persons are sensitized to buckwheat and should either avoid it altogether or should accustom themselves to its use by taking a small amount until a large amount may be used without inconvenience. Such cases are comparatively gare however.

paratively rare, however

Milk Diet Harmful is a milk diet ever harmful? T. U. S. Yes. It is sometimes very harmful. There are some people so sensitized to milk that they cannot take it in any form. It acts as a violent poison. Many persons who cannot take milk as a food can take it when used an an exclusive diet Bromides Harmful to Children Are bromides harmful to give to children? MRS. F. B.

To the Editor of Warran's Pract.
Dear Malam - What may be served, and how, at a plain but substantial weiding breakfast for wants persons.
At a Cathode wedding, can any two persons be withousen't be immediate relatives alt in the burear in the factor. Certainly. Unless you want your children to grow up and be weak minded, you should discard bromides and all such drugs. They are extremely injurious to the nervous system. They should never be used except on

Banana Cake

Bake a sponge cake or a plain cake in two before serving put f sliced bananas between and on top of the layers of cake. Cover the top thickly with whipped cream and serve at the table in wedge-shaped pieces.

Banana Whip

Press the pulp of three bananas through ricer, vegetable press or sleve; cook with ne-third a cup of sugar and a tablespoonfu ce until scalded; cool and flavor persons for very little extra money. You will realize this takes a great deal of trouble off your shoulders and in these days of terrific prices I doubt if you could do more cheaply by preparing the meal your with a few drops of vanilla or a little wine add also a few grains of sait; then beat gradually into a cup of double cream beaten olid with a Dover egg-beater. Set aside to become chilled, then serve piled high in small glasses with a sprinkling of fine chipped pistachio nuts on the top. Line the glasses before filling with slices of banans This makes a particularly good Charlotte russe filling.

Hot Cabinet Pudding With Bananas

Line a quart mold with well-buttered paper: sprinkle the paper with sugar, then paper; sprinkle the paper with sugar, then dispose slices of bananas and Sultana raisins on the bottom of the mold to form a simple design; cover with a layer of stale sponge cake cut in slices; then fill the mold loosely with alternate layers of bananas and raisins and slices of cake. Beat three eggs, add half a teaspoonful of soit, half a cup of sugar and one pint of cold milk and strain over the fruit and take in the mold. Bake nearly an hour cake in the moid. Bake nearly an hour, standing on several folds of paper, in hot water. Serve hot with a hot currant jelly or claret sauce.

Superfluous Hair Remover

Dr. Margaret Ruppert Philo., Fa. Suite 70-72-75. Est. 22 Jrs. Phone Walnut 7021

IN THE MOMENT'S MODES

A PRACTICAL DRESS

Natural-colored linen is the chosen material for this barrel-shaped frock, in which the skirt is cut in two portions and joined above the knee with rows of beige-stitching to make it bow out. The modest little collar and cuffs are of bandkerchief linen, while the girdle. which is rather loosely confining, is tied in a loop at the back.

The Oxen

Christmas eve, and twelve of the clock, "Now they are all on their knees. An elder said as we sat in a flock. By the embers in hearthside case.

We pictured the meek, mild creatures where They dwelt in their strawy pen, or did it occur to one of us there. To doubt they were kneeling then.

So fair a fancy few believe In these years! Yet, I feel. If some one said on Christmas eve. 'Come; see the oxen kneel

In the lonely barton by yonder coomb Our childhood used to know," should go with him in the gloom.

Hoping it might be so.

—Thomas Hardy

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB I like the early tuilight best

Against pale skies the street lights gleam. And everything looks delicate And wistful like a secret dream

The Butterfly and the Bee Methought I heard a butterfly Say to a laboring bee: Thou hast no colors of the sky On painted wings like me."

'Poor child of vanity; those dyes, And colors bright and rare."
With mild reproof, the bee replies.
"Are all beneath my care.

"Content I toll from morn till eve. And, scorning idleness.
To tribes of gaudy sloth I leave
The vanity of dress:

—William Liele Bowles.

Banana Fritters

One-half cup of flour, one-quarter cup of cold water, one egg beaten, a pinch of bak-ing powder, one-fourth teaspoonful of meited

- the voll, of the egg; add the water. hear the yoll, of the egg; add the water, and stir into the flour; add the salt, making powder and melted butter, then the white of egg whipped to a stiff froth. Put sliced bananas into this batter and fry. About three or four slices should be incorporated into each fritter. When done, dredge with nowdered sugar and serve hot. powdered sugar and serve hot.

The Violet

Down in a green and shady bed A modest violet grew: Its stalk was bent, it hung its head. As if to hide from view.

And yet it was a lovely flower. Its colors bright and fair; it might have graced a rosy bower, Instead of hiding there.

Yet there if was content to bloom, In modest tints arrayed; And there diffused a sweet perfume, Within the silent shade

This pretty flower to see; That I may also learn to grow In sweet humility. -Jane Taylor.

Banana Loaf Take a small loaf of sponge cake or angel food and cut a well in the center. Fill with sliced bananas and heap with whipped flavor, try

MERIDALE BUTTER

Its delicate flavor is always the same all the year around and is never obscured by heavy salting.

Be sure it comes to you in our own Merifoil wrapper, which insures purity, quality and quantity. Avoid butter with a wet wrapper. Water is dear at butter

prices. AYER & McKINNEY (Makers of Philadelphia Bell Phone, Market 3741 Keystone Phone, Main 1783 Look for the "Merifoil" wrapper-air-tight, dust- and odor-proof-at your grocers.

LIVING UP TO BILLY

By ELIZABETH COOPER

This powerful, human document, written in the form of letters to a young mother serving a term in prison, is one of the most gripping literary products of the twentieth century.

III Dear Rate:

books. The moment I opened the door I good enough for me " knew who she was and I took her in my ing too hard, and had caught cold and that if she was took home where she had the bars. right kind of things to eat and real nursing, not just us girls going in when we had ing, not just us girls going in when we had
I would die without ever touching his hand ing, not just us girls going in when we had the time, that she would soon get all right. The mother could hardly wait until I had finished, and she sort of trembled all over. When I took her into Jenny's room Jenny was laying with her eyes shut, not asleep, but just like she lays most of the time, and she looked so white and little and her lashes were so black against her white face, that I could see it went right into that mother's heart. She went up to the bed and put her heart. She went up to the bed and put her sleeps with me, and do you know, at night on the morris chair, cause Jenny's mother sleeps with me, and do you know, at night she would die without ever touching his hand rather than ever let him see me in stripes. He will be five years old when you get cut. Kate, and he grows cunninger each day. He don't look a bit like Jim, has got our curly readish hair, and his eyes are blue like yours instead of brown like mine. I suppose I orter have his hair cut, as it is so thick and curly, but I can't bear to, as it is the only thing he has of mine, and I like to look at it and feel he is a little bit like me. I make him up a bed at night on the morris chair, cause Jenny's mother heart. heart. She went up to the bed and put her arms around Jenny, and her face against here, and said. "My little girl, mother's own little girl," and then I left, 'cause I am kinda soft, and I could see it was the hose cart for me. In about half an hour I went in to see if they was hungry, and Jenny in to see if they was hungry, and Jenny in the see if they was hungry, and Jenny in to see if they was hungry, and Jenny in the see if they was hungry, and Jenny in the see if they was hungry, and Jenny in the mor is chair, cause Jenny's mother seems that me. I make him up a bed at night when the morris chair, cause Jenny's mother seems that he morris chair, cause Jenny's mother she had and go you know, at night when she is sound asleep if she hears Jenny cough, she raises up and listens. And if it don't stop right away she slips out of bed and goes into her room. I tell you. I am so you to steal one for me. Yours, in to see if they was hungry, and Jenny was laying there with her mother's hand in hers looking as if she had found peace. I just wanted to put my arms around that little old-fashloned woman and cry. You know, style don't seem to count when it is your mother. The old lady is going to stay until Jenny is better, then they are going home, and I hope we will never see Jenny again. Being a chorus giri ain't her place. She belongs in a little town playing the church organ.

But say, you would laugh to see the old lady. She don't fit in a rooming house in Twenty-eighth street. She has a nice, sweet. I wenty-eighth street. She has a nice, sweet, old face and she combs her hair back from it, parted in the middle, and she smiles at all of us in a loving way, cause she thinks we have been good to Jenny. And the girls! It is funny to see them when they first blow into the room and run into her. They look as if they saw a ghost, and then they set back quiet, and let her talk. She tells them all about Iowa or wherever it is she is from, and about Jenny when she was a little girl, and her father and her two brothers, and how sorry they were when Jenny come to New York to study music, but they didn't want to stand in her way. All the girls come in whenever they have a chance and bring Jenny some little thing from the delicatessen or some plants or from the delicatessen or some plants or flowers. Her room is awful pretty, cause they keep it just filled with flowers. Mary Callahan took the mother out the other afternoon to a moving picture show. She didn't want to leave Jenny, but we told her she must get out a little or she would get sick, too. Mary said that every one stared at her sand some of the crowd at the corner were going to guy her, but she gave them one look and they said nothing. I stayed with Jenny and she talked about her mother all the time that she was gone and about with Jenny and she talked about her mother all the time that she was gone and about the home and the little berg where she comes from. She is crazy to get back, cause I think she knows it won't be for long, and she wants to pass in her checks with the folks around her. She said to me, "Oh, Nan, I have had my lesson, and it has cost me dear, but I won't kick, as I wouldn't have been satisfied till I had tried it." But I thought, if all the preachers could bring up a few girls who think they want to try the Great White Way, and let them take I told you, didn't I, of sending for Jenny a good look at Jenny, it would be better Kerns's mother. Well, she come and she than all their sermons. Any girl with half was just the kind you read about in story a brain would say. "Oh, little Oskaloosa is

No. I won't bring Billy up to see you, room and had her take her hat off and Kate. He is big enough to remember things, smooth her hair and tried to make it easy and I don't want him to know what a prison about Jenny. I told her she had been work- is, and his first remembrance of his mother must not be that he saw her behind the

(CONTINUED TOMORROW) (Copyright, All rights reserved.)

CLEARANCE EXTRAORDINARY

ENTIRE LATE SPRING AND EARLY SUMMER COLLECTION Gowns, now $25 to $65 Formerly from $45 to $125. Suits, now $25 to $55

Formerly from $45 to $100.

Coats, now $25 to $50 Formerly from $45 to $90. Skirts, now $5.50 Formerly $10.50.

ALL HATS GREATLY REDUCED

=1422 Walnut Street=

Final Spring Reductions

One-piece Dresses Coat Suits - Top Coats Millinery

Our regular stock reduced for clearance.

RLAYLOCK & BLYNN, Inc. 1528 Chestnut St. Furs Stored, Altered and Repaired

> MEELEY 2012 Walnut Street

CLEARANCE SALE

Commencing Monday and Days Following Afternoon and Evening

GOWNS

Linen Dresses - Suits Sale Price $45 to $125 FORMERLY $135 TO $250

Children's Department Discontinued-Closing Out Entire Stock at 1/4 Price