

HORNET, THE DASHING BLUE-RIBBON WINNER EXHIBITED BY THE BLACK OAK FARM, WINS JUVENILE HEARTS AT THE DEVON SHOW

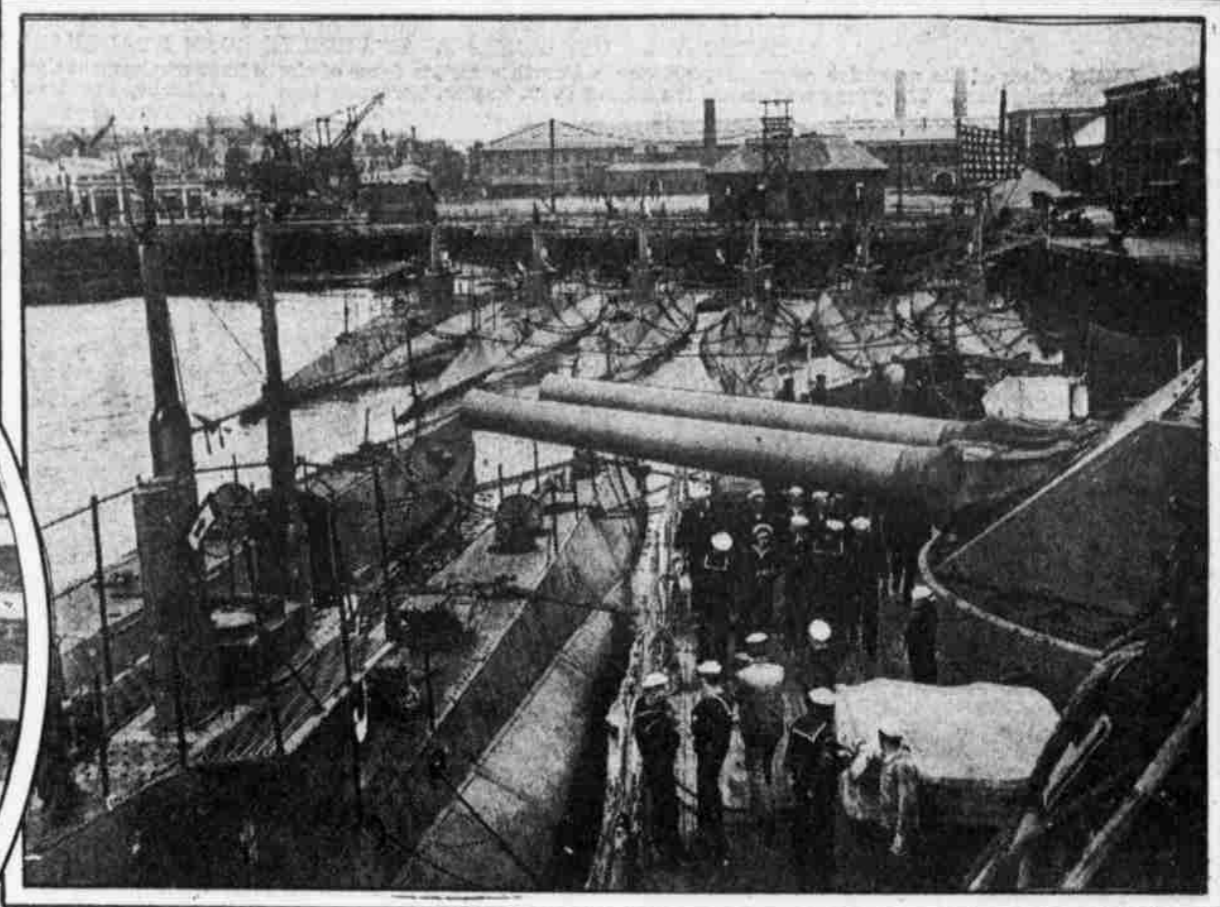

JUDGE MOORE AND LITTLE MISS MARY ELIZABETH ALTEMUS DRIVING LORD SETON AND MATHIAS PIKEMUP AT DEVON

LOOKOUT AND BECKY, OWNED BY CHARLES D. LANIER, PASSING THE JUDGES' STAND AT THE DEVON SHOW

MRS. SAMUEL D. RIDDLE AND MISS KITTY PENN SMITH ENJOY A LITTLE CHAT BETWEEN EVENTS OF THE DEVON HORSE SHOW

A MOTHER SEADOG GUARDING HER PUPPIES
This interesting photograph was taken within the Charlestown Navy Yard, where the United States submarine tender Tonopah lies at anchor with her undersea charges, comprising submarine fleet No. 8, of the North Atlantic fleet.

GENERAL VIEW AT THE DEVON HORSE SHOW, SHOWING THE TRACK AND THE JUDGES' STAND

THE TEMPLE UNIVERSITY AMBULANCE UNIT RUNS THROUGH THE SETTING-UP EXERCISES BEFORE DEPARTING FOR ALLENTOWN, WHERE IT WILL UNDERGO MOBILIZATION BEFORE DEPARTING FOR FRANCE

JOHN J. CARTY, TELEPHONE ENGINEER, WHO WILL COMMAND THE CONTINGENT OF TELEPHONE MEN ACCOMPANYING THE FIRST AMERICAN ARMY TO FRANCE