

PERSONS AND EVENTS THAT ARE PROMINENTLY FIGURING IN CURRENT HAPPENINGS

WAR SPEEDS UP TRAINING OF WEST POINT CADETS
So that the graduating class may take the field about August the members are being put through practice more severe than usual. Here they are shown in skirmish line behind sandbags at rifle practice.

YOUTHFUL ATHLETES RECEIVE CUPS AT MAIN LINE MEET
Walter Clothier presenting trophies to George Trexler, Frank Kane and Archer Eglin, winners of the various events in the field day held on the Clothier estate at Wynewood.

GERMANTOWN YOUNG WOMEN TAKE UP ONION CULTIVATION
Dorothy James, Celia Schuffman and Minnie Blume working on their farm garden at "Little Wakefield."

TACONY GIRLS BID FAREWELL TO SCHOOL DAYS
The Rev. P. F. Fogarty, rector of St. Leo's Church, and the graduates of the parochial school.

YOUNG ARTISANS OF NORRISTOWN AND THEIR HANDIWORK
Pupils of the Manual Training School putting the finishing touches upon useful articles of their own construction.

A BIT OF SENSIBLE ECONOMY IS PRACTICED BY GIRL GRADUATES BY USING THEIR TALENT IN DRESSMAKING
Class of 1917, of the James Martin Public School, Richmond and Ontario streets, wearing commencement costumes made by themselves. Dorothy Steiba, class president, is in the middle of the front row.

SOMETHING NOT OFTEN SEEN IS AN INDOOR PROMENADE ON NORTH BROAD STREET—OR ON ANY OTHER HIGHWAY
But the novelty here pictured is a feature of "Canary Cottage," which holds the stage at the Adelphi this week, and is one of the prettiest "hits" in that production.

A FAVORITE OF VAUDEVILLE WHO COMES TO KEITH'S
She is Inez Plummer, who appears in "The Lincoln Highwayman," with Paul Dickey and company.
