

Photo from International Film Service.
Dainty Red Cross handbag the latest fad at Atlantic City. Miss Gladys Clark, of New York, is the proud possessor.

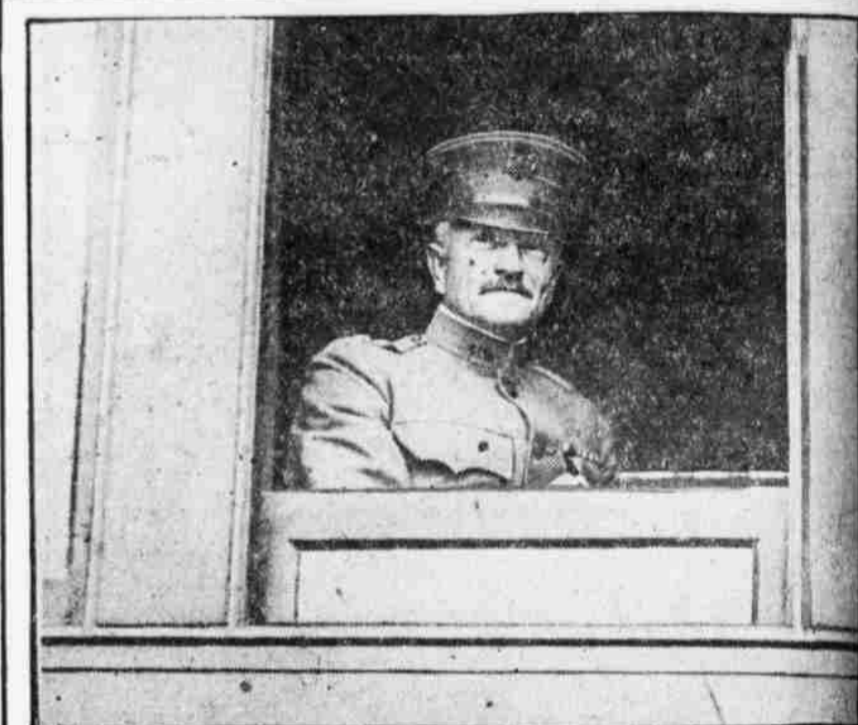

SURGICAL DRESSING CLASS OF PHILADELPHIA RED CROSS AUXILIARY NO. 5
These patriotic women meet several times each week at the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Thirty-seventh and Chestnut streets. Standing at the extreme right is Mrs. W. G. Houston, chairman of Auxiliary No. 5.

Photo from International Film Service.
Lieutenant Colonel Albert E. Persons, in command of the Allentown camp of the American Ambulance Corps.

These straw bonnets are the very latest mode in equine chapeaux.

GENERAL PERSHING ON HIS WAY TO "PARIS"
Henri Bazin, EVENING LEDGER war correspondent in France, sends this photograph of the famous commander of the "Sammees," as he appeared aboard a railroad train from Boulogne.

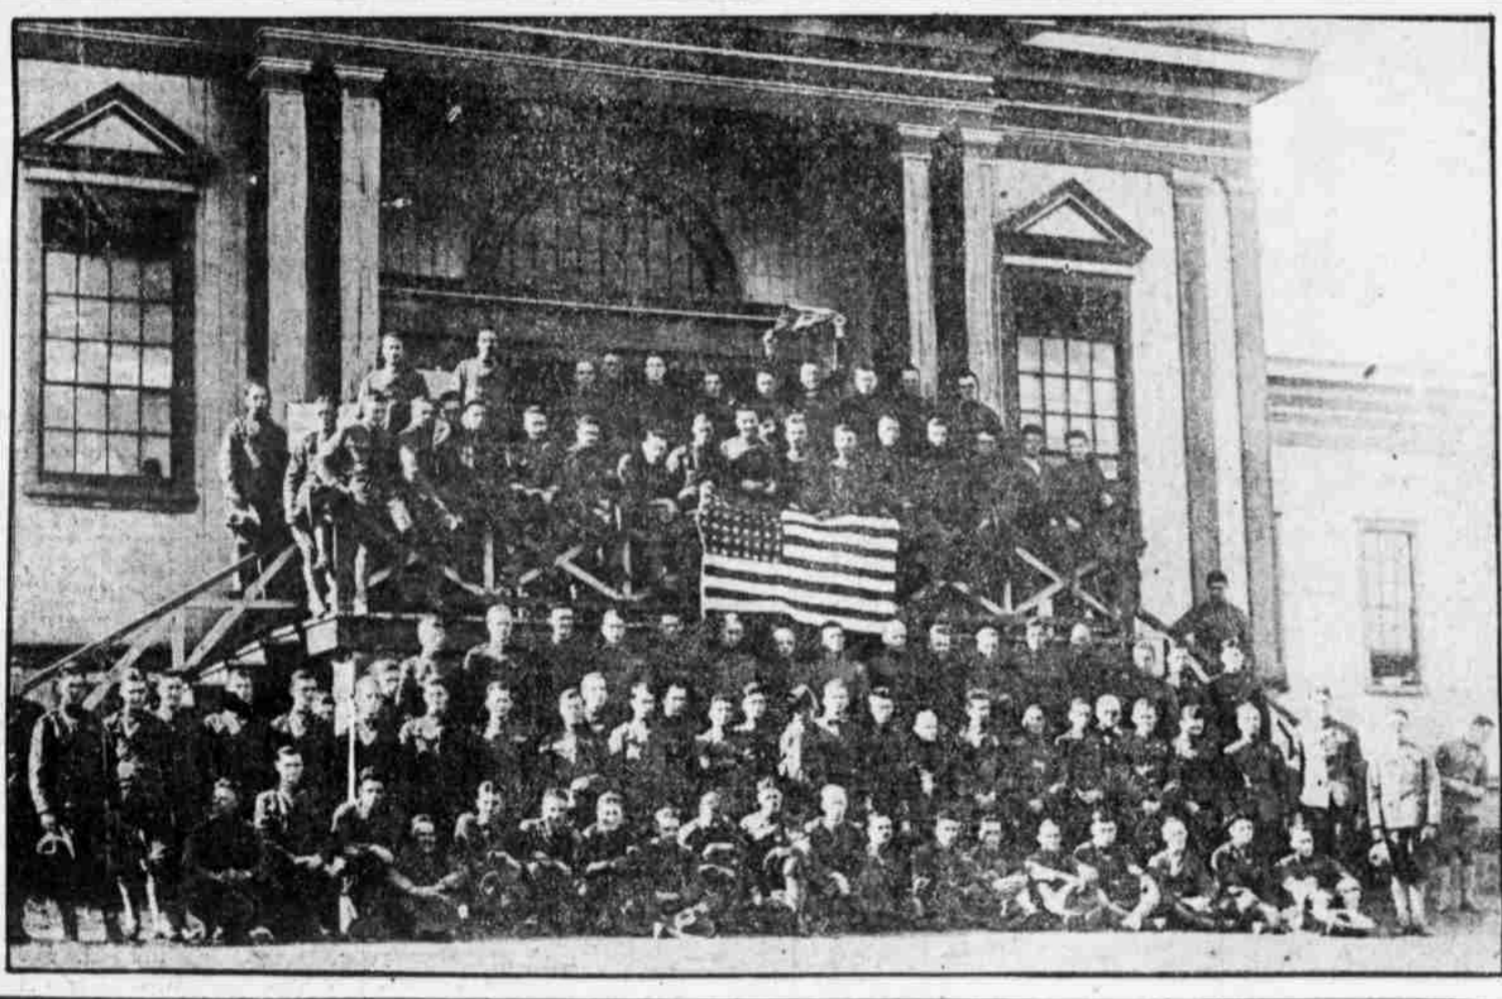

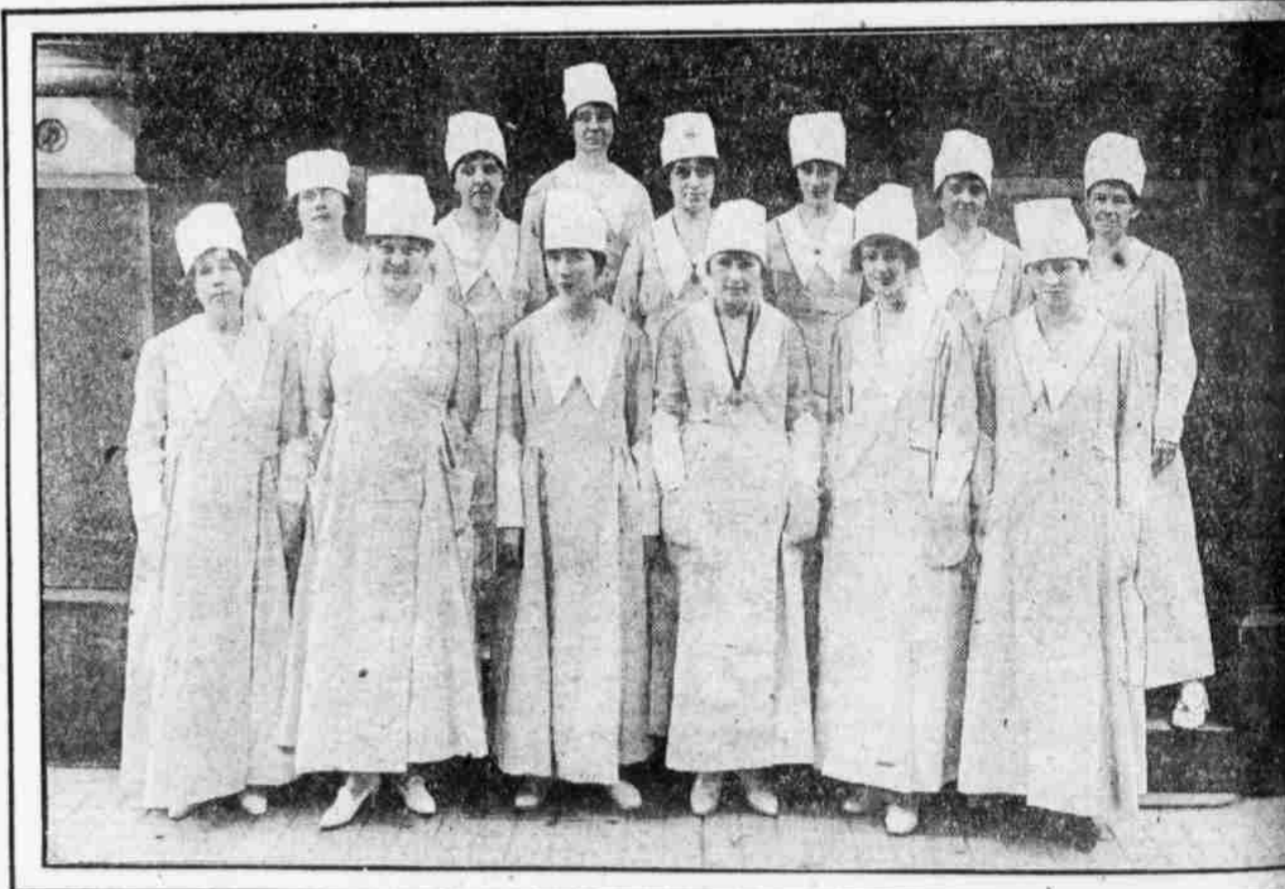

Photo from International Film Service.
HARVARD MEN IN TRAINING AT THE AMERICAN AMBULANCE CAMP AT ALLENTOWN
Three units, representing the Crimson at the upstate training ground, photographed in front of their barracks.

Clinch's photo.
AIDS OF MR. HOOVER WEARING THE NEW FOOD CONSERVATION COSTUME
These women are employees of the Food Administration Bureau in Washington, who recommend their simple uniform to housewives joining the vast food-saving army.

A JOOLY GROUP OF SWIMMERS WHO DISPORT THEMSELVES SEVERAL TIMES EACH WEEK IN THE POOL OF THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION IN GERMANTOWN

OLGA DORFNER'S NEWEST RIVAL
Dessie Ryan, a young Philadelphia swimmer, who is training for the coming 440-yard championship race.