

A PAGE OF PICTURES ASSEMBLED FROM THE VARIED HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED IN THE NEWS

IT'S PREPAREDNESS LIKE THIS THAT MAKES EASY THE TRANSITION FROM CIVILIAN TO SOLDIER
A volunteer brigade from Stenton avenue, Germantown, whose one ideal is to some day shoulder arms for Uncle Sam.

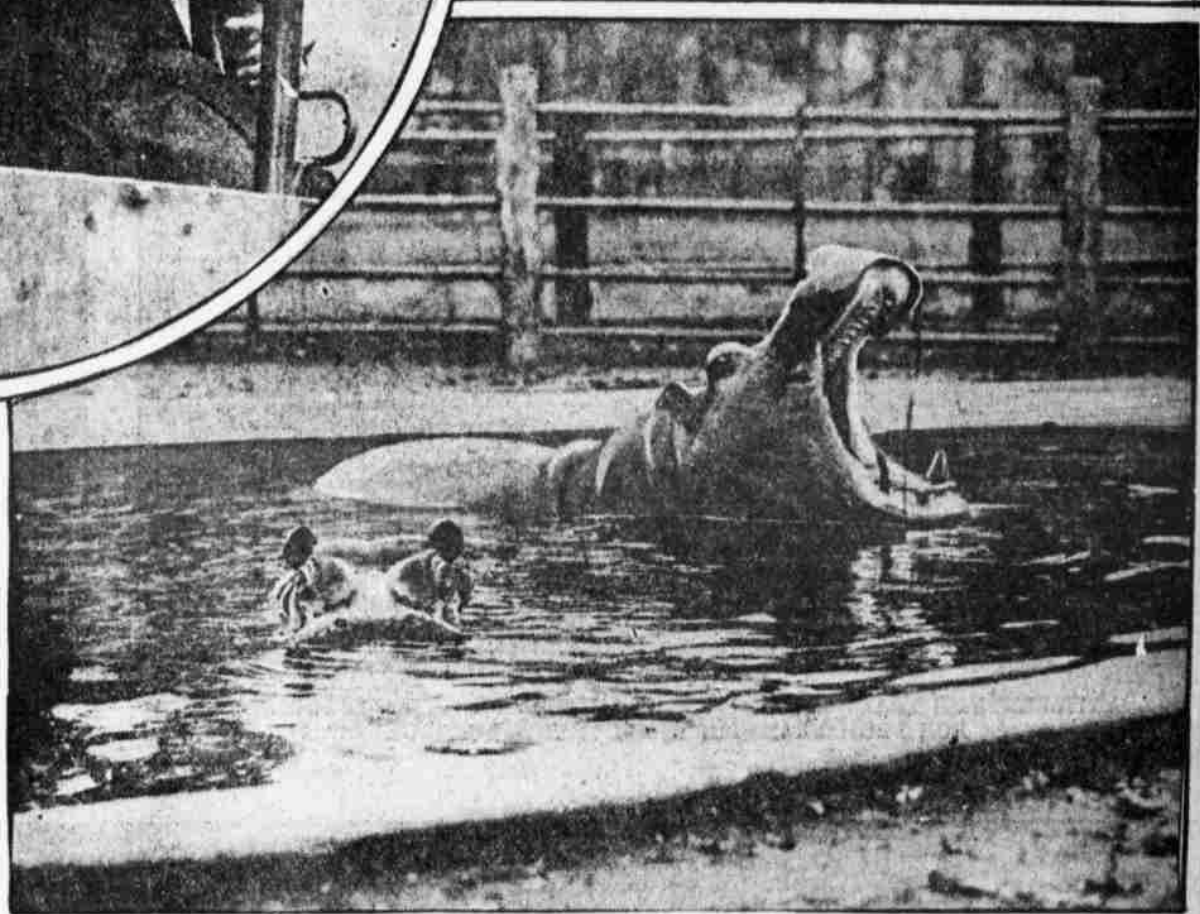

Copyright, International Film Service.
PRIEST AND PRISONER COMRADES IN EMERGENCY
Teddy Webb, Chicago's notorious auto bandit, and Father Peter C. Crumbley, chaplain of Joliet prison, who worked side by side to quell last Tuesday's riot in which several buildings were burned and one convict killed.

A. M. A. TEAM OF THE P. R. R. GENERAL OFFICE LEAGUE

Top row, left to right, Boyd, Matthews, Tuckerman, Pierson, Thomas, Manager Rodin. Middle row, Reilly, Cashman, Captain Haggbresty, Dannehower, Earl. Bottom row, Link, O'Donnell, James.

MR. AND MRS. HIPPO ARE AMONG THE MOST ENTHUSIASTIC BATHERS AT THE ZOO
The head of the family was photographed in the very act of voicing his delight with the aquatic sport.

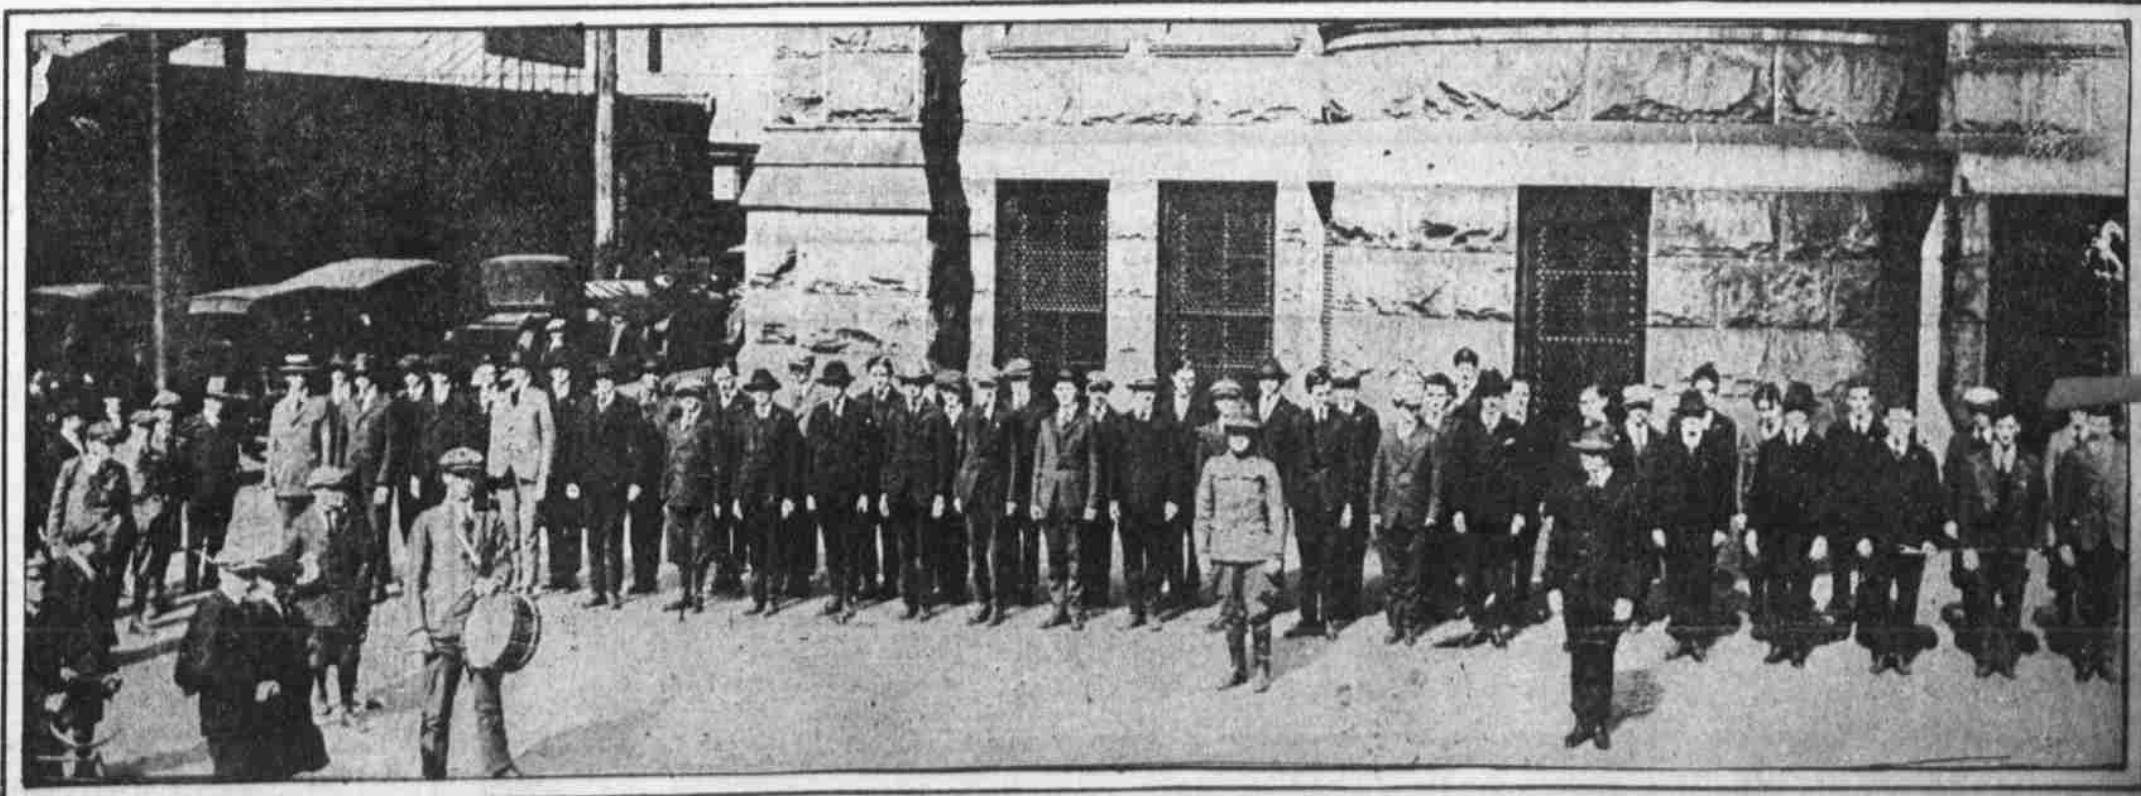

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
WAR FASHIONS INVADE AMERICAN PLANTS
Serviceable, unadorned overalls is the working costume being worn by employes of the Scott & Bowne Company, Bloomfield, N. Y.

NEW YORK GIRLS TRAIN TO REPLACE MALE MOTOR-TRUCK DRIVERS SUBJECT TO DRAFT

MISS GRACE ALLISON, HEADING THE CORPS OF AMERICAN NURSES WHO HAVE JUST ARRIVED IN ENGLAND ON THEIR WAY TO THE FRONT

STUDENTS OF THE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, AROUSED BY THEIR COUNTRY'S NEED, DRILL TO PERFECT THEMSELVES IN THE RUDIMENTS OF MILITARY REQUIREMENTS, SO THAT WHEN THEIR TIME COMES THEY MAY SERVE WITH DISTINCTION