

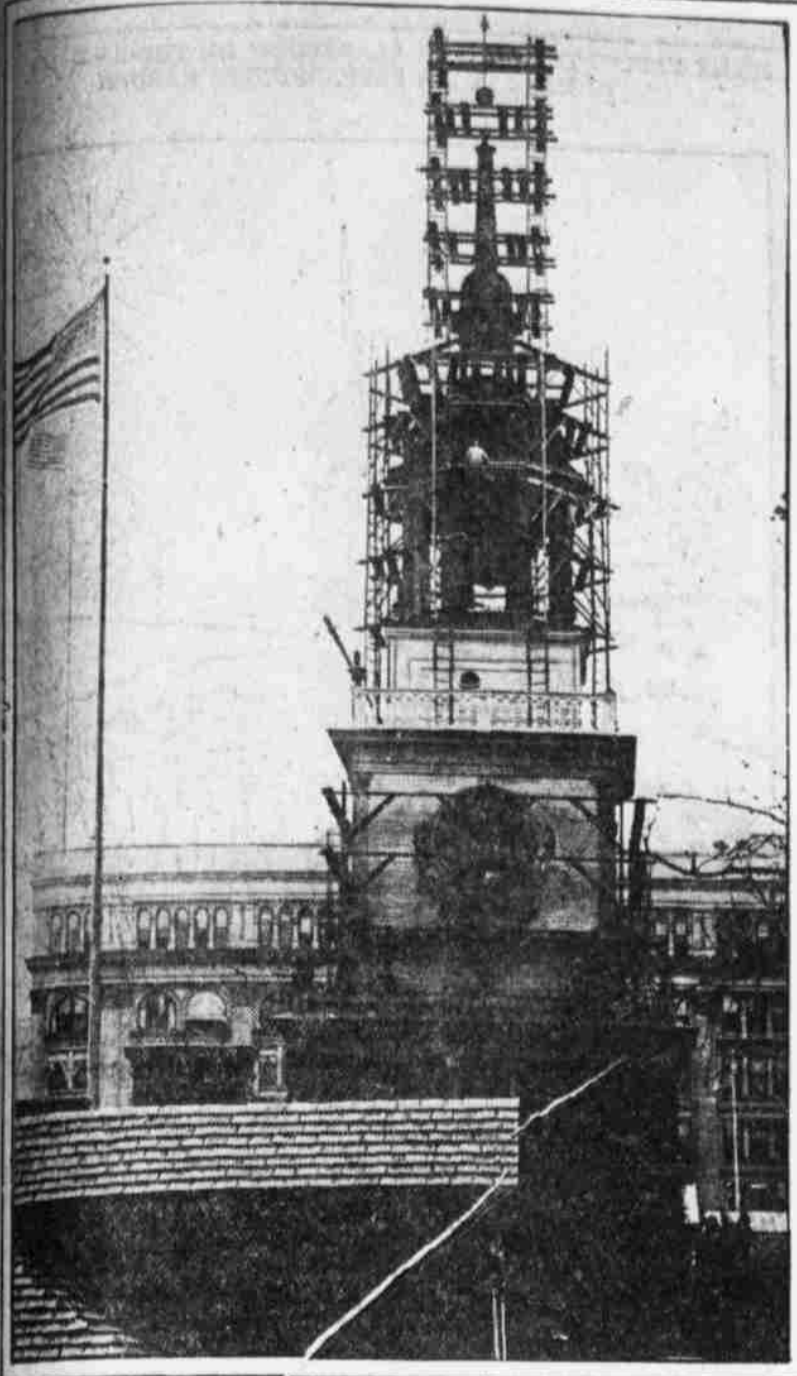

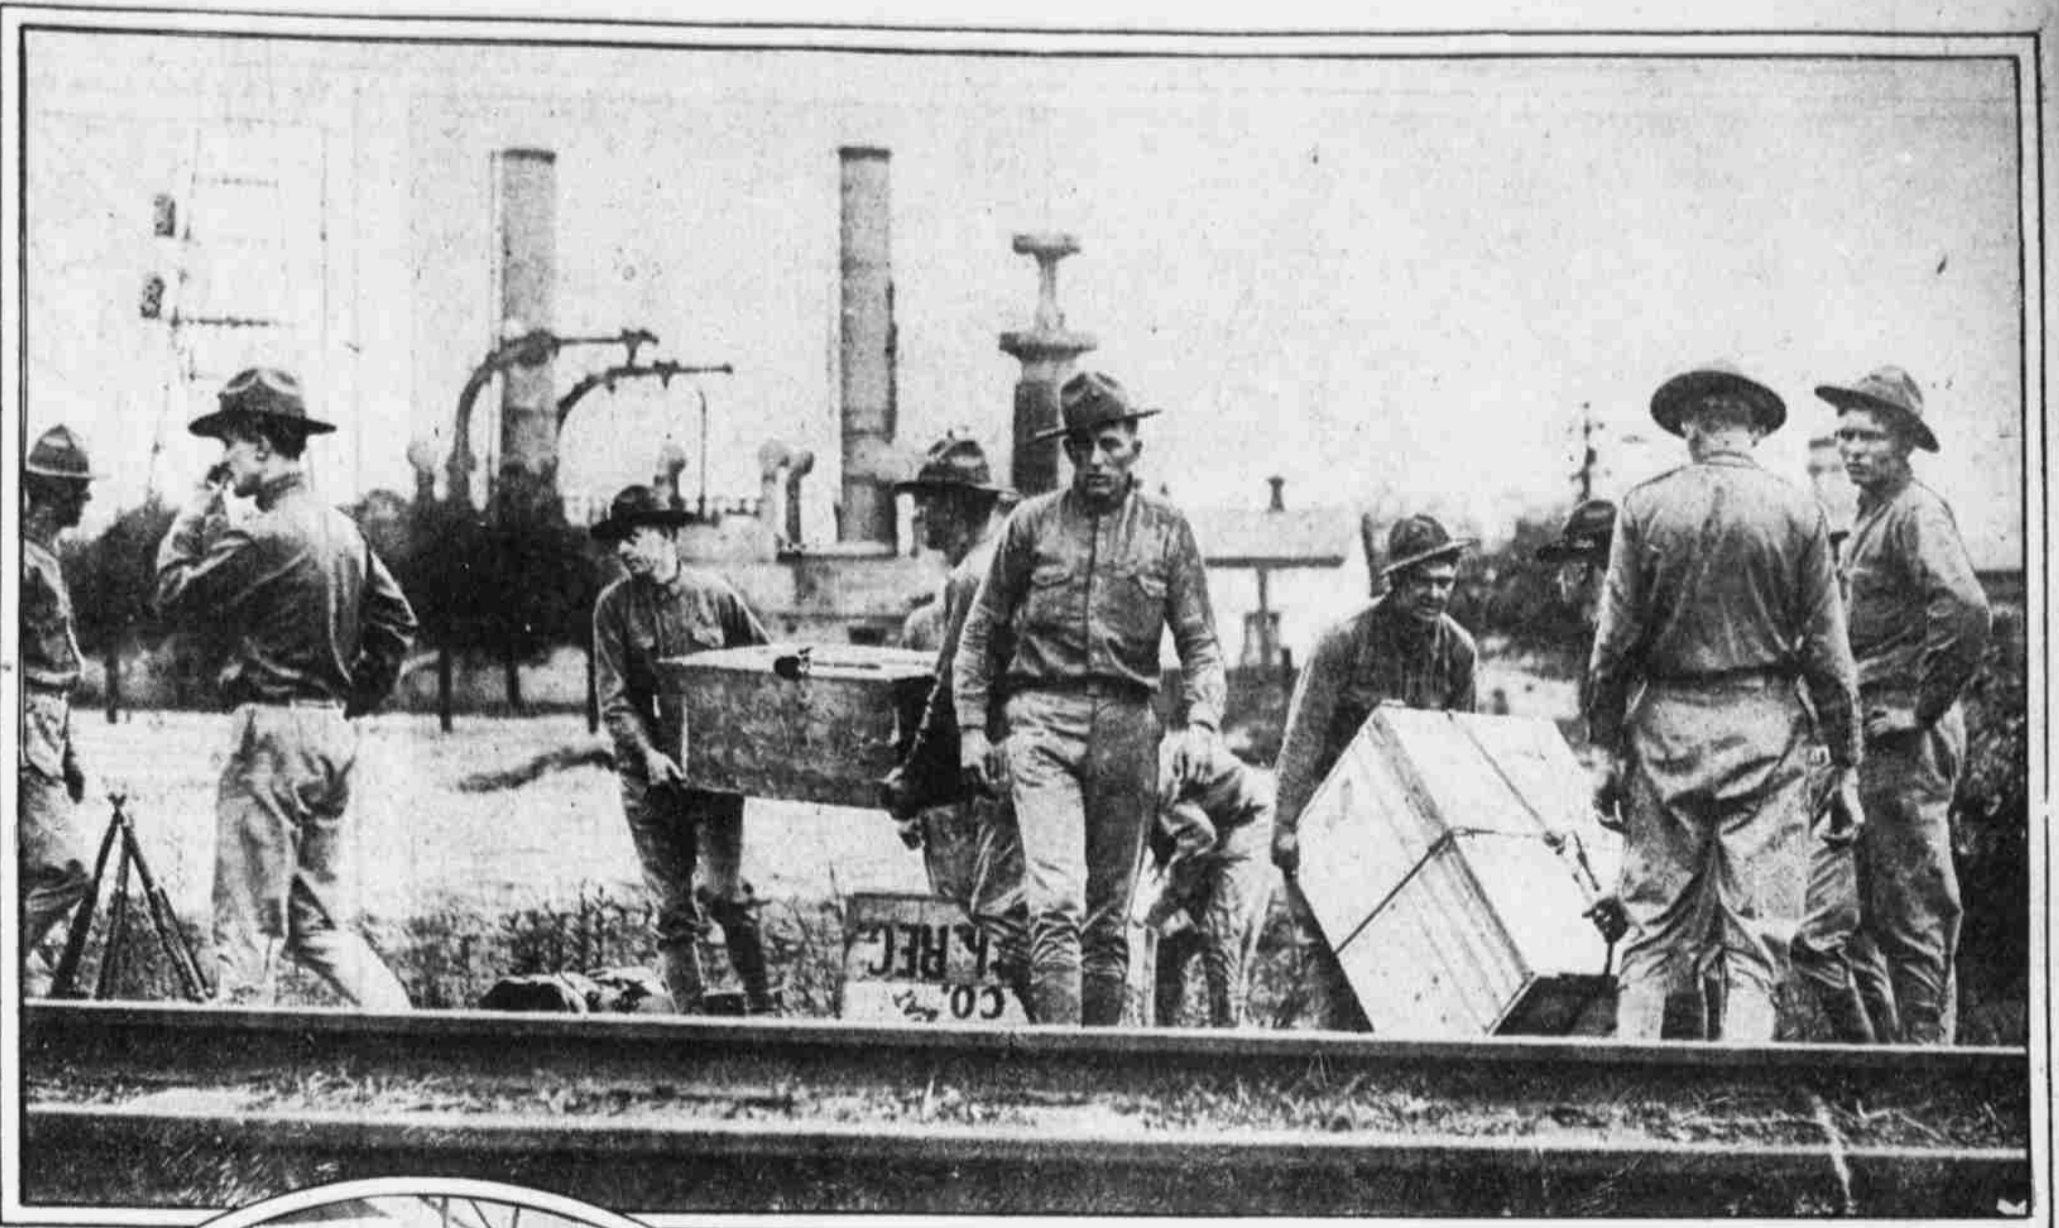

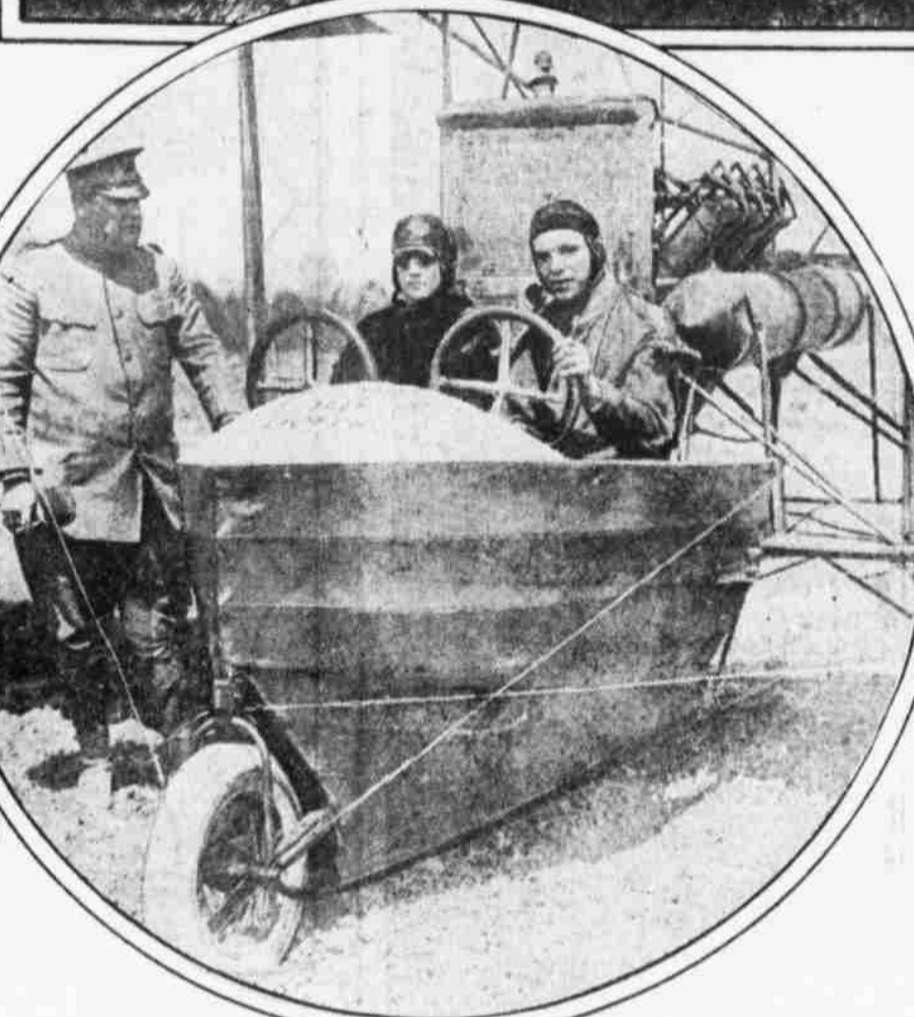

PHOTOGRAPHIC ROUND-UP OF INTERESTING HAPPENINGS MENTIONED IN THE DAY'S NEWS

NEW SPRING DONNET FOR INDEPENDENCE HALL
 Sadly needed repairs to the tower of the precious building at last are to be made. After that several coats of paint will be added to make the renovation complete.

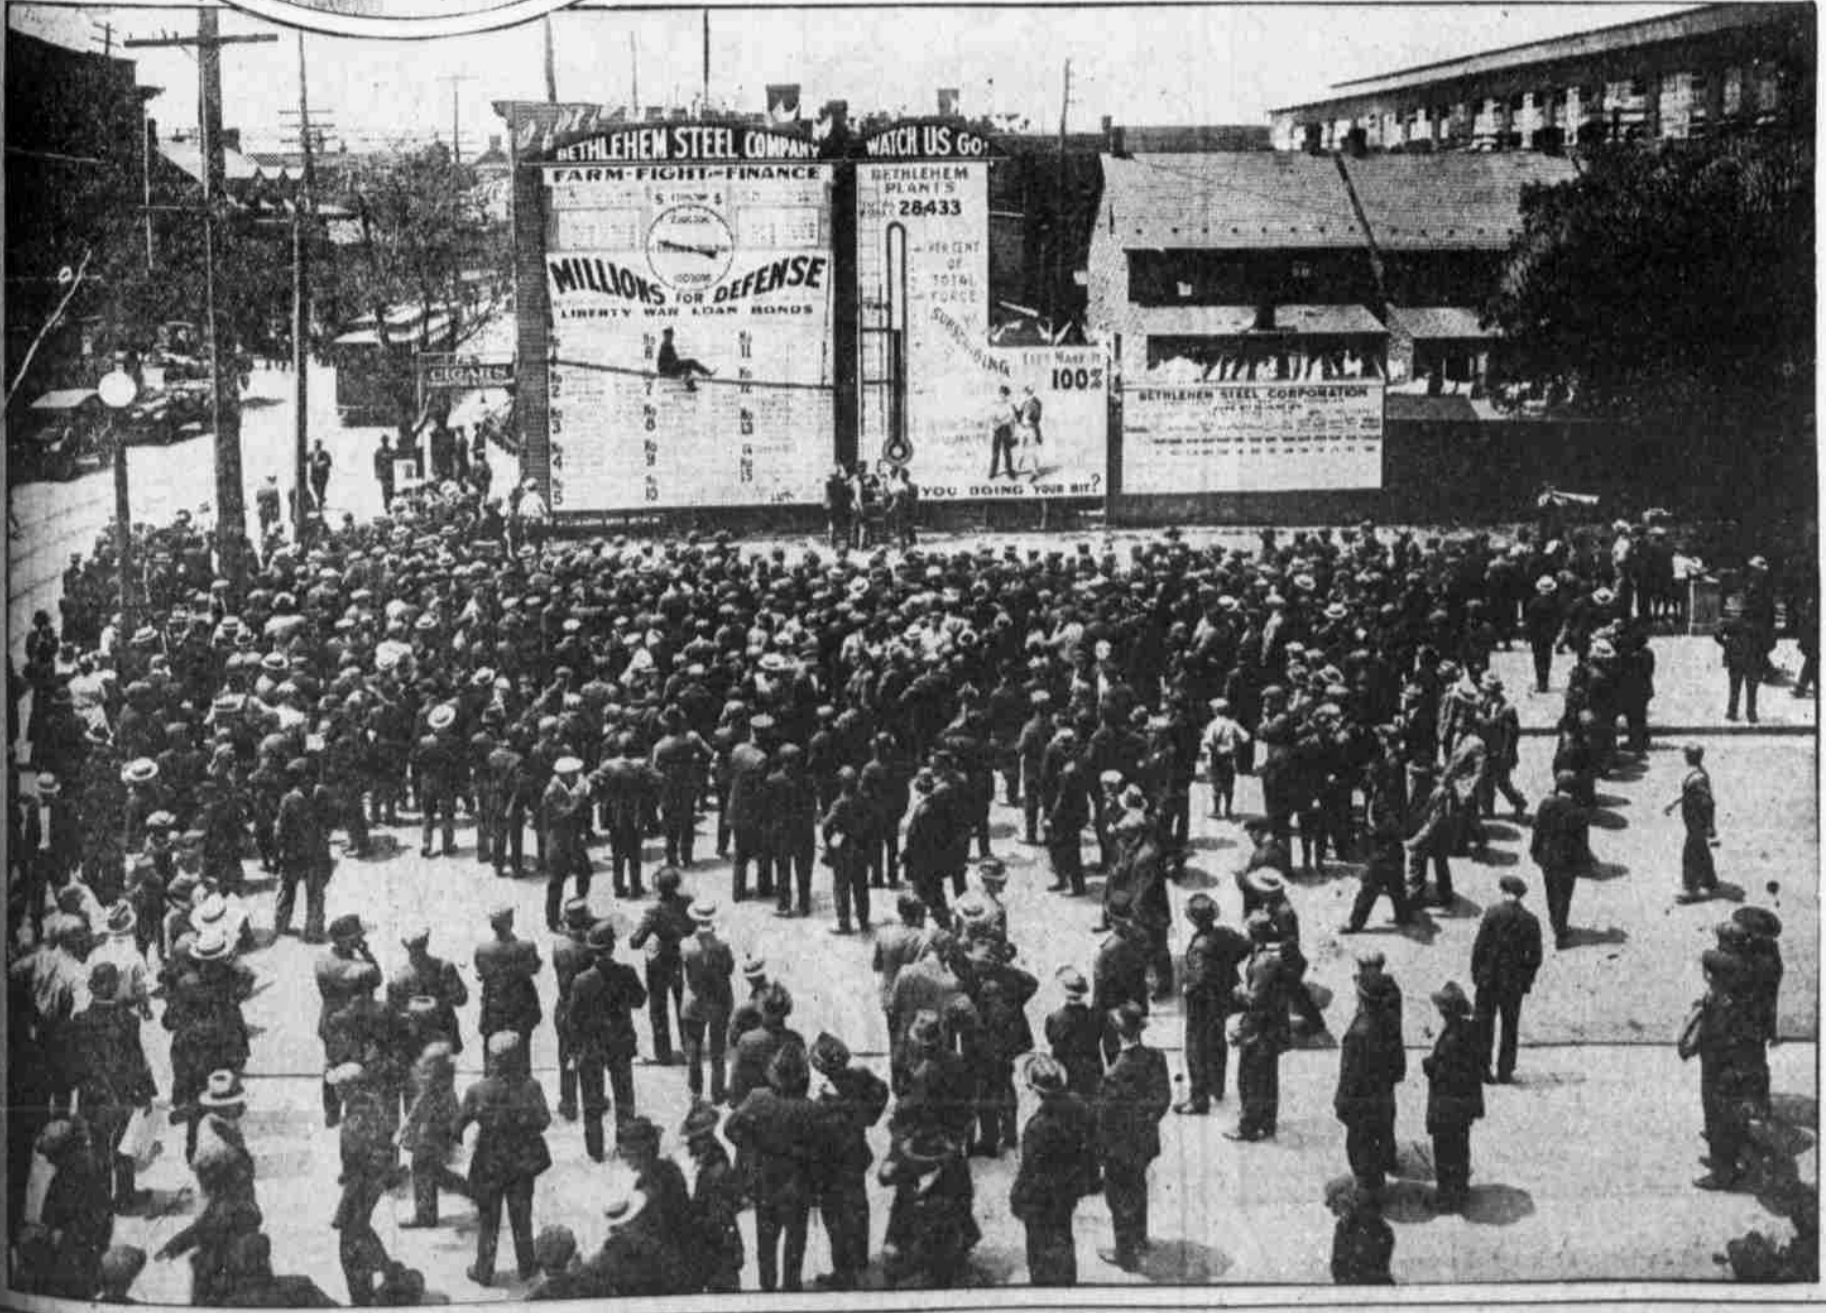

MARINES FROM A VIRGINIA STATION PAY A VISIT TO LEAGUE ISLAND
 The visiting "soldiers of the sea" are shown unloading supplies upon their arrival at the navy yard. Note the warship in the background.

ABOVE, MISS HELEN TOWER, DAUGHTER OF CHARLEMAGNE TOWER, ABOUT TO TAKE HER INITIAL FLIGHT AT THE NEW CALIFORNIA AVIATION SCHOOL AT SAN CARLOS. AT THE LEFT, CURIOUS GROWTH ON A SHADE TREE ON ALLEGHENY AVENUE NEAR ALMOND STREET

MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1907 AT SWARTHMORE RENEW FRIENDSHIP OF TEN YEARS AGO AT REUNION ON CAMPUS OF THE QUAKER COLLEGE

PATRIOTIC BETHLEHEM STEEL EMPLOYEES TURN OUT FUNDS AS WELL AS GUNS TO DEFEAT THE GERMANS
 The photograph shows a crowd of workers before the great "scoreboard" upon which the results of the Liberty Bond campaign are being recorded. Employees of the South Bethlehem plant purchased $724,850 worth of the bonds the first day of the campaign.

NOTABLES AT SWARTHMORE CLASS REUNION
 Left to right, Walter Clothier and son, and Bob (alias "Tuy") Maxwell, sports Editor of the Evening Ledger.