

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAY'S INTERESTING HAPPENINGS

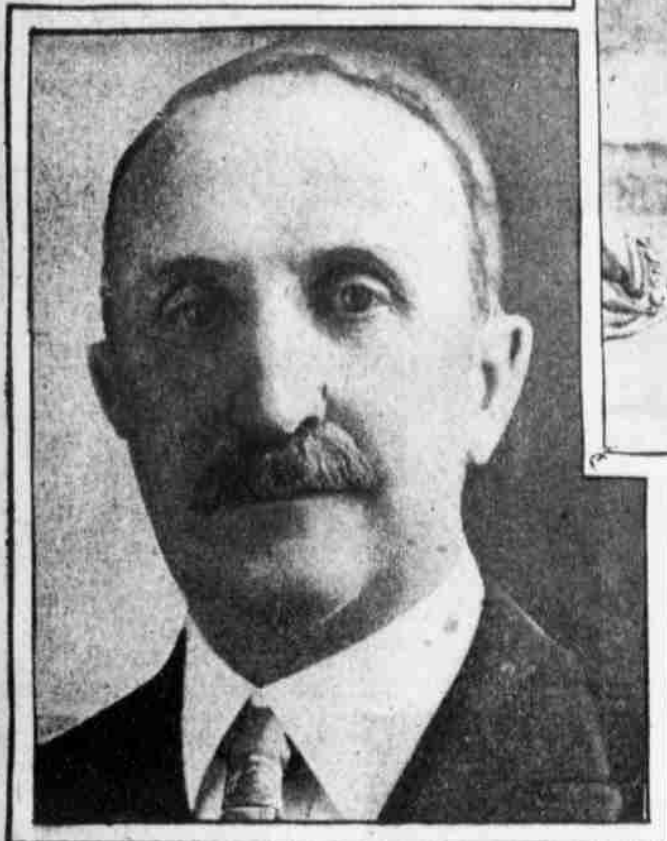

"BEST GIRL SCOUT IN AMERICA"
Twenty-five merit badges, including a gold eagle, presented to her by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, certify to the claim of Eleanor Patrick, of Washington, to the title. She is also a good cook, an expert swimmer and a member of the graduating class of the Washington High School.

"FATHER OF SWIMMING IN PHILADELPHIA"
In the title bestowed upon James H. Stewart, by the enthusiastic of this city, many of whom owe their ability to his patient and unassuming methods of instruction.

ANNALIST OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS
Mrs. Helen North Longstreet, widow of the famous southern general, herself noted as a political writer and eloquent speaker, has been created literature of a Confederate Veteran to write in book form the story of their future reunions.

AMERICA'S CHAMPION MONEY-RAISER

The organization of the Red Cross campaign to collect the fund of $100,000,000 in one week was placed in the hands of Charles S. Ward, and the result shows how well he handled the biggest assignment ever intrusted to him. An international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Ward has gathered money for that institution in every civilized country in the world.

A SOCIALIST OF INTERNATIONAL IMPORTANCE
Morris Hillquit is at Atlantic City, recuperating from a nervous breakdown. He scouts the idea that the German Socialists will use the international conference at Stockholm to further the aims of the Kaiser.

JAMES P. JAFFRAY, as agent in this city for the Canadian Government, is called upon to execute gigantic transactions involving the purchase and shipment of vast stores and supplies for the forces of our northern neighbor.

THE SAFETY-FULST EXECUTIVE
Mayor Harry L. Frost, of Lancaster, whose campaign against the auto-parking habit and other traffic ills has made the Red Rose City streets safe for pedestrians.

AN AMERICAN MOSES OF TODAY
Henry Morganthau, it is announced, is to head an American mission to Egypt, the work of which will be to "ameliorate the condition of the Jewish communities in that country."

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says the Lately Bands pay only 25c per cent interest. But of course you can't expect as large an income as if they'd been issued in time of peace.

Easy Work

"What is meant by below par?"
"Working for dad, I guess."
—Lampoon

MR. HEN PECK'S WIFE GETS HER FIRST GLIMPSE OF HIM IN ACTION AS COMMANDER OF THE LOCAL HOME GUARD

THE PADDER CELL

LET YOUR MIRROR TELL YOU WHAT YOUR FRIENDS WONT

YOU POOR FISH!

ISN'T THAT PIPE? HOW OFTEN HAVE I SAID DON'T SMOKE IN THE HOUSE!

YES DEARIE.

THAYWARD

Nomadic

"Does your family have any troubles with servants?"
"No," replied Mr. Crosslots; "I don't believe any of them stay around the place long enough to become really troublesome."
—Washington Star.

Her National Duty

"Would you mind if I were to kiss you?"
"Well, I'm not one of those conscientious objectors, if that's what you mean."
—London Opinion.

Might Start Trouble

"Do you think your townspeople will give you any banquets?"
"Not if I can head 'em off," replied Senator Sorghum. "I don't want to get with a crowd and sit right down in front of a reminder of the high-cost-of-living problem."
—Washington Star.

Patriots

First Subway Director — We may have to provide more seats.
Second Subway Director — Nonsense! Simply have the "Star Spangled Banner" played on all cars.
—Life.

Doubly Patriotic

"Ah, and supposing your ship struck a mine and you were blown up?"
"Then I'd join the royal naval air service, of course."
—The Passing Show.

THE POOR SOLDIER

Civilian—Were you seriously injured?
Soldier—Yes, sir, nose, sir.

SCHOOL DAYS

No, Eddie, Wilbur can't go fishing until he's thru helping me fit my skirt.
Stand still! Don't wiggle around so!

lee, hee, hee, hee

Works Two Ways

"A fine rush for the first day," said the wife of the tailor who had just opened in Plunkville. "That must mean that the old tailor isn't giving general satisfaction."
"I dunno," responded her husband. "It may mean that he isn't giving general credit."
—Kansas City Journal.

The Latest Paris Fashions

"Tell me, what was the latest that were wearing when you last returned home—well, mostly they were wearing the German's cut."
—Windy

Times that try men's souls