

ALLURING SUMMER SCENE DURING "GIRLS' DAY" AT THE SHERWOOD RECREATION CENTER

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she understands that the Liberty Loan was oversubscribed and it must have been a good deal of a disappointment to the Government that it didn't come out even; but, of course, we can't expect everything to run smoothly at first.

Lowbrow

"John," said Mrs. Crosslots, "the cook says she's going to leave."
 "What's the trouble?"
 "She says she's used to working for cultivated people and she can't stand our line of phonograph records."
 —Washington Star.

And They Get Away With It

He—Beg pardon, didn't I meet you in Atlantic City last summer?
 She—I was never in Atlantic City in my life.
 He—Well, don't let that worry you; neither was I.—Brunonian.
