

MEMBERS OF THE NORTH HILLS COUNTRY CLUB UPTURN THE GREENSWARD TO MAKE WAR GARDEN
Inspired by the patriotic movement begun by several New York golf clubs, the Philadelphia organization is doing its part to relieve the food shortage.

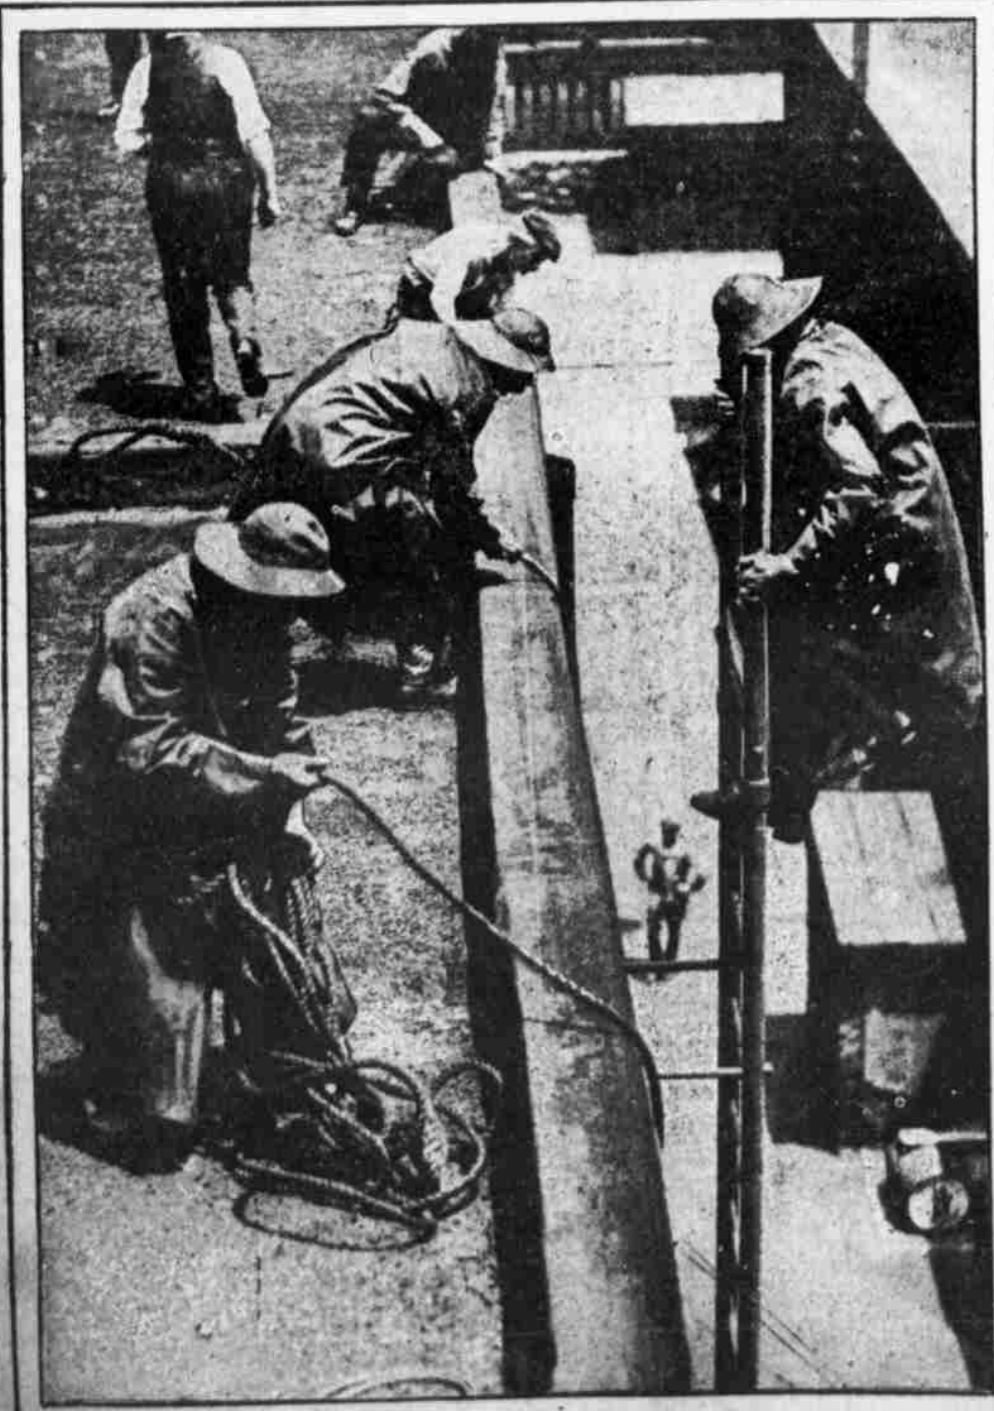

WIVES OF GOLF CLUB "FARMERS" LEND A HELPING HAND
The women are as enthusiastic workers as the men at North Hills. Left to right, Mrs. A. K. Christ, Mrs. G. L. Russell, Mrs. R. Burton, Mrs. L. W. Tremblay, Mrs. J. F. Meehan, Mrs. Holstrom.

TROOP FOURTEEN, OF THE GIRL SCOUTS, IS AMERICAN TO THE CORE
These young patriots pride themselves on their willingness to do their whole duty, whatever sacrifice it may entail. They were photographed at last Saturday's festival in Fairmount Park.

A FEW OF UNCLE SAM'S BELONGINGS COME TO GRIEF
Marines from a Virginia training station spill a box of supplies in disembarking at League Island.

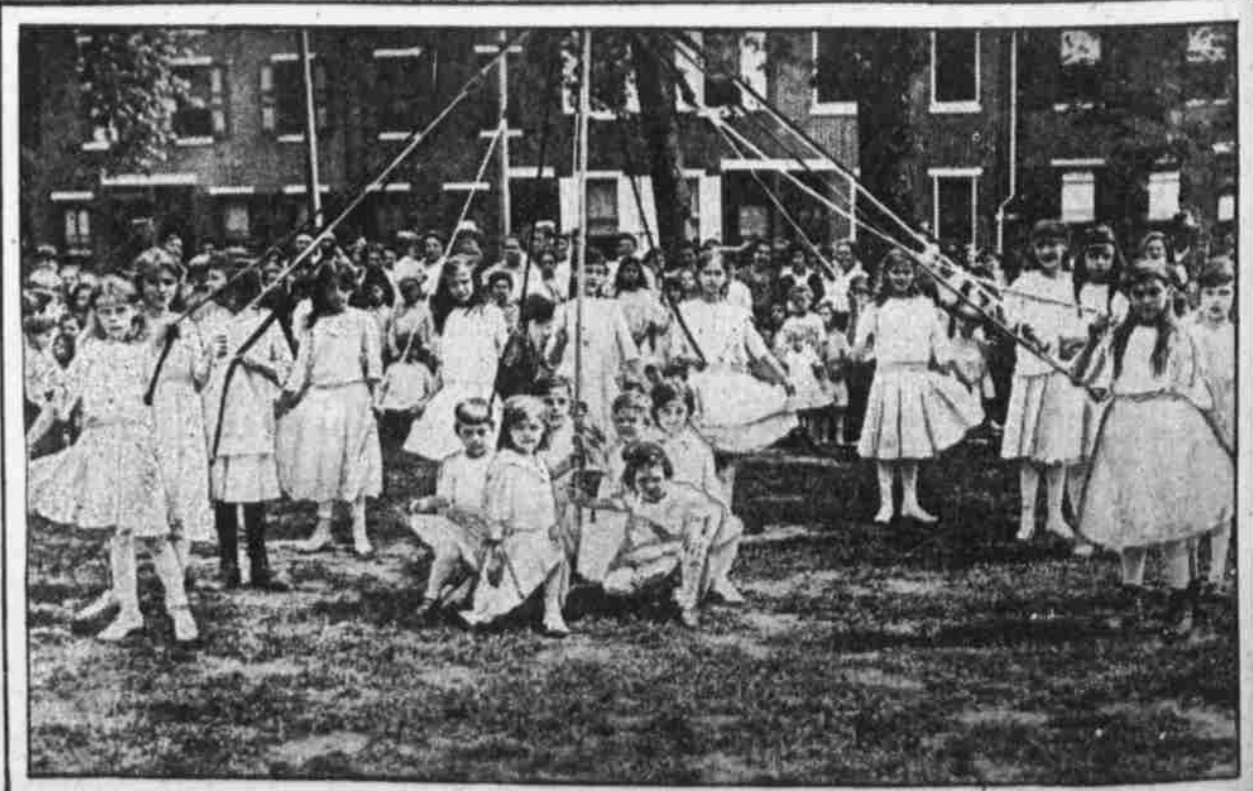

AMATEUR FIREMEN CHALLENGE ALL COMERS
Thirty teams, composed of employees of the George W. Maben Company, Twenty-first street and Hunting Park avenue, are counted on to protect the concern's fifty-five buildings. One of the teams is shown pulling up hose to the roof of a building in the course of a competition drill.

QUALIFIES AS A "SALESMAN"
Miss Clara L. Migrom, 126 South Georgia Avenue, Atlantic City, answered the "ad" of B. Hyder & Son, 524 South Fourth street, for a paper agent. Although originally a man was wanted, she got the job.

BASEBALL TEAM OF THE NORRIS FIELD CLUB
They are ready to meet all comers and promise to give a good account of themselves.

SOUTHWARK NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE HOLDS FETE
Hundreds of kiddies enjoyed the outdoor affair in Jefferson Square, Third street and Washington avenue.