Doctor yon Bethmann-Hollweg went on to say that "the Government was unable to accept Socialistic propositions, because they proved unsuccessful in Russia."

FIGHT ON JUNKERS

Vigorous demands that the Government eliminate the influence of th powerful Pan-German party were made at the secret session of the main committee of the Reichstag, according to official dispatches.

Dr. Mathias Erzberger, leader of the clericals, threatened to make a cosiition with the Socialists against the Chancellor, Doctor von Bethmann-Holiweg, unless "the Government separates itself from the Pan-Germans."

Another Berlin telegram also official, quoted the Taeglische hundschau as saying that, during a recent secret meeting of the Reichstag Main Committee the German Chancellor categorically rejected the request that he express himself in favor of Official word today said the Kaiser yes-terday presided at a "Kronsrat" meeting or conference of the crown council, held at the palace of the Imperial Chancelor. All the palace of the imperial Chancelor, an Prussian and German ministers partici-pated. This was the first meeting of this body since the start of the war. Even the cautious comment of Berlin newspapers attaches extraordinary significance to this meeting. The German empire must have approval by the Beichstag of the annual budget of expenses for the war. If that parliamenexpenses for the way. It that partners tary body in pursuance of its apparent antagonism against Chancellor von Beth-mann-Hollweg or other ministerial officers withholds this vote it will be necessary seemingly for the Kaiser to remove Hollweg and then quiet the situation with a number of concessions. The Kaiser alone has power to remove the Chancellor. The Reichstag aiay bait him, may flaunt his power, bu it cannot discharge him.

SUPPORT OF KAISER Heretofore the Kaiser's stanch support Heretofore the Kaiser's stanch support has carried Hollweg through half a dozen crines, some of almost as much magnitude as that of today. The present situation, however, is made more acute by the fact that the Socialists, Centrists and Radicals are all supposed to be united against the Government. This would give them a clear majority in the Reichstag.

Dispatches today declared the Reichstag rights of voters. At a secret meeting of the Reichstag Main Committee on Monday, Doctor David, a Socialist, assailed the Pan-Germans, de-is under violent criticism for overoptimistic manding an immediate renunciation of the policy of annexations. Doctor i reperted his declara-that England was just about ready to quit

It is possible, in view of the state conference, the speech may be postponed. When it does come the crisis in the whole situation will have been reached.

Germany is unbeaten, and will remain so for several years, military experts say.
