Backward Season is the Reason Owing to BOSTON SAMPLE SHOE SHOP White Canvas Sport Shoes an unusually backward season, we decided to clear our surplus out immediately-not odds and ends or from broken lots, but a full and complete clearance of everything below $25 values. Thequickest way to do that was to make such radical cuts in the prices that the clothes would be cleared out as fast as they could be fitted. They ARE going fast, too, and there are so many expressions of delight at the remarkable values, that we have prepared for an extra heavy rushtomorrow.
