

SEARCH FOR SLACKERS BEING MADE IN CAMDEN

Several Men Who Failed to Register Are Under Investigation by Police

POLICE CHECK UP LISTS

County Enrollment Totals 16,268, While 11,299 City Boys Got Blue Cards

A rigid search for slackers who failed to register is being made in Camden today. It is known that several men failed to comply with the law, but it is thought that most instances these were out-of-town cases, and that the cards have been mailed in, but were failed to arrive in time. Each case is being investigated.

Remarks passed about registration resulted in two men being sentenced to twenty days in jail by Recorder Stucky today. The prisoners are Thomas Neary, of Colwyn, Pa., and Bertram Nid-Near. According to the police, both men had been drinking. They were near the ferry and when questioned by Special Police Garrison, are said to have replied: "We'd like to see any one look us up for failing to register."

Camden's preparedness for draft registration was demonstrated thoroughly and there was a gratifying response, the enrollment being heavy in all the wards. No complaint was reported at any point. The drilling of whistles and the tolling of church bells at 7 o'clock in the morning summoned the eligible young men to the polling places. Waiting lines of them were on hand when the polling places were opened.

Four bands were engaged by the Enrollment Day Celebration Committee and they turned out in the afternoon and played patriotic airs, directing public attention to the day of registration. One of the encouraging phases of the day was the manner in which the alien population came out and registered. The Seventh, Thirteenth and Fifth Wards contain the largest alien population in the city. In these wards the work proceeded slowly, because it had to be done through interpreters and additional clerks had to be secured. The work of enrollment of these individuals took up at least five minutes.

In Camden County 16,268 men within the ages of the selective draft registered yesterday, of whom 11,299 were enrolled in the city of Camden. Following are the returns:

REGISTRATION IN STATE WINS ANDREWS' PRAISE

Public Safety Committee's Military Service Director Says Showing Is Gratifying

Regarding the record made by the young manhood of Pennsylvania in registering for military service yesterday, General Avery E. Andrews, Director of Military Service, officially chosen by the State Committee of Public Safety, made this statement today at his office in the Land Title Building:

"It is highly gratifying to see from the records made yesterday that throughout the State Pennsylvania is maintaining its leadership in patriotic service. As to enrollments in the regular army since the war call, there have been more in Pennsylvania than in any other State, irrespective of population. This record is borne out by the registration figures to date, which show a clear leadership in pro rata number of men actually enrolled."

"I attribute this in large degree to the earnest work of the seventy-odd local subcommittees of the Committee of Public Safety, which in many counties made a thorough house-to-house canvass to reach every young man subject to registration. The newspapers are also entitled to full recognition for the increasing energy with which they have given their time and space to the call. Another influence well worth mention is the way the Boy Scouts 'got busy' yesterday and worked like beavers in all parts of the State, patrolling with flags, distributing circulars and acting as messengers for various committees. This work was organized with great skill, and in other respects the work of the subcommittees speaks for itself."

"Having done its bit, the Committee of Public Safety, of course, must now leave in the hands of the military authorities. They have absolute power, under Congress, if chose the necessary men and get them ready. We shall be prepared to meet any emergency that may arise and require attention within the State borders, acting of course under the command of the Government."

PENNSYLVANIA TOTAL ENROLLMENT EXPECTED TO TOP MILLION MARK

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 6.—Unofficial returns from all sections of Pennsylvania indicate a registration yesterday of astonishing proportions. The Government's estimated registration for Pennsylvania was 879,378. Indications are that the total will top a million, at least last year did not quite reach 1,300,000. Registration of aliens, including the big boost came from the unexpected number of men well up toward the maximum registration ago for one reason and another have not been registering and waiting year by year.

Frankford Sewer Contract Let Director Datsman, of the Department of Public Works, today awarded a contract to P. Joseph McHugh for constructing a sewer from Frankford Creek between Richmond and Frankford, a distance of 3700 feet. The contract price is $184,000.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS TO GUARD BRAZIL COAST

Vote of Deputies to Congratulate U. S. Congress Reveals Presence of Squadron

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 5.—The Chamber of Deputies voted on the motion of Deputy Mauricio Lacerda, to authorize the cableing of a message of congratulation to the Congress of the United States on the arrival of an American squadron. Deputy Henrique Coelho Netto delivered an address of welcome to the American squadron. He proposed that as an unusual mark of honor to the free American people in their struggle in the defense of the right there be appointed a commission of twenty-one Deputies to visit the squadron and that the commission include distinguished representatives of the military. Deputy Souza Silva objected to this proposal, suggesting that the representation of the chamber be limited to its marine and war committees. It was decided to send the message of congratulation, leaving aside the nomination of a special commission. Warm praise is accorded by the entire press to the note in which Nilo Peçanha, the Foreign Minister, has notified the foreign legations of the promulgation of the decree revoking the neutrality declaration of Brazil in the war between the United States and Germany. It is reported that Germany has made a protest against the utilization of German merchant ships by Brazil.

STATE BANKERS TO SIT AT BEDFORD SPRINGS

Philadelphia Will Be Largely Represented at Convention Opening There Tomorrow

Philadelphia will be largely represented at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association which opens in Bedford Springs, Pa., tomorrow and which will be continued on Friday. Chief consideration will be given by those attending the convention, which is the twenty-third of the association, to the necessities of the government and nation brought about by the war. The delegation left Broad street station at 10:25 this morning, some thirty-five or more representatives of Philadelphia institutions and those which are located in the immediate vicinity of this city being represented. The train is scheduled to arrive at its destination about 5 o'clock this afternoon. Work in pushing the Liberty Loan will keep a number of Philadelphia bankers at home. Those who have already signified their intention of going include William A. Law, president of the First National Bank; Harry J. Inas, vice president of the same institution; Charles S. Caldwell, president of the Corn Exchange National Bank; Joseph Wayne, Jr., president of the Girard National Bank; John H. Mason, vice president of the Commercial Trust Company; E. P. Farnmore, vice president of the First National Bank; E. E. Shields, assistant cashier of the same bank; William Y. Conrad, cashier of the Central National Bank; Charles M. Prince, assistant cashier of the Bank of North America; John C. Knox, cashier of the National Bank of Germantown; Edward Stotesbury Lewis, cashier of the Farmers and Mechanics' National Bank; C. F. Shaw, Jr., assistant cashier of the Fourth Street National Bank; L. Howard Wolfe, assistant cashier of the Philadelphia National Bank; Arthur V. Morton, vice president of the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities; W. W. Allen, Jr., president of the Philadelphia Chapter, American Institute of Banking; and Stanley Krebs, president of the Institute of Mercantile Art of Philadelphia.

The convention will be called to order tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock by J. W. B. Bausman, president of the association, and who is also president of the Farmers' Trust Company of Lancaster. Thomas J. Baird, President Judge of the Twenty-fourth Judicial District, will deliver the address of welcome, which will be responded to by Lawrence E. Sands, president of the First-Second National Bank of Pittsburgh. After President Bausman has made his address D. S. Kloss, of Tyrone, who is secretary of the association, will read his annual report. Reports of the various committees and the discussion of other business, with addresses by P. W. Goebel, president of the American Bankers' Association, and Stanley Krebs, president of the Institute of Mercantile Art, of Philadelphia, and an address by John Greiner, Jr., of the Lackawanna Trust Company, will bring the opening session to a close. On Friday morning E. G. McWilliam, president of the American Institute of Banking, will address the convention. W. W. Allen, Jr., will also make an address, as will Donald A. Mullen, of the Colonial Trust Company of Pittsburgh; John H. Nagle, of the Fulton National Bank, of Lancaster, and William A. Law, president of the First National Bank of Philadelphia. Mr. Law will have for his subject "The Liberty Loan." The election of officers, the selection of the place of the next annual convention and the installation of the officers will bring the convention to a close. Pitman Patriotic Fete Postponed PITMAN, N. J., June 6.—In order that Governor Edge may attend, the patriotic and military demonstration for all of Gloucester County and other sections of South Jersey, planned here at Alceon Park for June 16, has been postponed until June 23.

Where's Your Button?

Don't tell me you haven't bought a Liberty Bond! Aren't you willing to lend your Government a hundred dollars or two in this great crisis? Come, man, have you no patriotism—no loyalty? Does liberty mean nothing to you? Do you want your family to share the fate of Belgium's women and children? Would you welcome the German 'kulturist' and tax-collector? And pride—have you none? Don't you know that this Liberty Loan button is America's badge of honor and fairness today—that without one pinned to your coat you appear to every passer-by as a dodger and a slacker in whom there is no spark of manhood? Don't put off investing in the loan; the nation's peril is great! And don't think that you've done your duty if you subscribe only half the amount you can afford!

To win, we must strike quickly. Money is our greatest need. Buy a bond, old man, and buy it now!

You can buy your bond, easily and quickly, for cash or on instalments, from any Bank, Banker, Life Insurance or Trust Company. Or ask your employer how you can subscribe your share, paying a little down and a little every week.

The Comfort and Convenience of the Franklin Sedan make it the Practical All-Season Car.

A RIDE in the Franklin Sedan demonstrates why Franklin owners drive this type of car throughout the summer. It's the experience of a new comfort; of an unexpected convenience. The "ifs" that keep open-car touring a gamble, as far as pleasure is concerned, have no place in the Franklin Sedan owner's mind. Even "if" there is dust and dirt, rain or sun glare (which you know, are not unusual) you are unconcerned, inside the Franklin Sedan. Records (owners' records—not special factory tests) show a Franklin Sedan travels on an average of 18 to 20 miles on a gallon of gasoline, and a set of tires goes 10,000 miles. If you're looking for a car that will serve your every-day purpose—business or pleasure—regardless of season, be sure to examine our Franklin Sedan. We have one on our floor at present.
