

WAR AND PEACE ARE FAR APART, YET BOTH FURNISH INTERESTING PICTORIAL ITEMS

A HUMBLE BUT POPULAR RIVAL OF THE ROOF GARDEN
A family dinner or supper under the trees of Fairmount Park affords a pleasant diversion for the half holiday.

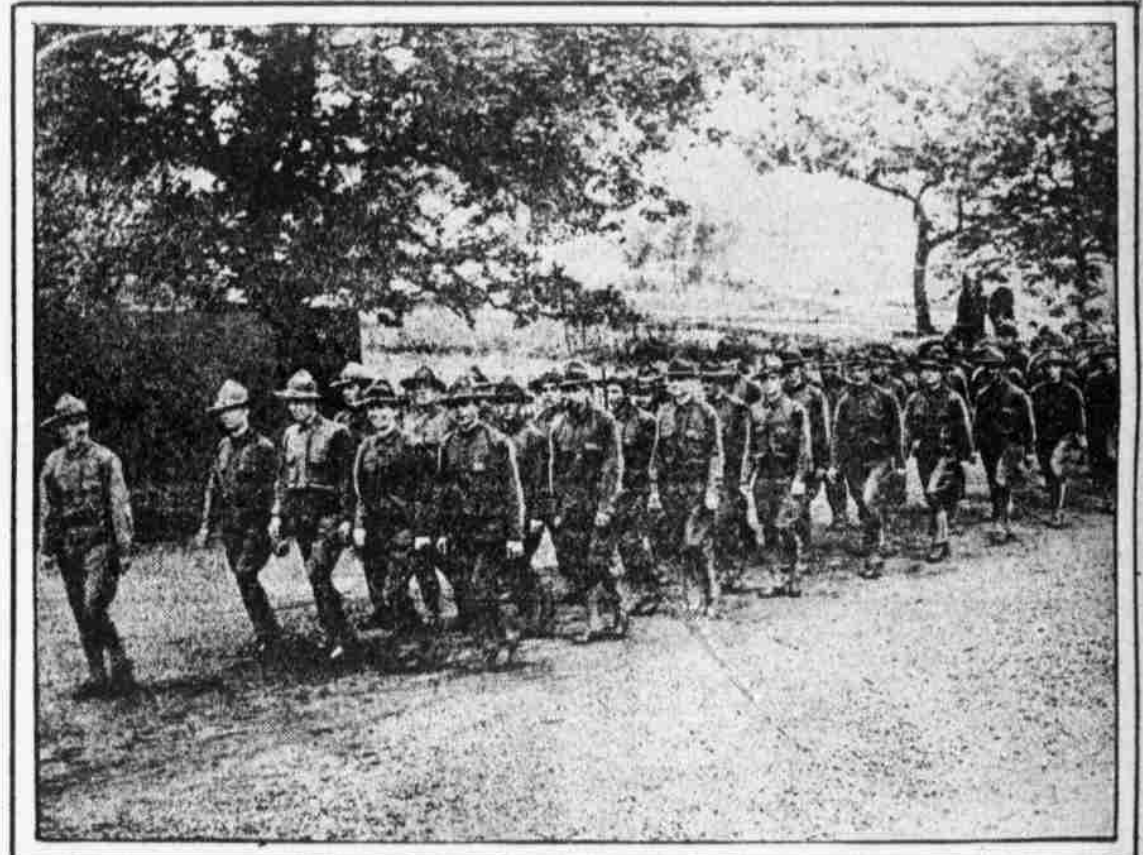

BEWARE, ZEPPELS! THE YANKEE AVIATRIX WILL GET YOU
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
Out in Los Angeles young women have organized and are training for Uncle Sam's air service. They are Miss Alice La Chapelle (top), Miss Zanette Whiting, Mrs. A. B. Cochran, Mrs. William Duffy, Miss Dolores Francis and Miss Vea Kitchin.

CHEMICAL WORKERS IN LIBERTY LOAN RALLY
More than $150,000 was subscribed, 98 per cent of the employees joining, at an open-air meeting on the grounds of the H. K. Mulford Company laboratories at Glenolden. Mr. Mulford is urging his hearers to cross the white line behind which the subscribers stand.

SI CONTOR, "MIL-LIONAIRE NEWS-BOY" OF LANCASTER, PA., WHO HAS QUIT A PROSPEROUS BUSINESS TO SERVE IN THE ARMY

VOLUNTEERS HARDEN THEMSELVES FOR SERVICE IN EUROPE
Members of the Ninth Battalion of Engineers, quartered at the Commercial Museum, start on a hike as practice for long marches they anticipate when "somewhere in France."

PHILADELPHIA MATRON AND BRIDE-TO-BE CONFER
Miss Carol Harriman (left) and Mrs. Victor Mather (right) hold chat at Belmont Terminal during the United Hunt meet. Perhaps Miss Harriman's coming marriage to R. Penn Smith, Jr., forms their subject of conversation.

READY TO TAKE THEIR PLACES IN THE RANKS OF THE BUSINESS ARMY
Section of Temple University graduating class of 1917, comprising the classes in book keeping and shorthand, who have completed the course at the North Broad street institution.