

CENTER SPOTS IN WORLD HISTORY—MAKING VISUALIZED BY MEANS OF THE CAMERA

OBSERVATORY—HILL OF NYMPHS

TEMPLE OF THESEUS NATIONAL MUSEUM

PLAINS OF MARATHON

MOUNT LYCABETTUS—MONASTERY OF ST. GEORGE

CITADEL OF THE ACROPOLIS

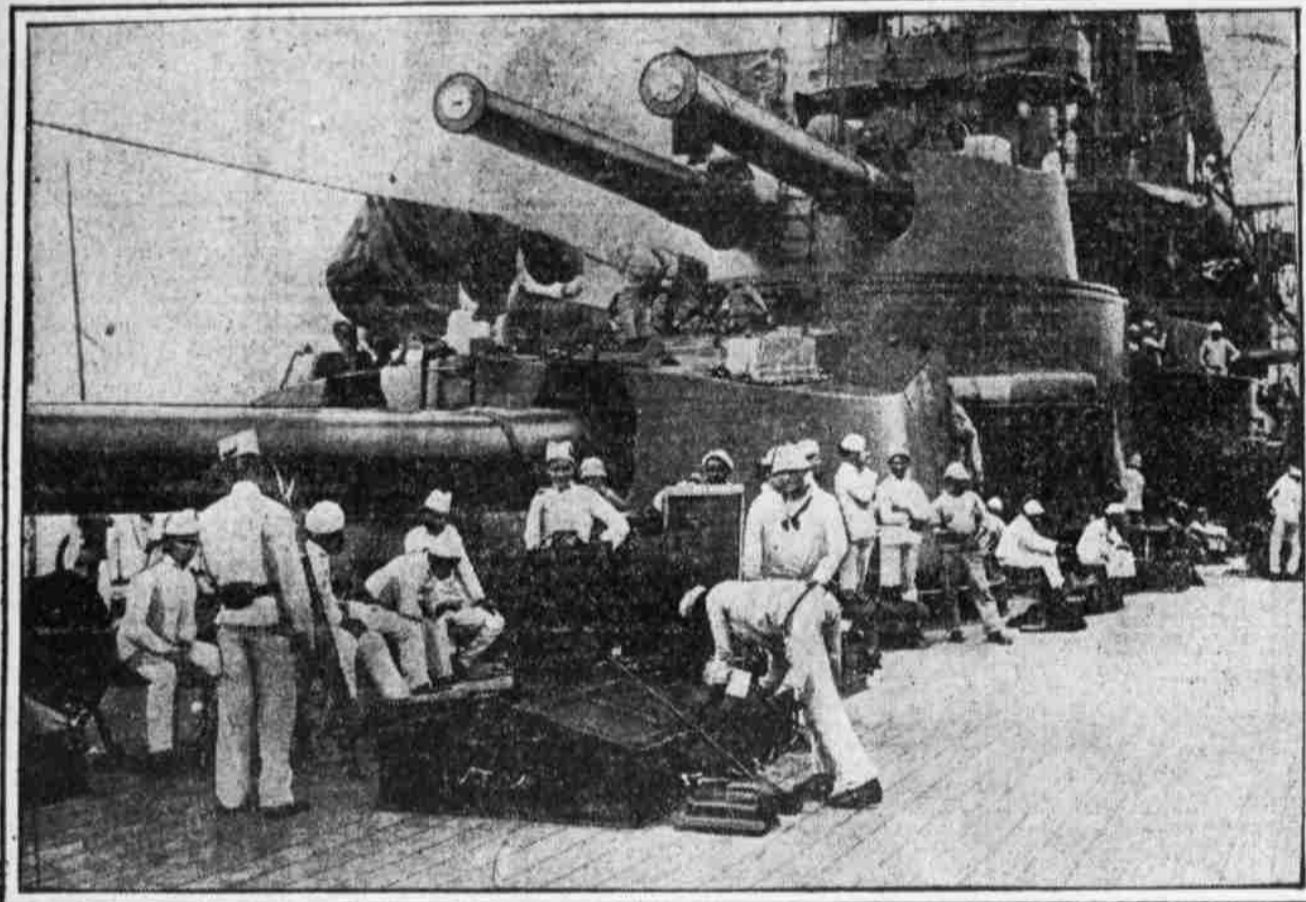

PARTHENON

ROYAL PALACE

MOUNT HYMETTUS

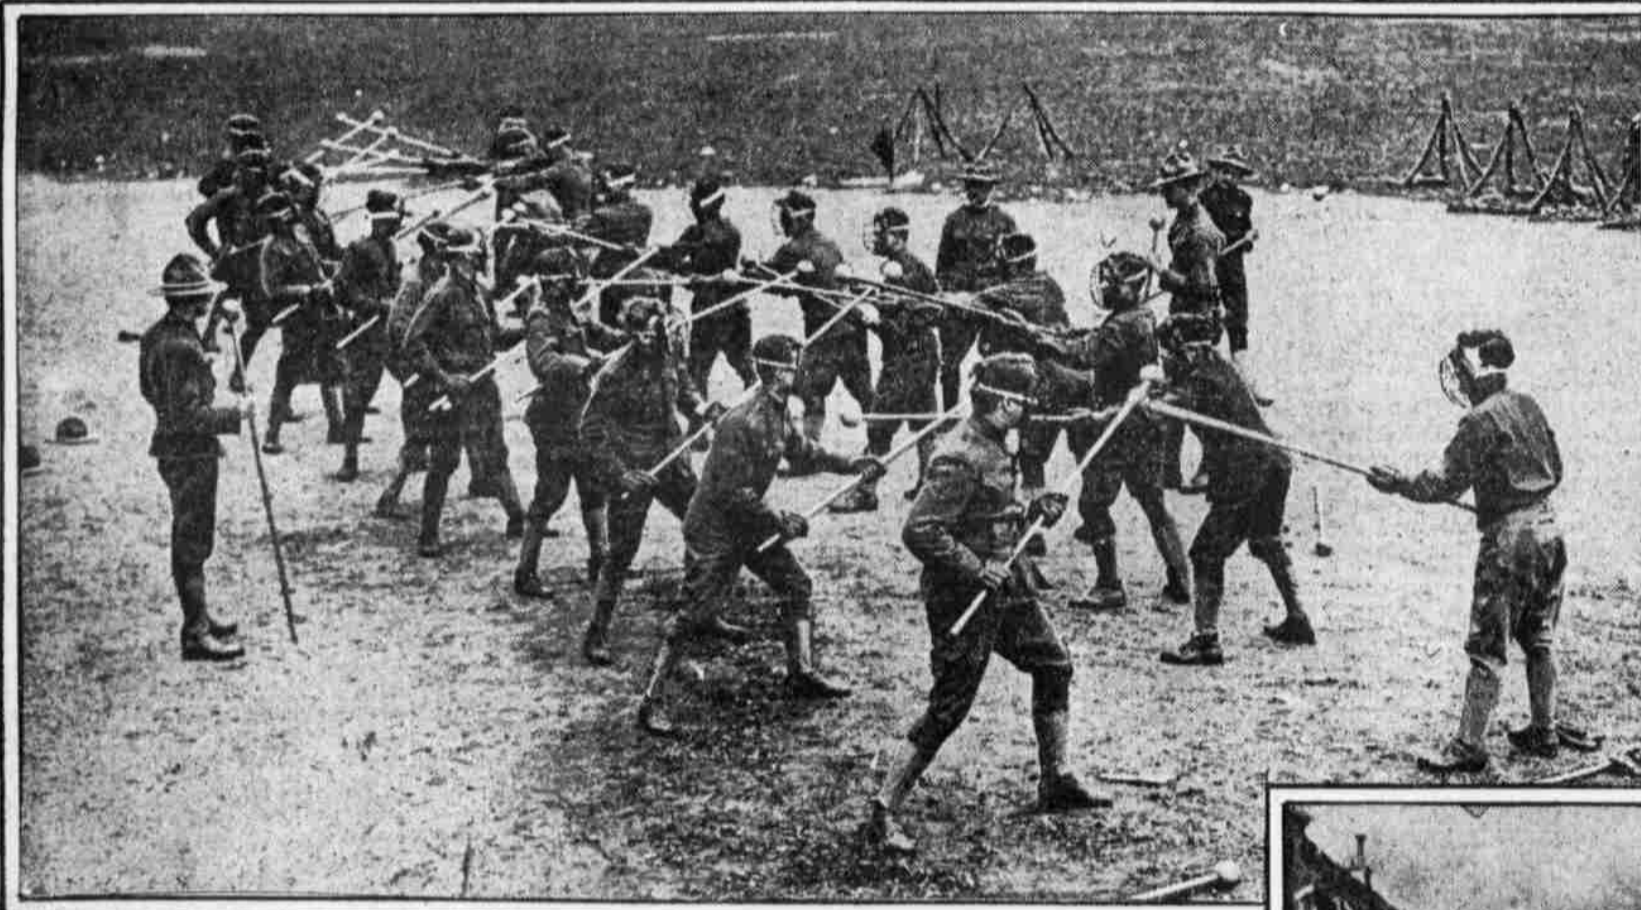

THIS REMARKABLE PANORAMA OF ATHENS, MADE BY A FRENCH ARMY OFFICER, SHOWS THE CLASSICAL CAPITAL OF GREECE WITH THE CHIEF BUILDINGS AND OTHER PLACES OF INTEREST THAT JUST NOW ARE CENTERS OF NEWS AND STIRRING EVENTS IN THE THEATRE OF GENERAL AND INTERNAL UNREST

BRAZIL IS ON THE VERGE OF ENTERING THE WAR
A deck scene on the dreadnought Minas Geraes, most powerful battleship of the South American republic's navy, showing the twelve-inch guns in her forward turrets.

FIJIANS ALMOST CIRCLE WORLD TO SERVE FRANCE
These tropical islanders, after review by General Strong, commanding the Hawaiian department at Honolulu, sailed for Vancouver, then crossed Canada to an Atlantic port. From there they will sail for France to serve as stevedores.

HARVARD BOYS LEARN THE FRENCH METHOD OF BAYONET FIGHTING
That they may be at home when they reach the European war front, the members of the student regiment now forming at the Cambridge university are practicing under Captain Leslubay the system employed in the army of our ally.

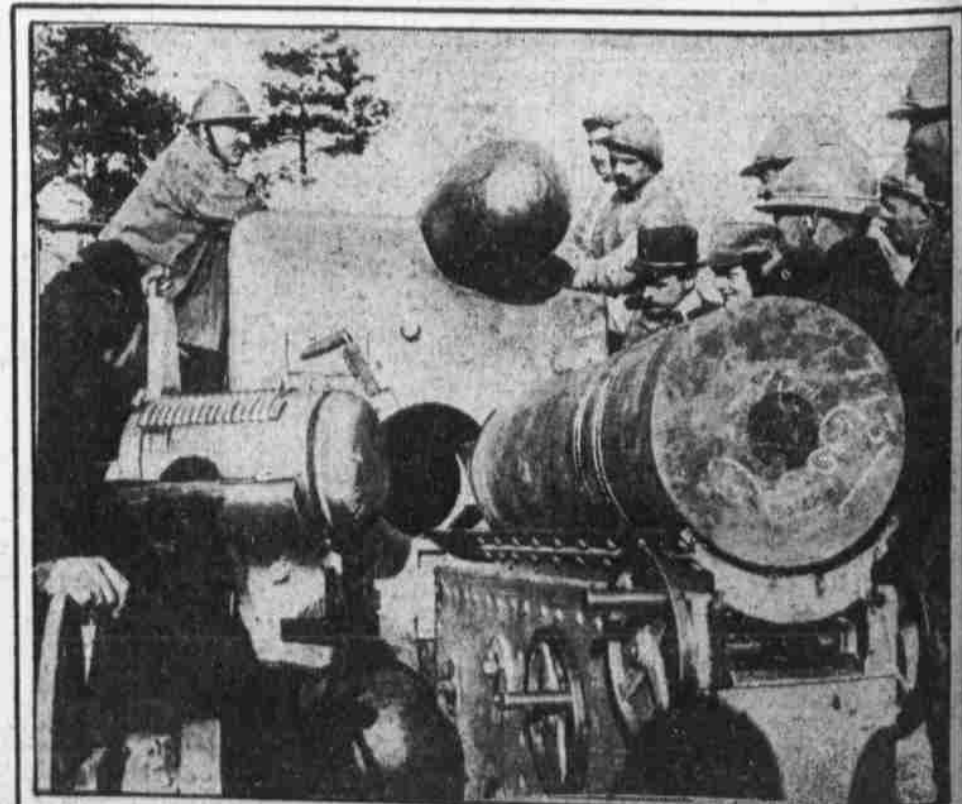

AMERICAN AUTOTRUCKS AWAITING SHIPMENT TO FRANCE
Thousands of these conveyances have already been employed to transport men and supplies in the service of the Allied governments. Hundreds more are being prepared to perform the same service for Uncle Sam's soldier sons afield.

MARINE CORPS OPENS RECRUITING STATION AT THE BOURSE
Sergeant Loyd, who is in charge, reports a gratifying number of applications, although the station is only a few days old.

GERMAN DENIAL OF ATTACK ON RHEIMS CATHEDRAL ANSWERED
This remarkable photograph shows the famous edifice under bombardment. A 305 shell is bursting in front of the cathedral.

MISSILE OF WOE BOUND FOR THE GERMAN LINES
Artillerymen loading a gigantic gun on the French front. These monstrous shells are of the type that is wreaking such havoc with the Teutonic entrenchments.