HOME GUARDS MAY GO ON ACTIVE DUTY

Defense Reserves Likely to Supplant Soldiers in Protecting Bridges and Factories

ENLISTMENTS ARE BRISK

The clubmen, city officials, manufacturers and other voters forming the Philadelphia fforms Defense Reserve Corps are likely to succeed the National Guard as defenders of the city's bridges and munition plants when the guardsmen now serving as such are mobilized July 18.

This was the general view at City Hall

This was the general view at City Hall today when it was announced that the first units of the corps would be called out this week. Although there is a bill in the Legislature providing for the creation of a provisional militia to step into the shoes of the regulars, it is considered certain that the civilian volunteer corps will see active seatry duty within the city limits.

WORK FOR HOME GUARDS George Wentworth Carr, commander the home defense reserve, said today that the first units of the organization would be called out this week for company drill and Instruction as a preliminary to their conervice. Of the 8000 applicants, 5500 have been accepted in examinations made by

'Although the organization was started with the idea of meeting occasional emer-gencies," and Mr. Carr, "I believe that every man on the rolls today will do his full duty at the call of the Mayor, whether it is to guard bridges and munition plants or to prevent rioting or any other trouble during the course of the war. Our men are being chosen with a view to having an efficient force on hand to guard the city at all times.
There is now in Harrisburg a bill authorisling a provisional National Guard which could include the military organizations now in existence, such as the State Feuclibies Our organization is merely to care for the needs of Philadelphia. The members are not to be taken out of the city, no matter what duty they are called upon to perform after the last of the regular National (luard is taken away."

DISCHARGED FOR ENLISTING A dozen members of the naval coast de fense reserve, who have not been called into service, complained at the recruiting station in the Mayor's office today that they had been discharged by their employers because of their enlistment.

Recruiting officers were emphatic in their denunciation of employers who discharge men because they enrolled. These young men, they said, would be without work until they are called to duty. Of the 4400 men who have been enlisted in the fourth navai district, only 1100 so far have been called. About 1500 more will be sent to the Cape May training station when it is ready within several weeks. several weeks. following enlistments were an The

HOW TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ON REGISTRATION CARDS!

Read Carefully Before You Go to the Registration Table—Here You See What Will Be Asked-Study the Questions-Prepare the Answers in Your Mind

Questions will be asked for you to answer in the order in which they appear here. These questions are set out below with detailed information to help you answer them.

All answers will be written on the registration card in ink by the registrar, who should be careful to spell all names correctly and to write legibly.

Name in full. Age in years,—

This means all your names spelled out in full.

State your age today in years only. Disregard additional months or days. Be prepared to say "19," or "25," not "19 years 3 months," or the like.

Home address.

This means the place where you have your perma nent home, not the place where you work. Be pre-pared to give the address in this way: "232 Main street, Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania"; that is, give number and name of street first, then county and State.

3. Date of birth.

Write your birthday (month, day and year) on a piece of paper before going to the registrar, and give the paper to him the first thing. Example: "August 5, 1894."

If you do not remember the year, start to answer you would if some one asked you your birthday "August 5th." Then say, "On my birthday this people do not carry in mind the year they were born. This may be obtained by the registrar by substructing the age in years on this year's birthday from 1917.

f. Are you (1) a natural-born citizen; (2) a naturalized citizen; (3) an allen; (4) or have you de-clared your intention to become a citizen (specify which)?

(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a natural-born citizen, no matter what may have been the citizencitizen, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents. If you were born in Porto Rico, you are a citizen of the United States, unless you were born of alien purentage. If you were born abroad, you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(2) You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen (that is, if you have only "taken out first papers"); in the latter case you are only a "declarant."

You are also a naturalized citizen if, although foreign born, your father or surviving parent became fully naturalized while you were under twenty-one years of age, and if you came to the United States under twenty-one.

(4) You are a declarant if, although a citizen or subject of some foreign country, you have declared on oath before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. Receipt from the clerk of the court of the certified copy of such declaration is often called "taking out first papers." You are not a declarant if your first paper was taken out after September 26, 1906, and is more than seven

(4) You are an alien if you do not fall within one of the three classes above mentioned.

5. Where were you born?

And if you Hindenburg's manner was a shade too abrupt in consideration of the fact that the young men were gathered together in the corridor of the second floor of City Hall for the purpose of offering—yoluntarily or otherwise—their lives and livelihoods for their country, it might be argued for him that the preservation of law and order was never more necessary than in this day of militant pacifism.

But everything ran smoothly at this businest-of-all registration bureaus. Young men came and went with the regularity of clock work and if it hadn't been for the serious expressions on their countenances they might have been mistaken for early applicants for world series tickets.

Charges of Smuggling Chronometers From Interned Raiders Under Federal Investigation

Presentation to the Federal Grand Jury of evidence on which to base an indictment of Adalbert K. Fischer, president of Schutte & Koerting Machine Company; his wife, Mrs. Helene K. Fischer, and Henry Rohner, president of the Henry Rohner Company, wholesale grocers and importers, for the alleged smuggling of chronometers from two interned German raiders at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, was begun today by District Attorney Francis Fisher Kane. The alleged offense was committed last February while the Kronprinz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich were interned at the Navy Yard.

here this afternoon.

A petition in bankruptcy against the Emerson Company was filed earlier in the Investigation of the company's affairs as been under way for several weeks.

The four corporations indicted are: The Emerson Motorcar Company, Inc.; R. Berry & Co., Robert P. Matches & Co., H. B. Humphreys & Co.
