

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAY'S PICTORIAL HAPPENINGS

HEADS OAK LANE RED CROSS Much of the success achieved by this active unit in the army of war relief workers is due to the energy displayed by Mrs. H. E. Asbury. Her own efforts and those of her co-workers have borne fruit in substantial donations in money and supplies for the American base hospitals already in France and for those now preparing to sail for the war front. The Oak Lane unit recently held an entertainment for the fund which was highly successful.

FRENCH NOBLEWOMAN TO LIVE HERE Baroness de la Grange, wife of Lieutenant de la Grange, of the French army, who has taken a house in Washington for the coming social season.

A BELLE OF CAPITAL SOCIETY Miss Margaret Reed, daughter of Mrs. George Reed, well known and a great favorite in the resident and official social circles of Washington. Miss Reed's popularity is not confined to members of these two sets, as she is widely known beyond the social limits of the national capital by reason of her charming personality. She is also noted for her participation in outdoor amusements.

A CHAMPION POLE VAULTER Ralph Runyon, State College, '19, in clearing twelve feet four inches in the Meadowbrook games topped the college record by seven inches. Runyon's career gives encouragement to his admirers, who look upon him as destined to smash all pole-vaulting figures before the close of his college career two years hence.

ENVOY OF KING ALBERT Major General Mathieu Leclercq is the military head of the Belgian Mission to the United States now in this country.

SPEEDY PENN STATE RUNNER With records of 1:59 and 4:26 2-5, respectively, Lawrence M. Shields, '19, holds the college championships in the 880-yard and one-mile classes. Shields's flying start in breaking the records makes the mercury-footed star a dangerous prospect in these two classes for world's record honors on the cinder paths within the next few years.

TO MOBILIZE HOUSEWIVES Mrs. J. Willis Martin, as chairman of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense, has called a meeting today of housewives to aid the Hoover plan.

A PATRIOTIC MASCOT James S. Cluley, of West Philadelphia, who holds that "rank" in Company H, of the Sixth Pennsylvania Infantry, as he appears in his fighting togs with his regiment.

COMMANDS BOYS' BRIGADE Colonel Charles Roth, of the First Regiment of Pennsylvania, is an executive widely known in the junior army throughout the country.

CHINESE IN UNITED STATES SERVICE Lincoln Shah, son of Kai Fu Shah, former Chinese Minister to this country, has joined the Junior American Guard and remains in Washington. His father has returned to China.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she saw in the paper that bean balls were served to the visiting team yesterday and she supposes they're at least nourishing.

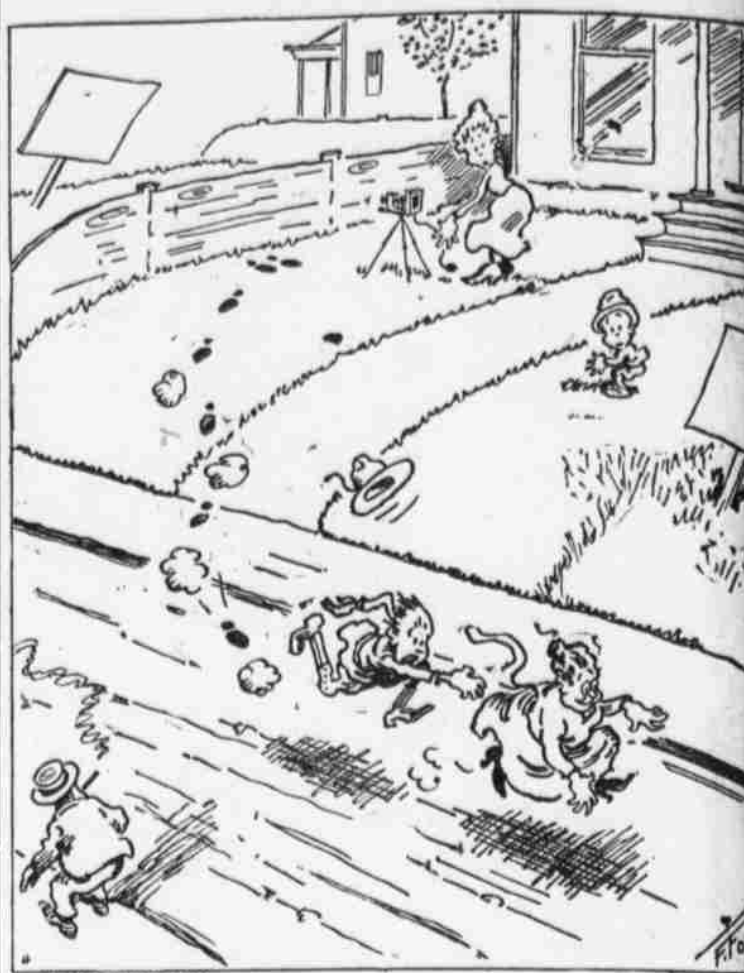

Bawled Out

Jack Slowguy—May I—er—kiss you? Jane Fastlane—What do you want—written permission?

An Unlikely Event

He—If I stole a kiss would you scream for your parents? She—No, not unless you wanted to kiss the whole family.

PRIVATE SPRIGGIN'S MA STARTS DOWN THE STREET TO BUY LIEUT. COL. BELCHER'S SWORD SO THAT HER BOY'S PICTURE CAN BE TAKEN WITH IT

By FONTAINE FOX

THE PADDED CELL

LET YOUR MIRROR TELL YOU WHAT YOUR FRIENDS WANT

THERE'S ONE BORN EVERY MINUTE!

"FUNNY! THE SALES-MAN SAID IT WOULD STAND THE RAIN!"

HAYWARD

Patriotic Rivalry

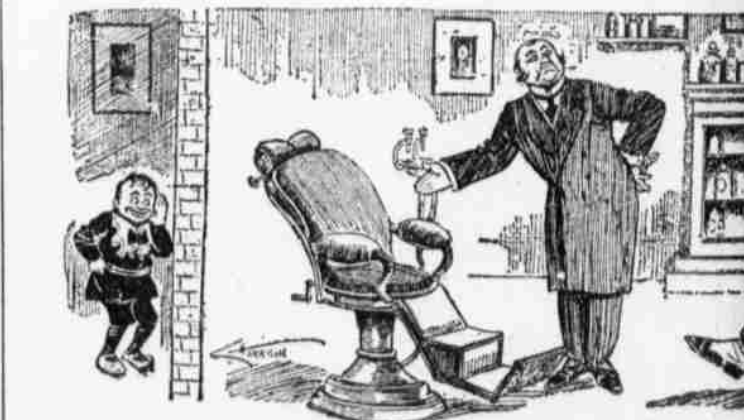

A man we hate is Samuel Bowers; His backyard garden's better'n ours.

War Tragedies

First Weary Willie (studying war news)—I wish the Russians would begin again. Second Weary Willie—Why? First Weary Willie—'Cos we're doin' all the work at present.

HEARTLESS

Little Boy (who lives next door to a dentist)—I wonder if the next one is as holler as much as the last one did!

SCHOOL DAYS

His first night out—everybody's gone to bed—but the gollins

So Be It

Prof.—What is your name? Stude—Schwab, sir. Prof.—Ob or ab? Stude—Litt B., sir.

The Proof of the Pudd

Anna—Is your new suitor safe? Belle—Well, I should say so; five courses at dinner. Safe Isn't he rather fast, dear? The anxious mother. Yes, mamma, replied the but I don't think he will get