

THE HEAVY ARTILLERY OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

Ty Cobb once again is relishing the rarefied atmosphere at the top of the batting ladder of Ban Johnson's organization.

Photo by International Film Service
CADORNA VIEWS THE ROAD TO TRIESTE
The commander-in-chief of the Italian armies and his staff watching the progress of the battle for possession of the coast road to the coveted city. Cadorna is on the extreme right.

A FRIENDLY BOUT AT THE ALLENTOWN TRAINING CAMP FOR THE AMBULANCE CORPS, WHERE GOOD FELLOWSHIP REIGNS SUPREME

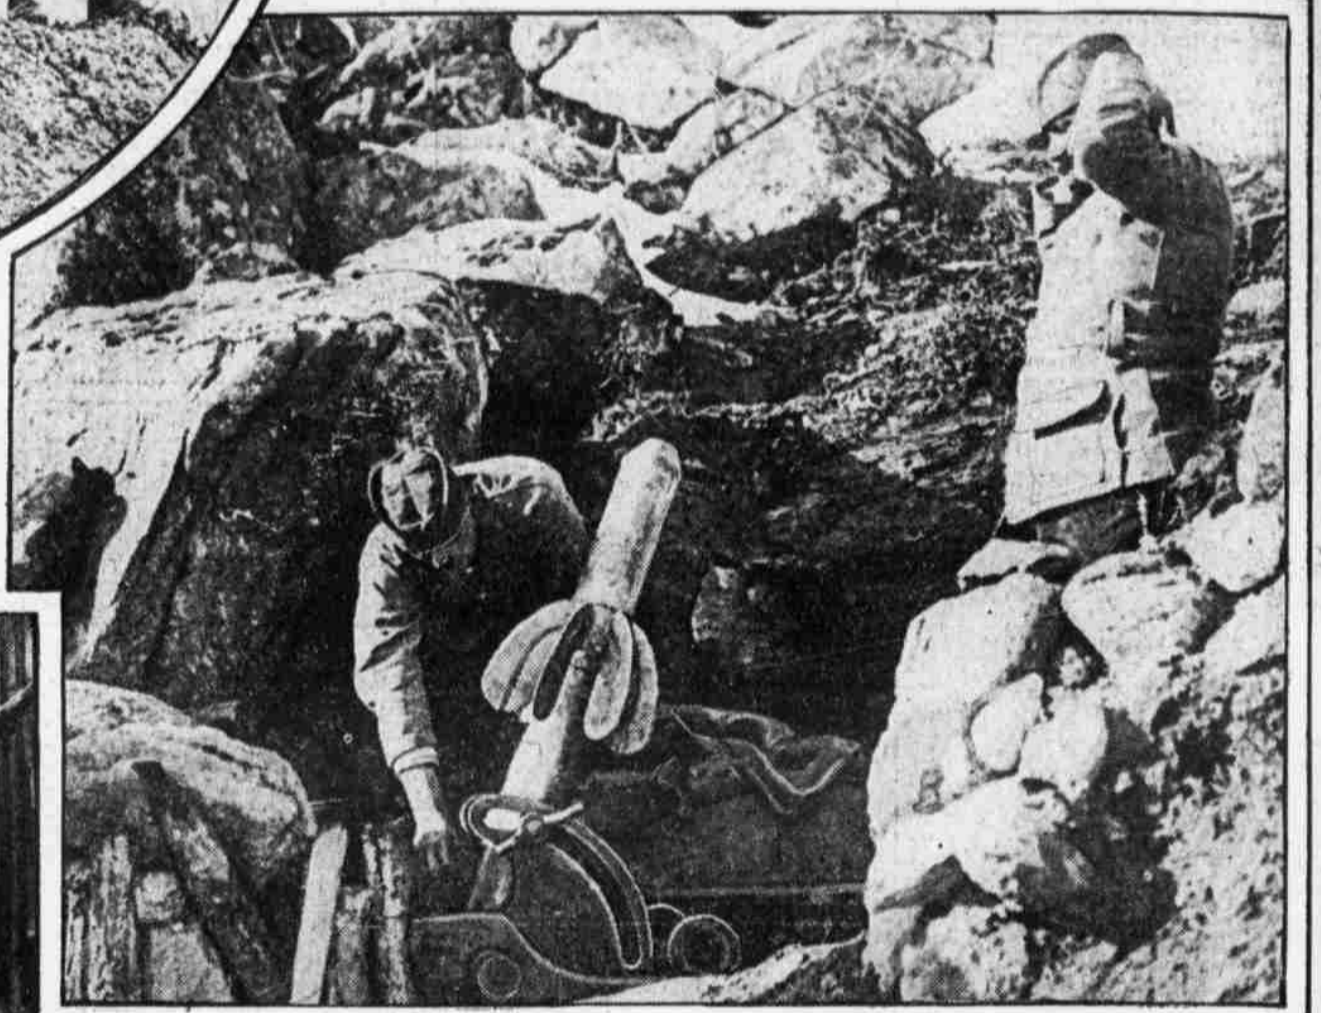

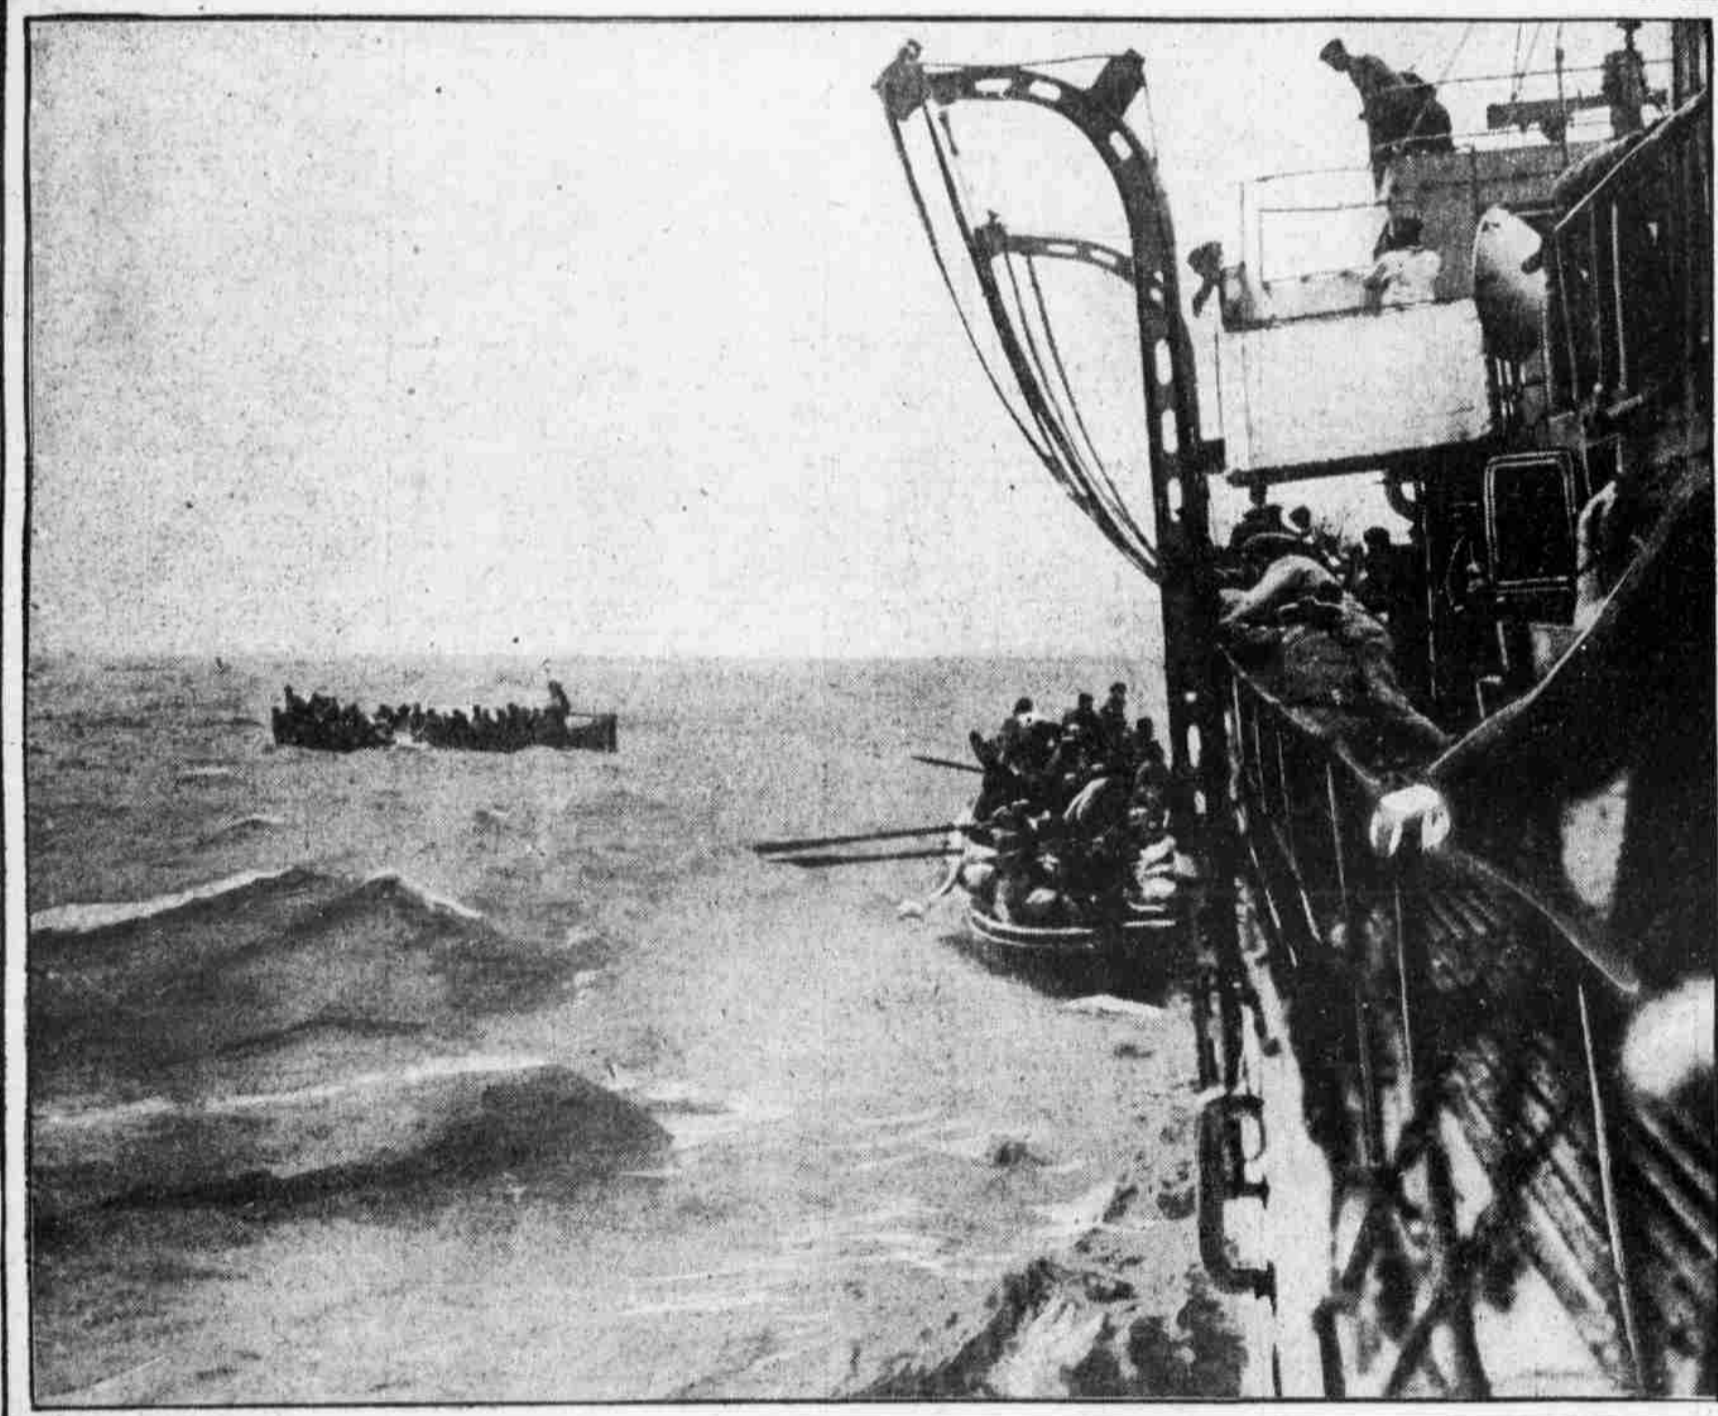

Photo by International Film Service
GREASING A "FLYING PIG" BEFORE TURNING IT LOOSE ON THE GERMANS
The unusual appellation is applied by the French soldiers to their flying bombs, one of which is being prepared for its flight into the enemy's lines.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
THE FLIGHT FROM A TORPEDOED LINER
Exclusive photograph of passengers and members of the crew pulling away from the stricken vessel.

Copyright, International Film Service.
A POPULAR COMPOSER AT WORK
Earl Carroll, who wrote the music for "So Long Letty" and "Canary Cottage," in an unconventional pose at his piano.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
REMARKABLE EXCLUSIVE PHOTOGRAPH OF THE SINKING OF A FRENCH LINER TORPEDOED IN THE MEDITERRANEAN
Passengers and crew are clambering down the sides of the ship to the lifeboats a few seconds before the vessel stood on end and dived to her watery grave. The liner, a ship of about 10,000 tons, was attacked without warning.