Extra in Liberty Bonds and Stock

BOSTON, June 14.—The United States Machinery Corporation has declared an extra dividend of 10 per cent in stock and 1 per cent in Liberty Loan bonds in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of fifty cents per share upon the common stock. The regular quarterly dividend of thirty cents and a half cents a share was declared on the preferred stock.

THE MACCABEES

Work of the Campaign Leaders in the Woman's Benefit Association
A meeting of the campaign leaders for the Penn Treaty Review was held at the home of the reorganizer, Mrs. Mary J. Graeve, 1614 North Twenty-seventh street, last Friday evening, who received instructions from Supreme Chaplain Miss Burgin and the leaders of the Temple donation, the Johanna Laddy, Mrs. Ketter, Mrs. E. J. Hauger. Penn Treaty Review has added three above the quota given by Great Britain's work on the review. They will try to secure a quota of 100 at their last meeting, at which Commander Powell of Quaker City Review, was a welcome visitor. Arrangements were made for an entertainment on Monday evening, June 18, at the home of Mrs. Anna Posner, the drummer girl of the uniform rank, was also there and explained about the "Bible Club" for young people in Quaker City Review and promised to assist in organizing one in Penn Treaty Review. Mrs. Cora Emery was a frequent visitor, as was Mrs. Fischer of Glard.
