

FROM FASHION PARADE TO MILITARY TURNOUT WOMAN IS THE CENTRAL FIGURE

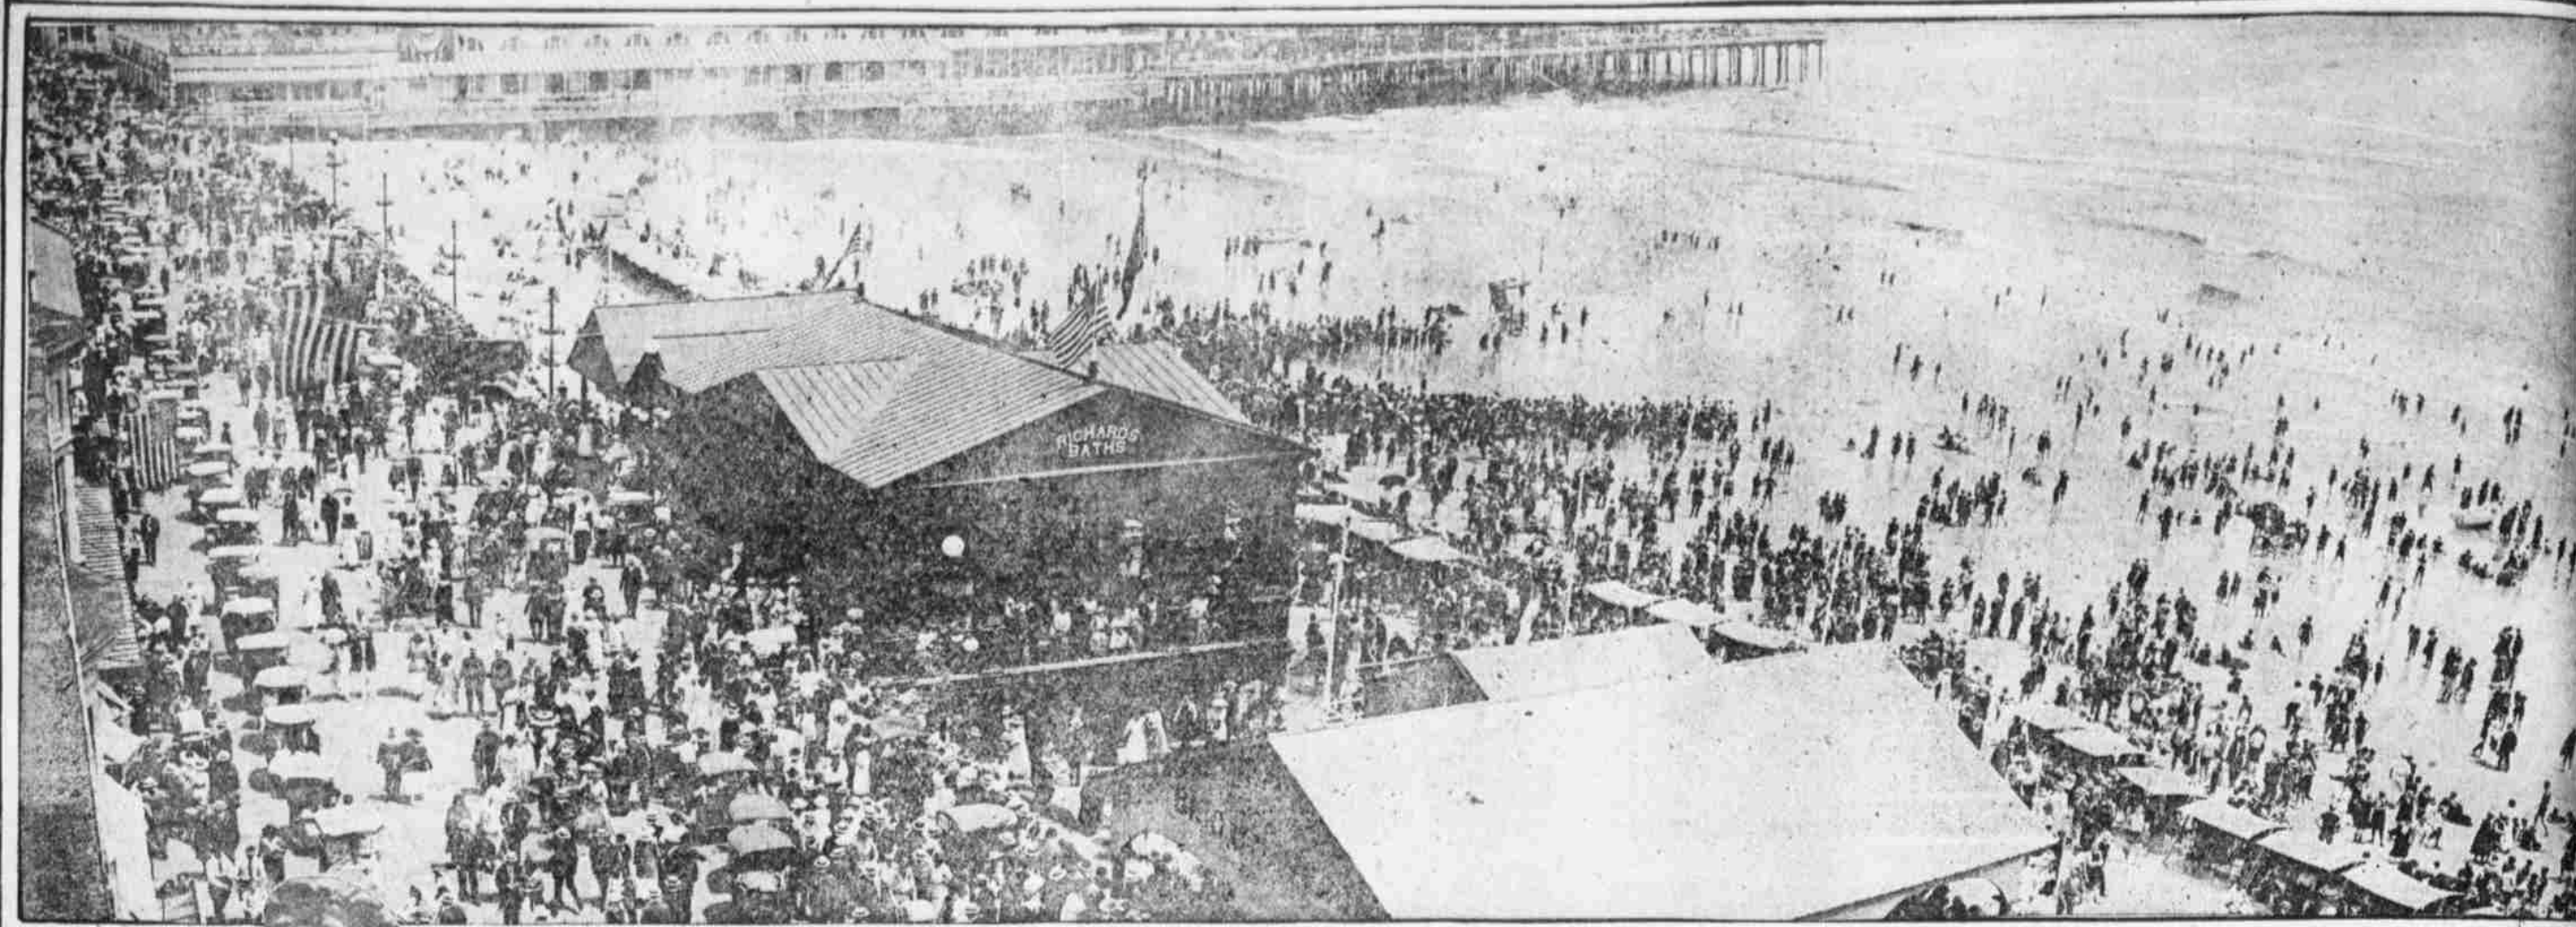

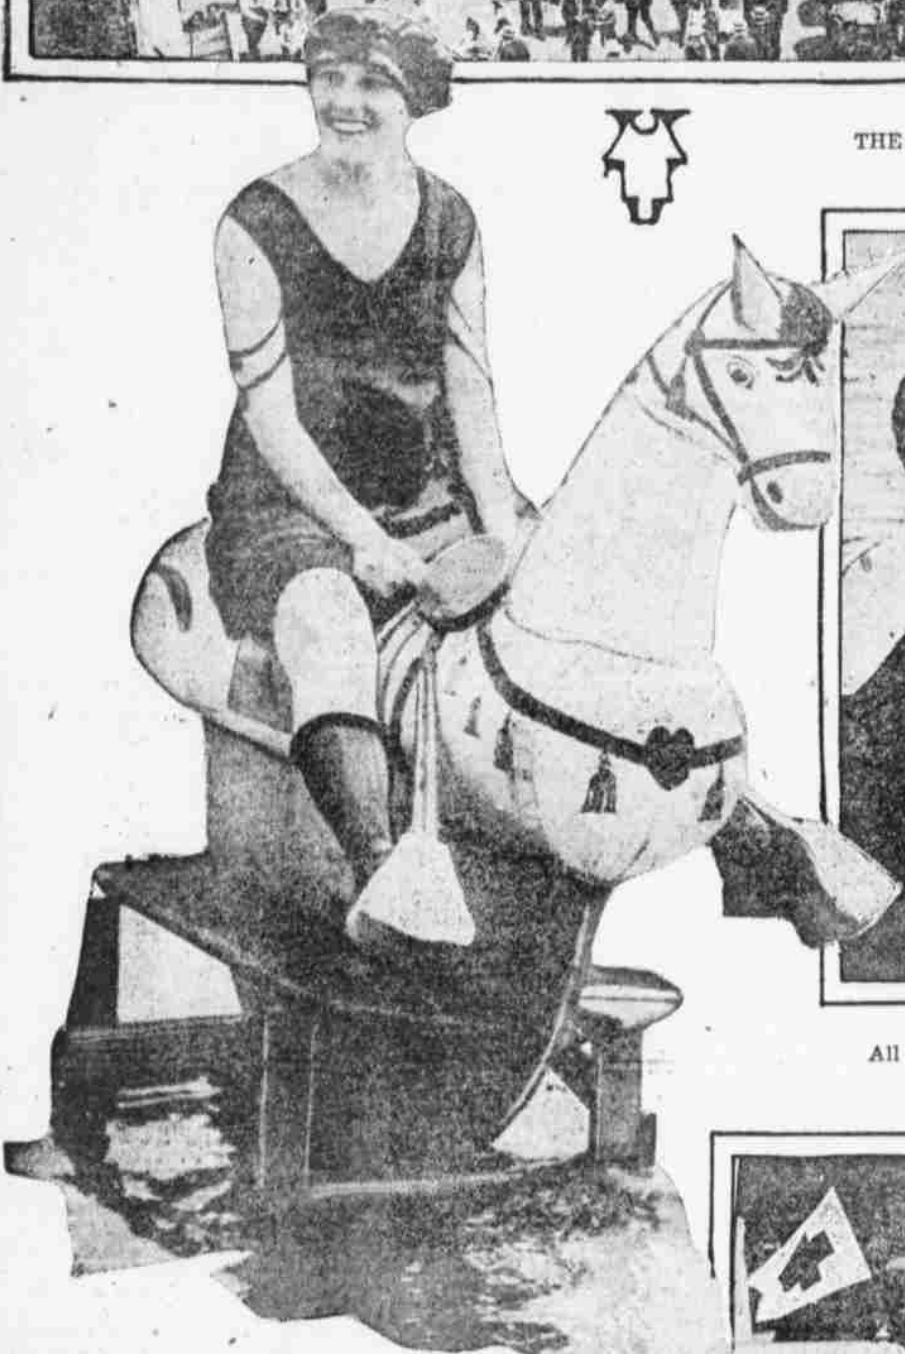

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer

THE MOBILIZATION ON THE ATLANTIC CITY BEACH FRONT AND BOARDWALK REVEALS A FEMININE ARMY OF AMUSEMENT SEEKERS AND A LAVISH DISPLAY OF STYLISH COSTUMES, BANISHING REMINDERS THAT THESE ARE DAYS OF WAR AND ECONOMY

Copyright, International Film Service
READY TO RIDE TO VICTORY ON HER NEW HOBBY
Lieutenant Aldien Hudson, of the Sea Horse Brigade, displays her aquatic horsemanship. The deep sea-going steed is the latest beach bathing fad.

FAIR COMPETITORS IN SWIMMING EVENTS AWAITING THE SIGNAL FOR THE PLUNGE
All are members of the Turngemeinde and, left to right, are Helen Rubicam, Mary McGrath, Lottie Simmons, Marie Walsh, Ethel Hague and Dot Kitting. Every one is expert in the natatorial game.

LATEST "AUTO TERRORS" OF THE LANGHORNE PIKE
More than $100 in cash was raised by these young women, who held up motorists as they passed their "trap," the proceeds swelling the Red Cross fund. Left to right are Miss Edith Stewart, Mrs. William Hanneman, Jr., Miss Ruth Wildman, Miss Dorothy Monroe and Miss Ruth Monroe.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing
CONGRESSWOMAN CALLS UPON PRESIDENT
The object of Miss Jeanette Rankin's visit was to obtain shorter hours for workers in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood
SOCIETY WOMEN TOUR COUNTY IN FOOD CONSERVATION CAMPAIGN
Mrs. Louise Andrea demonstrates how to cook beans in front of the "Canning Special" now visiting Orange County, New York.

URQUHART CHAPTER AND OCEAN CITY RED CROSS
They "rallied 'round the flag" with such good effect that they induced citizens of the seashore resort to contribute $500 for their fund, the money being dropped into the outstretched emblem which the members carried along the Boardwalk. In the front rank are Mrs. Malpass, Mrs. G. W. Urquhart, Mrs. G. W. Underdown and Mrs. A. Gray.