EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JULY 2, 1917

PHILADELPHIA NURSE HIT

Young Woman Rushed to Dr. Blake's Hospital in Paris-Other City Briefs

A Philadelphia nurse at the front in France, Miss Madeline Jaffray, daughter of J. P. Jaffray, of 1227 Walnut street, has been injured by German airmen who bom-barded the American Hospital Unit No. 1, at Dunkirk, according to word received here today.

today. Miss Jaffray has been removed to Doctor Blake's American Hospital in Paris for treatment. A piece of shrappel fore off the heel of one foot and it is said that she will require a steel apparatus to walk.

Scavengers Arrested and Fined

Seven scavengers - were arrested this morning in the northwest section of the merning in the northwest section of the city in the course of the campaign by the Bureau of Street Cleaning to put a stop to the pillaging of the ash and refuse cans. Each was fined five dollars and costs by Maniatan Magistrate Collin Smallpox Outbreak Causes No Alarm Health officers under Chief Medical In ector A. A. Cairns today announced that they do not fear a spread of smallpox which was discovered in the negro section of South Philadelphia Faturday. Yesterday the health officers vaccinated 1400 persons in the area between Catharine and Christian and Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. disease was brought to the section by Vera Makon, a negress who came to the city from Whiteville, N. C. on June 20. The woman lived at 1506 Catharine street.

Lost Boy Was Visiting Willow Grove Little Irvin Marcus, three years old, 16) West Louden street, is at home today and West Louden street, is at nome today and entertaining no desire to visit Willow Greve. Yesterday he slipped away from his mother and in some mysterious manner boarded a Willow Grove car. He played about the park for two hours while Boy Scouts and policemen aided his mother in a city wide search for the youngster. When found he was tired and humery and shad to get back was tired and hungry and glad to get back

Threw Steamboat Chairs Overboard

Racing the decks and throwing chairs overboard was the form 'of aminement chosen by Thomas Lafferty, 1105 Earn street; Joseph Lafferty, 706 Latona street, and Joseph Hepworth, 2128 South Hancock street, to pass the time while the excur-tion steamboat Henderson was on its way from steamboat Henderson was on its way from National Park to Philadelphia yester day. All three were sent to the County Prison for ten days by Magistrate Elsen, brown at the Fourth and Race street station Finds Man Climbing Out of Window Finds Man Climbing Out of Window Sound of breaking glass in a jewelry store window at Second street and Fair-mount avenue attacted Policeman Carroli, who arrested James Cooper, of Clinchnati, Carroli told Magistrate Dietz at the Third street and Fairmount avenue station that Cooper was climbing out the window of the store, which is owned by Henry Haws Cooper had watches and jewelry in his pockets, it was testified. He was held under $1000 ball.

Rush to City Bathhouses

The arrival of summer weather caused a heavy attendance at the bathhouses of the city and at the swimming pools in the playgrounds that were opened a week ago. The total for the first week of the summer was 278.253, divided as follows: Men. was 278,253, divided as tonova, 59,531; boys, 180,736; women, 12,784, and girls, 25,202,

Despondent Man Kills Himself

Despondency over the death of his wife, A year age, drove Jacques Hoch, a bottler, to suicide in his home, 1621 North Sixth street, this morning, according to Deputy Coroner George McKeever. McKeever said Hoch was found dead with a builte, hole in his head a grin by his side and his micro his head, a gun by his side and his wife's photograph in his hand. He was fifty-four years old.

Fire Follows Explosion at Medico-Chi

Will Makes Large Bequests to Institution-His Estate Valued at $889,182

Dr. J. William White, the noted surgeon who_died in May, 1916, left an estate valued at \$889,182.59, according to an account filed today by his widow and excentrix, Letitia White. Doctor White, who was a trustee of the University of Pennwas a trustee of the University of Fent-sylvania, made large beduests to that fi-siliution, but suved Mirs. White as the principal legates. The accountant claims credit for dis-bursements made in the settlement of the affairs of the existe, amounting to $33 \times$ s64.06, leaving a balance on hand of $485 \times$, 138.53 awaiting distribution.

125,000 20,000 15,000 10,000

Funeral of Young Army Officer Will Be Held in First Presbyterian Church, Germantown

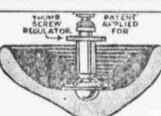

Puneral of Lieutenant Warden McLean, U. S. A., who died u. a Chattanooga, Tenu, hospital last Friday from injuries result-ing from a fall from his horse, will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon in First Presby-at a b clock this atternoon in First Presby-terian Church, Germantswa. The Rev. William Beatty Jennings, pastor of the church, will officiate, and interment will be in V est Laurel Hill Cemetery. The parents of Lieutenant McLean received many letters and telegrams of condolence today from all sections of the country.

Among them was a telegram from President Hibben, of Princeton University. In this telegram, President Hibben brought out the fact that Lieutenant McLean was the first Princeton man to lose his life in the war with Germany. Lieutenant McLean was an instructor in the officers' training camp at Orlothofor. and had been detailed with a battery of artillery to march to Chattanooga. It was artillery to march to Chattanooga. It was while the lieutenant was passing over the historic battlefield of Chickannugan that his horse suddenly shied and bolted. McLean was hurled headfirst against a tree Lieutenant McLean was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. McLean, Indian Queen have, Germantown. Mr. McLean is the pub-linker of the Bulletin. The young main re-ceived his carfy education at the Penn Charter School and the Hill School, Potts-tawn. He graduated from Princeton in 1912. He played on the varsity football team and rowed in the eight. When war was declared McLean, with experience gained at Platta-burg, passed the army examinations and was commissioned a second lieutenant. Two Policemen Win Promotions Policemen William F. Fagan, of the Third street and Fairmeunt avenue station, and Coleman Bookbinder, of the Third and De Lancey streets station, were today appointed is patrol sergeants.

Seeley's Adjusto Rupture Pad will increase efficiency of any truss 50%. Pressure can be adjusted at will, Swivel action in bottom allows edges to yield to every motion with-out shifting centre or allowing rup-ture to allp. Comfortable, suft, dur-ture is all sanitary. Malled anywhere on receipt of $2. State kind of truss it is for. Call or write for circular. No agents. I. B. SEELEY, 1027 Walnut St. Cut out and keep for reference.

PERRY'S BIG Twice-a-Year Reduction Sale

SPRING and SUMMER CLOTHES

Opens up fresh as a daisy this first July Monday Morning with thousands of Suits, hundreds of styles, unlimited assortments and all sizes at these liberal price reductions!

$15 and $18 Suits for	$13.50
$20 and $22.50 Suits for $16.50 and	$17.50
$25.00 Suits for	and $20
$28 and $30 Suits for $23	3 and $24

And so on up to the finest $35, $40 and $43 Suits at corresponding Reductions!

Trousers Reduced!

$2.50 for $3.50 Trousers; $3 for $4 Trousers; $4 for $5 Trousers; $5 for $6 Trousers, and so on, and so on!

I A Perry Reduction Sale is not a clearance of a few handfuls of odd sizes-it's a sweeping cut in price on thousands and thousands of Suits that were kept a hundred per cent efficient for variety right up to the end of the regular season!

I The heavy buying of all last week made little or no impression on the assortments at any price reduction! This Monday Morning they're ready for you-as beautiful a lot of summer Suits as ever were displayed on our counters!

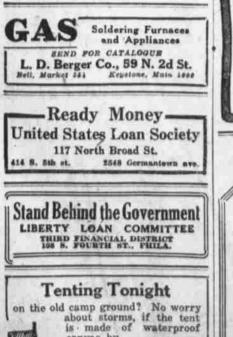

caused an explosion today in a building of the Medico-Chirurgical College, 1705 Cherry street. The chemicals, which were packed in excelsion for shipment, explored in one of the buildings condemned to he razed for the Parkway. The excelsion razed for caught fire, but the flames were put out by workmen. The damage was slight.

CROP REPORT EXCEEDS GOVERNMENT FIGURES

B. W. Snow Estimates Yield of Corn at 3,137,000,000 Bushels and Winter Wheat at 400,000,000 Bushels

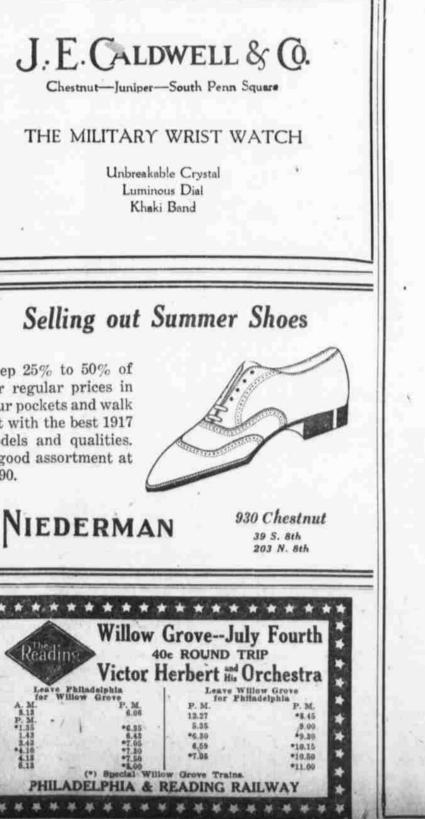

CHICAGO, July 2. In a report issued today by B. W. Snow

In a report issued today by B. W. Snow he estimates the area of corn at 118.914,000 acres, the condition at 82.3 and the indi-cated crop at 3.139,000,000 bushels. He puts the condition of winter wheat at 74.5 and the indicated yield at 400,000.-000 bushels as compared with 373,000,000 bushels forecast by the Government. He gives the condition of spring wheat at 85.3 and the indicated crop on his acreage he figures at 255,000,000 bushels, or 276,000,000 bushels on the Government figures. He bushels on the Government figures. He places the condition of cats at 88 and the indicated yield at 1.435.000.000 bushels, as compared with 1.381.000.000 bushels forecast in the last report of the Governmen canvas by F. VANDERHERCHEN'S SONS Water St., Phila. Sign of the Sali

I Remember the Big Note in this Summer Sale-Our Prices were already away below those marked on similar qualities all over the country!

I Lay in a couple of suits at least! Buy all you need for some time to come, and Buy them NOW!

Perry Tropical Clothes

I Palm Beach cloth, "Breezweve," crashes, mohairs and other hot-weather fabrics in natural and dark colors-grays, greens, dark shades of tan, dark grays, oxfords and blues with stripes, and a number of novelty patterns!

PALM BEACH SUITS in cream white and darker shades, in grays, blues, oxfords.	$7.50, $8.50 $9.00, $10.00
"BREEZWEVE" fabrics and other tropical weaves in greens, browns, silver grays and novelties.	$10.00, $12.00 and $15.00
MOHAIR SUITS in blue, gray, black, with stripes and fancy mixtures.	$13.50 and $15.00
White Flannel Suits	$20.00

Outing Trousers of plain white and striped flannel, $5 to $8 White Duck Trousers, $2 to $3

Store closes daily at 5, Saturdays at 1, during July and August

PERRY & CO., "N. B. T." 16th & Chestnut Sts.