

ALWAYS FAITHFUL, ALWAYS READY, ALWAYS VICTORIOUS—THE U. S. MARINE CORPS

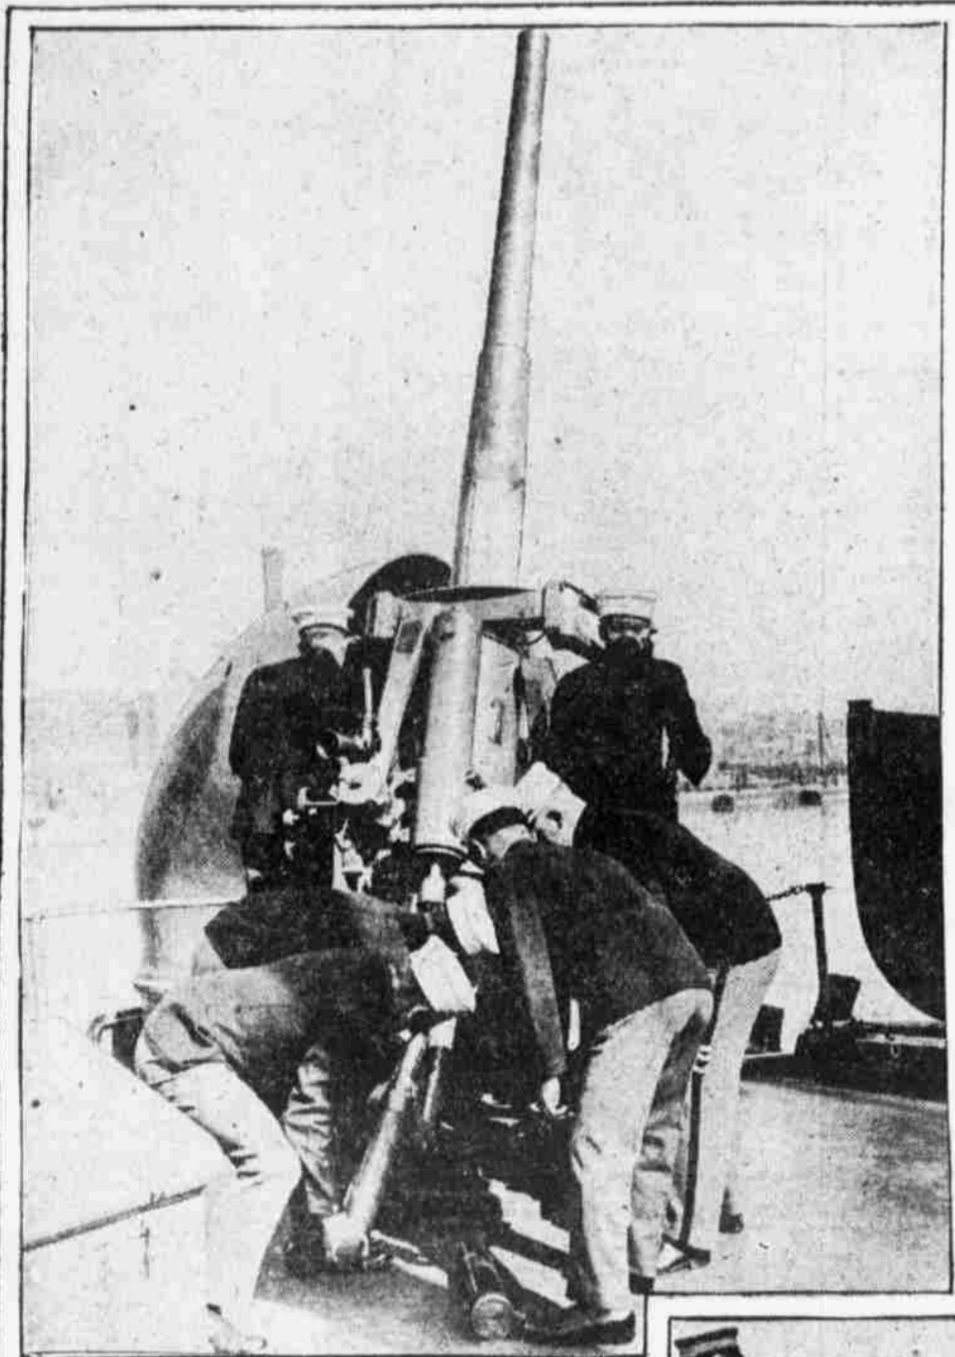

AT DRESS PARADE ON THE BATTLESHIP'S DECK THE MARINE MAKES A GALLANT APPEARANCE AS A SOLDIER OF THE SEA

FLOATING OVER THE DOORWAY OF THE RECRUITING STATION, THIS EMBLEM WILL WAVE A WELCOME TO MANY A PATRIOTIC PHILADELPHIAN THIS WEEK

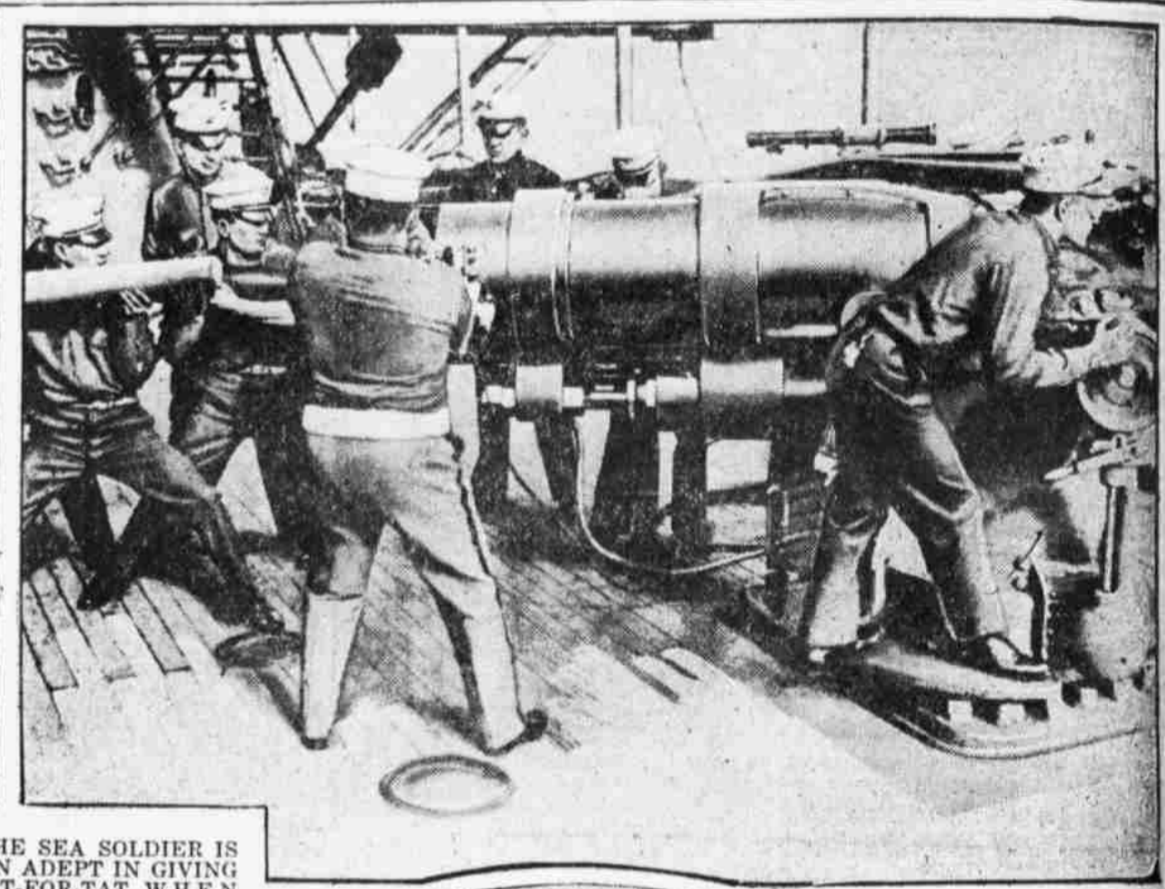

ONE OF THE MANIFOLD ACTIVITIES OF THE MARINE ASHORE IS THE HANDLING OF FIELD GUNS—AND HE IS EXPERT IN HITTING WHAT HE AIMS AT

THE AEROPLANE SOARS HIGH AND FURNISHES A TARGET THAT AT TIMES IS MICROSCOPIC, BUT COMES DOWN WHEN THE MARINE GETS THE RANGE

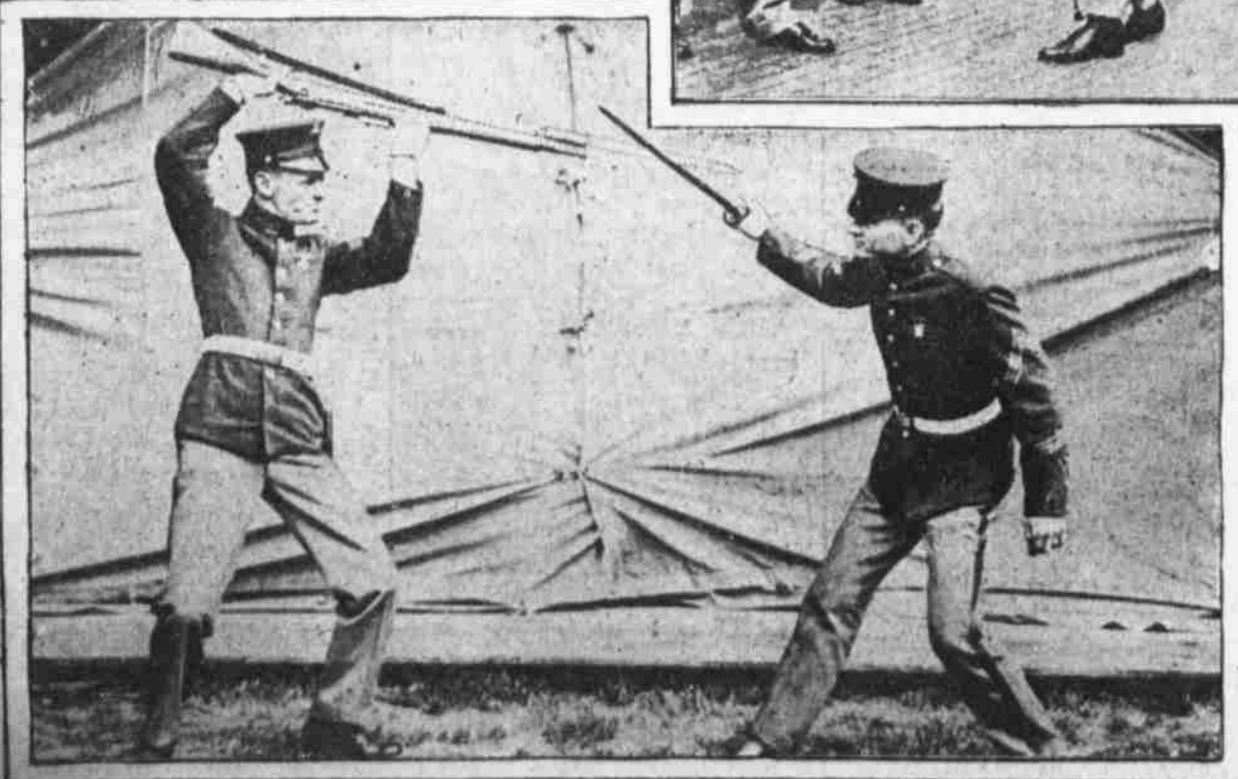

"LEST WE FORGET," THIS IS MARINE WEEK. THE POSTER IS ALSO AN EVIDENCE OF THE CORPS' FAITH IN THE EFFICIENCY OF ADVERTISING

THE SEA SOLDIER IS AN ADEPT IN GIVING TIT-FOR-TAT WHEN IT COMES TO A PROSPECTIVE VISIT FROM THE S U B T L E T O R P E D O

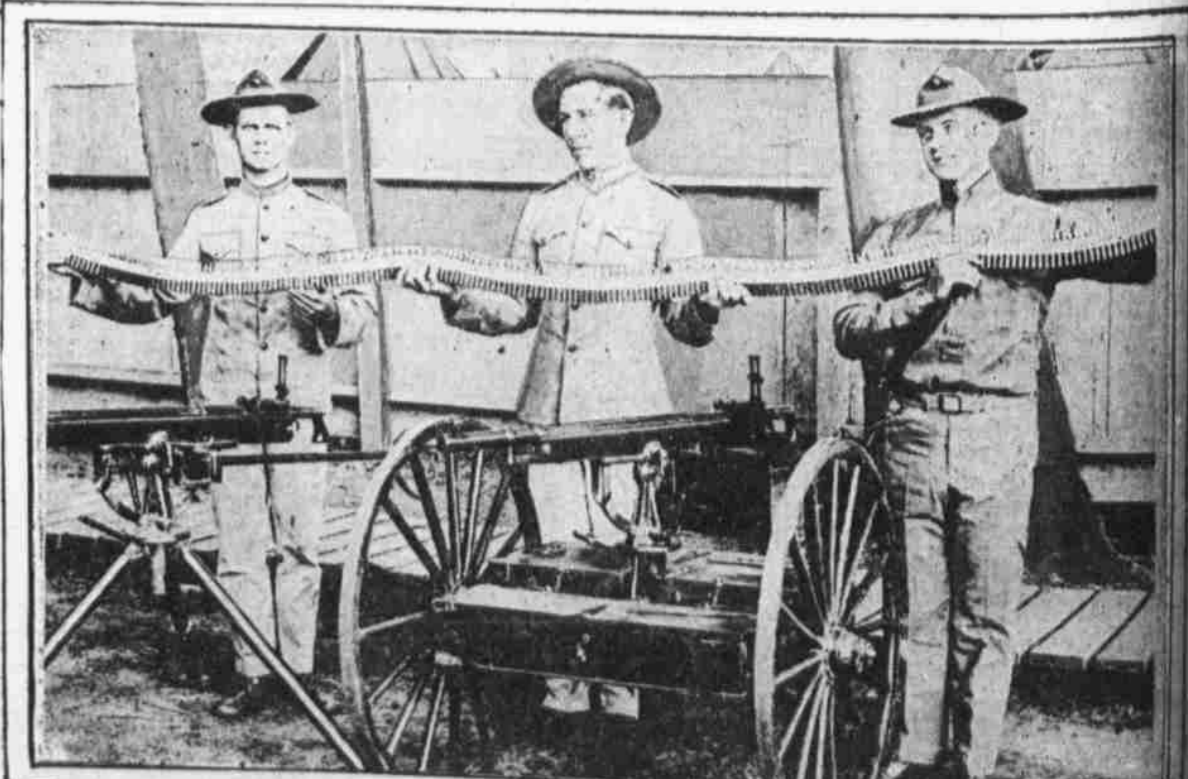

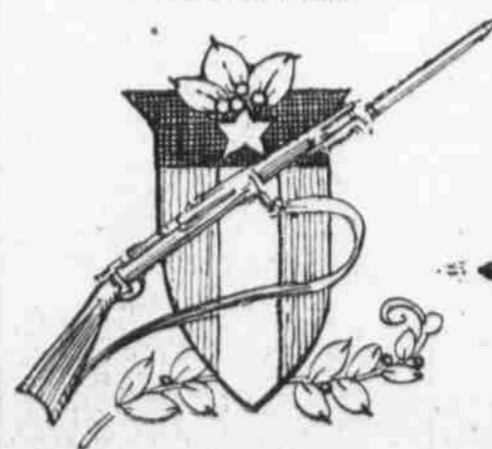

THE VERSATILITY OF THE MARINE IN GUNNERY IS ACCOUNTED FOR IF IT IS CONSIDERED THAT 75 PER CENT OF THE CORPS ARE QUALIFIED SHARPSHOOTERS

WHEN IT COMES TO CLOSE QUARTERS HIS PROFICIENCY WITH THE BAYONET STANDS THE MARINE IN GOOD STEAD AS A DEFENSE. SERGEANT SAM KATCHER IS WARDING OFF SERGEANT KASE'S SABER ATTACK WITH A HIGH PARRY

NOT ONLY AERIAL AND SUB-MARINE WARFARE FINDS HIM A SKILLED PARTICIPANT, BUT HE CAN LOAD AND FIRE THE DECK GUNS AS WELL

LIKE ALL MILITARY MEN, THE MARINE HAS HIS PETS, AND HE HAS NO GREATER FAVORITE THAN THE SPITTING, SNAPPING MACHINE GUNS
