

ALL PHILADELPHIA STIRRED BY PATRIOTIC RESPONSE OF ITS MANY YOUNG MEN ON REGISTRATION DAY

MIGHTY BRIGADE OF VOLUNTARY LIBERTY BOND SALESMEN MARCH IN IMPRESSIVE STREET PARADE AS A DEMONSTRATION OF PHILADELPHIA'S SPIRIT OF LOYALTY TO THE NATION
More than 3000 of these patriots—trained bond men, members of business organizations and other business men—gathered at old Independence Square this morning to take part in the procession that was calculated to arouse the Liberty Bond slackers to action.

MARINES FROM THE NAVY YARD CONTRIBUTE THEIR BIT TO THE PATRIOTIC LIBERTY LOAN PARADE

THE SPIRIT OF '61 STILL LIVES ON
Civil War veterans on guard before polling place at Eighth and Huntingdon streets. Left to right, J. H. Myers, G. A. R. Post, No. 51; Lawson Palmer, Post 35; J. J. Wood, Post 31.

ON HAND AT 6 O'CLOCK
Joseph A. Case was the first man to sign up in the Twenty-third Division of the Forty-sixth Ward.

SAILORS IN THEIR SMART UNIFORMS ENLIVEN LIBERTY BOND PROCESSION

FIRST TO REGISTER AND PROUD OF IT
Harry McShane, of 506 South Front street, holds this distinction in the First Division of the Fifth Ward.