ANOTHER IDEA

My Dear Little Helpers-I have another

idea which will make THE RAINBOWS known all over the world. We must form and Giris, who, during the summer, will do double duty if possible. That is, they are to find out (by asking grown-ups) the names and addresses of the wives and chil-dren of soldiers and solliers and see if these wives and children NEED ANY HELP. You, my dear boy, can chop a little wood. You, sizer, can "mind the baby." Will you try to do this?

Write and tell me NOWI . Your loving editor, FARMER SMITH.

THE FLY PAPER

By Farmer Smith

"I knew it would happen!" exclaimed

Mrs. Bumpus, as she stood over the table looking at her dear hushand-her HERO---who was stuck in the fly paper.

"To think you have been in the army and gone through part of the war only to come home and get all stuck up like that!" Mrs. Bumpus began to cry. "Please don't spill any of your teaps on this paper—that will only make it worse," said Billy, trying to turn his head and at the same time pulling his whisters so that it made him say, "OliCH!"

Just at that moment there was a knock at the door and when MDw. Humpus-opened it, there stood Jonathan Goat. There was

"You see how brave my Billy is," began

Mrs. Bumpus. 'No matter what happens, he is always ready. He has been telling me how he saved the maps for the general in the army-after the general himself had fied."

"How was that?" asked Jonathan, very uch interested to think Billy had saved

"He ate them !" answered Mrs. Bumpus

"He ate them !" answered Mrs. Bumpus proudly. "Of all things !" exclaimed Jonathan. "Init's he wonderful?" asked Mrs. Bumpus. "Indeed he is," replied the visitor. "But I have come to ask you both to attend a flag raining which is to take place tonight--we are going to have it tonight, before the celebration in honor of Billy. BELL TELEPHONE OPERATING

The President of the United States has pointed to the screat industrial army of the nation and to the necessity for a generous, unselfsh observance of doily on the part of those who may best serve in that army.

The telephone system of the country is to play a completions part in the conduct of the war.

Bell Telephone operating presents it-self as a vocation for young women wherein a no less patriotic than valu-able service to the Government may be performed.

If you are between the ages of 15 and 24, apply at 405 Market st., Philadel-phin, any day, except Hunday, between 8.30 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Now employes are paid while learning and are nashened to offices near their homms. The work is interesting, the en-vironment incet agreeable and efficiency is rewarded by ready advancement.
