

A PAGE OF PICTORIAL SIDELIGHTS ON THE NEWS, ALL BUT TWO FROM PHILADELPHIA

Photo by International Film Service.
THEY'RE FIGHTING FIRES FROM THE AIR NOW
San Diego, Cal., with its two aerial fire trucks, is the first city in the country to adopt this innovation. The photograph shows Fire Chief Lewis Almgren and his pilot.

SOUTHWARK PLAYERS IN COMEDY
"The Loan of a Lover" is the name of the comedy given by the Southwark Neighborhood Players at the Settlement Music School Saturday night. The photograph shows the cast before the play.

SHE'S HERE WITH HER BROAD SMILE
Trixie Friganza, who is at the Adelphi Theatre in "Canary Cottage," is famous for her broad smile, which she bestows lavishly upon the audiences that visit the first all-summer show in Philadelphia.

A YOUTHFUL BALLERINA
Yetta Hoffmann delighted with her dancing at the Southwark Neighborhood Players' show Saturday.

NEW SAFETY DEVICE ON U. S. MAIL AUTO TRUCKS

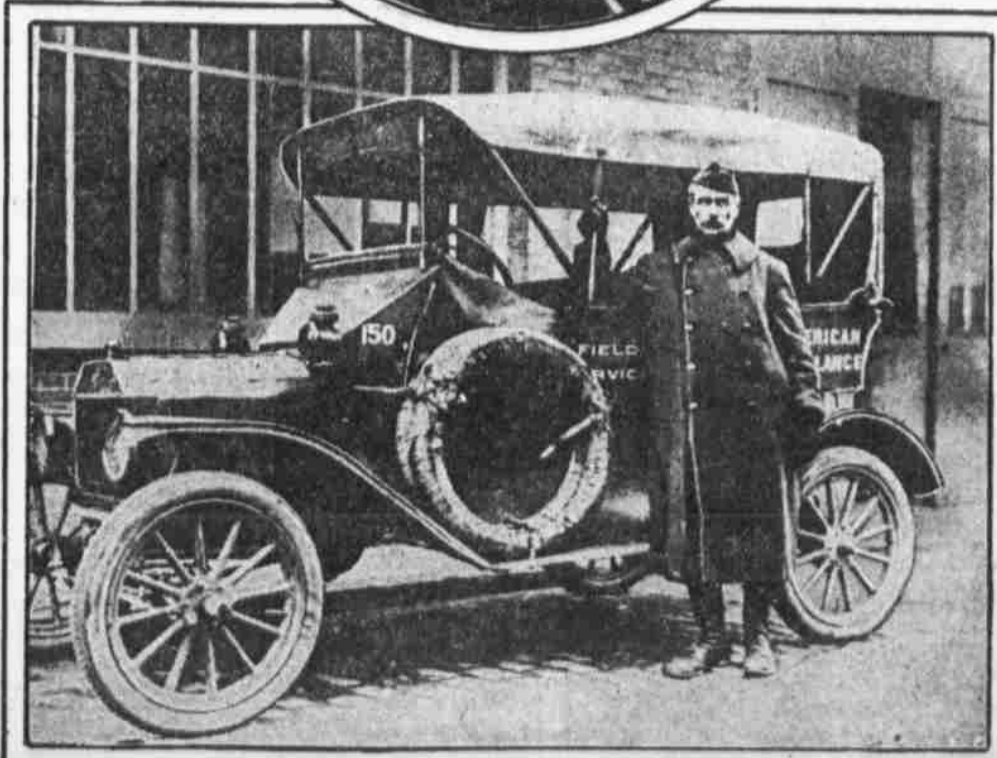

PHILADELPHIAN IN "TWO-A-DAY"
Henry L. Fox, formerly with the Little Theatre Players, as Abel Merryweather, with Whitney, Fox and Company, in "The Late Lamented" at Keith's this week.

HENRY L. FOX AS HIS FRIENDS KNOW HIM

HOW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL GRADUATES HELPED THE RED CROSS
This collection of Red Cross material is collected in the basement of the U. S. Grant School, Seventeenth and Pine streets. Standing in the rear, from left to right, are Miss Emma DeLaven, Miss May Morrison, Miss Pauline Keller and Miss Anna Black.

AMERICANS AT WORK IN FRANCE
The automobile that conveys R. T. W. Morse between the front and Neuilly, France, is no less American than the man in charge of the American Ambulance Corps in that section.

RAYMOND KNOX
He is on the Cross Keys bill as a "society-jester" this week.